TONIGHT'S AMUSEMENTS.

To Visit Sick Pastors-H. D. Kimball, dean of the College of Theology, was unable to be present at the Methodist ministers' meeting this morning to read paper on "Prevailing Theories of the Atonement." In his absence a most excellent paper on "Savanarola" was subby Dr. B. J. Hondley, who had prepared it while in the desert for rest last summer. Previous to the reading of the paper the reports of a number of committees were heard and other routine business transacted. Through the decision to send various pasters to visit Rev. Mr. Fowler, who is ill at the Portland sanitarium, it was decided to appoint a standing committee to visit sick pastors. It was also decided to nights, beginning Thursday, December send a supply to Forest Grove every 16, with a special price matinee Saturother Sunday if it be in accord with the day, wishes of the district superintendent.

Settlement of Death Claim-County Judge Webster this morning approved the settlement of a claim for damages against the Bortland Railway, Light & Power company for the death of Mrs. Mary Brown for $450. These terms were acceptable to Paul Brown, hus-band of the deceased and administrator of her estate. Mrs. Brown was killed on September 15, when she accompanied a friend to a car. When her friend was aboard she crossed the track and was hit by another car coming in the opposite direction on the other track.

Will of Mrs. H. A. Bandall-By the will of Mrs. Hester A. Randall, filed for probate today, Edith M. Davis of Portland, her daughter, is bequeathed all of the real estate, valued at $4250. The personal property, placed at $1500 in value, is divded equally between Carrie E. Sears of Alameda, Cal., a daughter, and Charles B. Randall of Los Angeles, a son, except $100 given to George R. Parker of Aurora, Ind., brother, and $50 to a friend, Mrs. Belle Brown of The Dailes.

Lectured for Flirting-For flirting with a soldier on the streets, Lucile LeBerg, 18 years old, 755 East Oak street and Jessie Santell, 16 years old, 423 East Forty-eighth street, were taken to the police station Sunday midnight, and given a severé lecture by Captain Baty. Special Officer C. R. Grissin apprehended the girls flirting with the soldier, who was on his way to Van-couver. The girls said they had been to the skating rink. After the lecture, they were directed to go home.

Purse Snatched on Street-As Mrs. J. M. Cahill, 255 Fifth street was walking along Fifteenth street last evening her purse was snatched by a bold thief. The purse contained $35. She was alone at the time. Two men walked behind her for some distance, and in passing around her grabbed the purse and ran. They were not apprehended.

Accused of Forgery-Fred L. Whitwell, a bill poster, who is accused of forging the name of an advertising firm to checks in San Francisco, was taken to Vallejo last night by Chief of Police Standford of that place. The ck upon which he is charged is for $35, but several other checks will be

"INEVSMENT SECURITIES ARE NOT INVESTMENT OPPORTUNITIES—"We have seen that Wall street is the mart for trust investments (carrying necessarily low dividend or interest rates), a temporary depository for surplus capital, whilst its owners seek more profitable investment. A conter for the speculator (whom we may right here classify as a gambler pure and simple, as his judgment of values and probabilities are, however sound, set at naught by the inshipulative investor), and a field in which the manipulator of millions plays the only game capable of satisfying his craving for excitement and power.

Here manifestly is not the field for the man or men seeking to win the gifts of fortune by the exercise of judgment and skill. Securities purchased here have been infinted to their, fullest possible extent. To increase of wealth can accrue through natural increments of while because that increment, when possible, is discounted years in advance of its fruition. Gain can accrue, therefore, only from the rise of the fall of the stock dealt in: As these fluctuations are the result, not of natural causes, but of artificial excess almost invariable, the game is played against opponents who use stacked wards and loaded dies. There is but one logical ending for the small invarior.
