that the Mormon metropolis would get the big battle, the governor of Utah declared in most emphatic terms that the fight could not be pulled off in Sait Lake or any other city in Utah.
Now, however, he has changed his tune.
"I do not think the fight will take

That the business men of Salt Lake and other Utah cities are overwhelming-ly in favor of holding the fight there is indisputable and that they may have exerted their influence with the gov-ernor in favor of Rickard is not at all improbable. Rickard seems to be so sure of his ground that it is safe to assume that he "knows something." Has Wealthy Backers,

Among his backers are some of the nost influential and wealthlest men in Utah and it is a cinch that they are going to leave no stone unturned to biggest thing in pugilism to

In the meantime Jack Gleason continues to plug for San Francisco, declar-ing for this city just as emphatically as Gleason will thresh the matter out. after securing Coffroth's consent to the Gleason today denied that one object of new alignment.
