

CENSUS BUREAU READY FOR COUNT OF OREGONIANS

Uncle Sam Will See That Great Care Is Exercised in Getting Responsible Enumerators—Commercial Bodies to Help.

Uncle Sam, represented in this instance by S. C. Beach, is rapidly getting into shape to count the noses of every man, woman and child living within the borders of Oregon. Up at Salem, H. J. Hendricks, in charge of the first congressional district, is just as busy as Senator Beach, though the senator has by far the bigger job. The local census office is in the Lumbermen Exchange building.

Suggestions From News Gatherers.

It is probable that this meeting will be held some time during the month. At the meeting the press representatives will be asked for suggestions as to how to make the census enumeration as thorough and complete as possible. Having put forward the plan, they will of course be expected to get behind it and work for its success.

Examinations for Enumerators to Be Held About January 25.

These examinations are to be simple. The papers will be examined and complete as possible. The census bureau officials with the recommendations of the local directors. April 15 the active work of enumeration will be commenced.

No Politics in It.

Senator Beach is asking that all men who make application for positions as enumerators furnish recommendations as to their fitness and qualifications. Senator Beach says that these recommendations do not have anything to do with politics, that he is after good men, whether they vote the Republican or Democratic ticket, and that he has men in mind for positions who are Democrats to his own personal knowledge.

Work to Be Well Done.

"I want the people of the state to be satisfied with the census, and I will try to see to it that the work is done well," said Senator Beach this morning.

"It is easy to get enumerators in the big towns, but in the remote districts it is difficult. I am asking the commercial associations and other organizations of like kind to furnish me with recommendations of men in their localities, so that each district will be sure to have a good man to do the work. I want a good census, and I do not care who aids in the gathering, so long as the man is responsible and capable. For that reason I am applying to the commercial bodies to assist me by making recommendations of men considered to be qualified to aid in making the count."

VEGETABLES CANNOT GROW ON SANDBAR

Upholding the contention of the Sun Dial Ranch company that it had overgrown the May Land company $8000 in the purchase of the ranch, because a sandbar at the mouth of the Sandy river at its junction with the Columbia is below the ordinary high water mark, Circuit Judge Bronaugh has given judgment for the Sun Dial ranch for that amount.

The plaintiff contended for what is known as the Greenleaf survey, a meander line running near the river bank, while the May Land company claimed that the sandbar, containing 146 acres, was a part of the ranch. The sellers agreed to refund $50 per acre for this sandbar if the courts decided that it did not belong to the ranch.

Judge Bronaugh decided that the test as to ordinary high water mark depends on whether the land is under water a sufficient length of time during the year to prevent it from vegetation. The evidence showed that the land is under water from two and a half to four months each year, and Judge Bronaugh said that this sandbar cannot be considered upland.

A LITTLE RED SPOT

Novel Experiment by Which It May Be Made to Disappear.

A peculiar feature about psoriasis, the new skin discovery, is that no one is asked to buy it without first sending to the Emergency Laboratories, No. 23 West Twenty-fifth street, New York City, for an experimental sample and applying same to an affected part of the skin, about the size of a silver dollar. It will clear the spot in treated in 24 hours—a remarkable visual demonstration of its powers.

While psoriasis has been mentioned principally in connection with the cure of eczema, the most stubborn of skin diseases, it must be remembered that when used for it, hives, pimples, blotches, acne, itching feet, scaly scalp, chafing of infants and similar minor skin troubles, its action is all the more pronounced, results being seen after an overnight application. As only a small quantity of psoriasis is necessary to cure such cases, a special 50 cent package, usually sufficient, has been placed on sale at the Skidmore Drug Co., Woodard, Clarke & Co., and other leading drug stores in Portland, and throughout the country.

LIBELY POLITICS AHEAD IN INDIANA

Both Parties Preparing for One of the Most Interesting Campaigns Ever Held There.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 7.—Indiana is looking forward to one of the liveliest political campaigns that the state has seen in many years. Though the election is still a long way off, both parties are already preparing for the campaign. The Democrats will start the ball rolling tomorrow, when the state committee will meet in this city for reorganization. At the same time there will be a conference of the party leaders and a general discussion of the lines on which the campaign will be made. Encouraged by their success in the last election, when they elected the governor and nearly the entire congressional delegation, the Democrats are looking forward to even greater victories in the coming contest.

Present indications point to the reelection of U. S. Jackson as chairman of the Democratic state committee. While Thomas Taggart, former chairman of the Democratic national committee and still one of the controlling factors in Indiana politics, is believed to be a none too ardent supporter of Jackson, it is thought he will acquiesce in the desire of the majority of the party leaders, who believe that the state chairman should be reelected as a reward for his successful management of the last campaign.

Republicans Have a Contest.

Interest in Republican politics also centers in the state chairmanship election. There are indications that there will be a contest for this place, a thing that has not occurred for several years. Former Governor W. F. Durbin has made a canvass of the state through his friends for the position, but he is not believed to be the choice of many of the leaders. It is admitted that Harry S. New, member of the national committee, could have the place if he would accept it. Whoever is chosen, however, will be a man entirely satisfactory to Senator Beveridge, who is now in entire control of the federal patronage so far as Indiana is concerned, and who is to be a candidate for reelection at the hands of the next legislature.

Liquor Is Important Issue.

From the way things are shaping themselves at present it appears certain that the problem of the liquor traffic is going to be one of the chief issues of the coming campaign. Recent decisions of the courts have been uniformly in support of temperance legislation and temperance sentiment has grown rapidly in the Democratic party.

