

YENNEY PRAISED BY STATE BOARD

Retiring Health Officer Became Prominent Through Efforts to Get Pure Milk.

An appreciation of the services rendered by Dr. Robert C. Yenney as state health officer and secretary to the state board of health has been filed among the minutes of the state health board's proceedings in the form of a resolution which reads:

"Whereas, this board and the state of Oregon have been rendered valuable services during the past four years by Dr. Robert C. Yenney, and

"Whereas, the services rendered of him as state health officer and secretary of the state board of health are so exacting that it is no longer practicable for him to retain the office for the remuneration which the board with its present appropriation can afford to pay, therefore,

"Be it Resolved, that we tender Dr. Yenney our heartfelt thanks for his faithful, honest, and efficient services, together with our sincere regrets upon his inability to serve the board further in his capacity as state health officer and secretary of the state board of health."

Connection Notable.

Dr. Yenney made his connection with the state board of health notable by his campaign against impure water, milk and other causes of typhoid epidemics. He was also especially active in fighting tuberculosis. Regardless of personal convenience or the calls of his large medical practice, Dr. Yenney traveled all over the state, administering the interest taken by various communities in the matter of their milk and water supply in the prevention of disease and in sanitary living.

At the last meeting of the state board of health Dr. Yenney tendered his resignation, which was accepted under protest. He has been succeeded by Dr. Calvin S. White. The state health office has been removed to Dr. White's office in the Dekum building with Miss Markham continued in charge of the office work.

BURNS' BIRTH TO BE CELEBRATED BY SCOTS

The one hundred and fifty-first anniversary of the birth of Scotland's bard, Robert Burns, will be celebrated by a concert to be held under the auspices of Clan Macleay, Order of Scottish Clans, on Tuesday evening, January 26. The Bungalow theatre has been engaged, and some of the best local talent secured.

The Harmony quartet, a recent organization consisting of Mrs. May Dearborn-Schwab, soprano; Mrs. Lulu Dahl Miller, contralto; J. Ross Fargo, tenor, and J. Claire Monteth, baritone, contributing part songs, duets and solos, will appear before a Portland Scots audience for the first time. Mrs. Rose Courson Reed, with her popular Treble Clef club, will also appear. Miss Jane Trene Burns, soprano, will make her debut in Scottish song. Other items include Highland piping and dancing. Altogether, the program promises to be the best ever arranged by the popular Scottish society, Clan Macleay.

The Browniekar Contest

The Greater Meier & Frank Store's Browniekar Contest ends on the night of February 1. Compositions on "Why the children like to visit the Meier & Frank store." This interesting educational contest for boys and girls has been renewed with much vigor. There are no conditions or terms under which the boys and girls between the ages of 6 and 16 may enter. The judges for this contest will be selected with great care, and from the number of compositions already entered keen interest has been aroused, and some very interesting reading will be afforded at the proper time. This store is always first in taking care of the demands of the little ones, and this opportunity to express their views of why they like to visit Portland's greatest and best store, will give to our little friends an opportunity to secure one of these splendid automobiles. They are on display in our mammoth Toy Section—fourth floor. One machine will go to the boy writing the best composition, and one to the girl writing the best composition. Any child in the Northwest is eligible in the Automobile Contest, and we invite as many others who care to enter the same to present their compositions before February 1. Mail them, or, better still, bring them in.
