Climax of Night of Terror Is Battle at Railway Station, With Fatalities-Man Mortally Hurt Captures Yegg.

(United Fress Leased Wire.) Ypsilanti, Mich., Jan. 7.-One man was dlied and one mortally wounded in battle with two yeggmen who attempted to break into a railroad station here early today after causing a reign of terror among the storeksepers in the vicinity. The dead:

Henry Erner, baggagemaster. Fatally wounded: Morgan Emmett, telegraph operator. The pistol battle followed a night of terror in which the yeggmen held up a score of persons and broke into several stores near the station.

They met no resistance until they tormed the station and made an at-Erner and Emmett met them with

COMMITTEE OF 30

(United Press Leased Wire.) Los Angeles, Jan. 7.-J. S. Jackson of Cincinnati is rejoicing over a realty deal that notted him $106,000, which was made possible because a member of a Los Angeles syndicate headed by Ar-thur C. Munn of this city was a firm believer in "divining rods." Several months ago Munn formed a syndicate among Los Angeles capitalists for the purpose of purchasing a big tract of land in the San Jacinto valley. One member of the syndicate, strong in the faith concerning the potency of the divining rod to locate water, sought out a "wizard" and sent him and his willow wand over the property. The "wizard" reported that the rod indicated there was no water under the tract. As a result the deal fell through

Suf-fering among the homeless is great, and nany fatalities are expected. The people are without food and clothing. Relief measures were inade-quate to allay their suffering. The harbors along the northwestern coast were icebound, delaying the incoming supplies to the extent of rendering the efforts of relief workers almost useless. Perkins' Injuries Not Serious.

(United Frees Lessed Wire.) Washington, Jan. 7.—Senator George . Perkins of California, who slipped on an foy pavement and fell as he was leaving his apartments for the senate chamber yesterday, will be confined to his bed for at least a week, according to a statement by his physician today. The muscles of his back were wrenched severely and he sustained several pain-ful bruises. His physician stated that the injuries are in no way serious.

Walla Walla Flour Soars.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Walla Walla, Jan. 7.—Flour in Walla Walls jumped today to $1.80 a sack re-tail, or $6.40 a barrel wholesals, the highest price asked here for many years, in fact, since pioneer days. The high price is due to the scarcity of milling the same tract to a new syndicate waeat which had been formed by Munn for wheat, waeat and the prevailing high price of