Though there is a strong sentiment in the Republican party against any further strengthening of local option, there is an aggressive local element within the party. Those who oppose making it an issue in the coming campaign and those who would be willing to drop it, if such a thing could be done gracefully, concede that it will be very hard to get away from it.

Many believe that the real issue that the leaders will have to meet in the state convention is that of state-wide prohibition. The Indiana Anti-Saloon league is in favor of such an issue, its officers making sentiment in its favor among church members, and there will be many delegates to the next state convention who are advocates of local option and who will be willing to take the further step of declaring in favor of state-wide prohibition.

NORTH COAST ROAD INVADES KLICKITAT

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Bristol, Wash., Jan. 7.—Invasion of western Klickitat county by the North Coast railway is scheduled to begin this week. Arrangements have been made for a party of surveyors to start work in the vicinity of Camas Prairie, north of this place, before the week ends. No information as to the route of the survey is obtainable, but it is probable that connection will be made with one of the surveys now in progress in this section.

With the advent of the North Coast surveyors, four railroad projects will be underway in this section.

BRISTOL GRANGERS BUILD BUNGALOW

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Bristol, Wash., Jan. 7.—Cutting and hauling of logs for their new hall has been the order of the day for members of Fruit Mountain grange, 291, of this place since Tuesday. Enough logs have been delivered at the Swan Hamman Lumber company's mill for planing and shingling for a good start on the new building, which will be a log bungalow. All the work on the hall, which is to be erected on a recently donated half acre site on the Lindsay place, is donated.

No J. of P. at White Salmon.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Bristol, Wash., Jan. 7.—White Salmon, four and a half miles west of Bristol, has been without a Justice of the Peace since R. Fields resigned about two months ago. Yesterday rival petitions for appointment to the office were being circulated in the interest of A. B. Groshong, present city councilman, and W. L. Wilcox. The petitions will be acted on by the board of county commissioners at its next meeting.

Albany Man on Fair Board.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Albany, Or., Jan. 7.—Mark Hurlburt of this city has returned from Salem, where he was called by Governor Benson to be sworn in as a member of the Oregon state fair board, having been reappointed to the position after serving a term of four years. Mr. Hurlburt is one of the most successful farmers and stockmen of the Willamette valley.

Klickitat League Elects.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Bristol, Wash., Jan. 7.—New officers have been elected by the Klickitat development league at Goldendale as follows: N. L. Ward, president; E. L. Wallace, vice president; L. A. Chapman, treasurer. John Coffield and W. D. Gordon comprise the executive committee, while C. W. Ramsey is permanent secretary.

New Phone Line.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Bristol, Wash., Jan. 7.—A new telephone line is to be built from Roosevelt to Mabton by way of Klickitat in the eastern part of the country. The expense of construction is to be met by popular subscription for a non-assessable 400 share stock issue at $10 per share.

ENGINEER HELD FOR TRAIN WRECK

Arrested on Charge of Manslaughter as Outgrowth of Collision in Which 2 Die.

W. M. Thompson, engineer of freight train No. 192, that crashed into freight train No. 286 Wednesday morning at the Cascade Locks, causing the death of two men and injury of nine, has been blamed for the accident. He has been arrested on the charge of manslaughter upon recommendation of Coroner Edgington of Hood River county, and taken to that county. His home is at Albina, and he has been on the Oregon Railroad & Navigation line for about six years.

The inquest upon the two men was held Thursday afternoon and the jury returned the verdict holding Thompson responsible. The details of the affair have not been made known, and will not be until given out by the railway board, which is looking into the matter. However, the testimony before the coroner showed that Thompson had disobeyed orders, and was allowing his train to run down the slowly moving freight ahead of him.

The man who was burned alive in the wreckage, lived at Kearney, Neb., and the Old Fellows have taken charge of the body. It has been sent home.

The injured taken to the St. Vincent hospital were T. B. Moore, Baker City; M. McLean, Mauchunk, Pa.; George D. Hall, Tacoma; Bert Halliman, The Dalles; and Guy Hanlett, Baker City. They will recover.

It has been learned that the leading freight train was going about three miles an hour, and was preparing to stop. The following train had orders to this effect, but failed to obey them. Superintendent Buckley and Division Superintendent Bollens are still at the Cascade Locks looking into the affair.

From 132 to 180 lbs.

Wonderfully Built Up at Small Cost.

The number of cases of general debility in which Hood's Sarsaparilla has proved just the medicine that was needed is very great. Mr. E. S. Perry, Ivanhoe, Va., describes his case and tells what this medicine did for him, in the following testimonial: "I was all run down and weighed only 132 pounds. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla, and before the first bottle was finished began to improve, and when I had taken six bottles was wonderfully built up and weighed 180 pounds."

Your Appearance Is Your Capital

THERE is a money value to you in smart, well-fitting clothes. In any walk of life your success will be greater if you dress well—Clothes may not always "make the man" but just the same, the smartly dressed, tailored individual you meet on the street makes you want to get out of sight if you are wearing a "hand-me-down".

WHY

Do you wear "hand-me-downs", when it will cost you no more to have a suit of clothes made to your own measure by reputable tailors who will guarantee their work.

As we look back and review the experiences of the past year, we cannot help but feel that the firm business policy that we have always maintained has been appreciated by the public, and in no small degree been responsible for our success.

If we gave you good goods, careful, intelligent attention and low prices last year, you may be absolutely certain that we shall do as well or better this year. We are after the man who has ambition and pride enough to get out of the hand-me-down class. Does that mean you?

Mr. Lane and Mr. Johnson of the Oxford Tailors have a reputation in Portland for integrity and ability which positively guarantees any statement herein made.
