Rockpile Stores Robbed.—Two stores at the Linnton rockpile were robbed early yesterday morning. Men's wearing apparel to the value of $50 was taken. The theft is believed to have been done by two men who were released from the rockpile at the time.

Fraser Installed.—With special services Rev. S. Earl Du Bois was last night installed as regular pastor of the United Presbyterian church of the Strangers. Rev. Frank D. Findley presided and preached on "I Will Give Unto Thee the Keys of the Kingdom of Heaven." Rev. John Acheson delivered the charge to the pastor and Rev. E. M. Shinn addressed the people, urging that they launch out deeper into Bible study, deeper prayer and deeper personal work. An anthem was sung by the choir.

Frances Willard Memorial.—Central W. C. T. U. held the usual weekly meeting in room 492, Goodnough building, Wednesday afternoon. After a business session, wherein plans were laid for the Frances Willard memorial services, February 17, Mrs. Margaret Christian conducted a very interesting parliamentary drill. Next week Mrs. B. J. Monroe will have charge of the program and the subject will be "Temperance and Cigarette Laws." W. C. T. U. women will address the Christian church, Second street, between Hall and Lincoln.

Mothers' Club Meeting.—The Mothers' and Teachers' club of the Brooklyn school will hold its regular meeting tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 in the assembly hall of the school. The program will consist of a piano solo by Gladys Morgan, talk on the scholarship loan fund by Miss Dimick, reader from the Gillespie School of Expression; vocal solo by Master Jones. Matters of importance will come up in regard to the loan fund benefit to be given the last Wednesday of this month.

Boarder Was Wnoly.—Henry Zorn, a boarder in the home of Mrs. Mary Hart, 692 East Sixteenth street, was fined $25 this morning in municipal court for going home last evening and raising a disturbance. Mrs. Hart said she used to know Zorn, but she was compelled to take her two small children to the home of a neighbor to stay over night. Zorn admitted taking several drinks in the evening, and took a gallon of wine home with him.

AT THE THEATRES

At the Portland Theatre. "The Man From Home" is simply delighting everybody. Portland has had some good comedies in the past, but none better than the one at the Portland theatre this week.

Musical Play at Bungalow Tonight. The attraction at the Bungalow theatre, tonight at 8:15 o'clock, and continuing Friday and Saturday nights, with a matinee Saturday, will be the big musical comedy success, "The Top o' the World."

Warfield's Sale Tomorrow. The advance seat sale for David Warfield will open tomorrow (Friday) morning at 10 o'clock, at the Bungalow theatre. David Belasco will present this actor in his famous dramatic success, "The Music Master."

Florence Roberts Here Sunday. When Florence Roberts opens at the Portland theatre next Sunday evening it is expected that she will be greeted by the largest audience that playhouses has ever held. In her play, "The Transformation," she is enabled to display her wonderful emotional ability.

"The Girl of the Times." The experience of one young woman in seeking material for a sensational newspaper article is the foundation for "The Girl of the Times," the sparkling comedy sketch which is on the bill at the Grand this week.

Vilmos Westony at the Orpheum. This week's bill at the Orpheum is a particularly strong one and composed mostly of exceptional feature acts. Vilmos Westony, the great Hungarian artist, has completely captivated the local audiences with his marvelous rendition of some of the masterpieces.

Nina Bryant at Pantages. Many clever masculine monologists have appeared on the various vaudeville stages of Portland, but it remained for Pantages to offer dainty Nina Bryant, the world's greatest mimic and story teller, who appears in her original creations this week. A number of other excellent acts make the bill one of exceptional merit.

Beverly at the Baker. Nothing since "The Prisoner of Zenda" in the way of romantic plays has attracted more attention than "Beverly," which is the dramatization of the widely read "Beverly of Graustark," being presented at Baker theatre this week.

As a result of a long investigation, a University of California professor believes he can prove that the Astecs originally came to this continent from Asia by way of Bering sea and Alaska.

PLENTY CITY JOBS; NO ONE WANTS THEM

James P. Kennedy, secretary of the city civil service commission, in his annual report filed yesterday, declares that there has been a dearth of candidates for municipal positions requiring technical or scientific knowledge. As a consequence a large number of temporary appointments have been made during the past year.

SAYS COUNTY SHOULD KEEP BOULEVARDS

Claiming that the improvement of the boulevard system on the Peninsula with hard surface pavements under the present city plan would be a burden on the property owners, the Peninsula Development League last night went on record as being opposed to the taking over of the boulevards by the city, and will try to get the county to retain title to them.

An Exceptional Opportunity to Economize on Wearing Apparel

Here Are Values Worthy the Attention of Every Woman in Portland and Vicinity--- Our Annual Clearance Sale. Has demonstrated that we can AND DO offer the largest assortment of high-grade WOMEN'S and MISSES' APPAREL at prices FAR LOWER than those of any other store in the northwest.

Tailored Suit Bargains At $11.95 Some of these suits were priced at nearly double this figure—that is, $25.00. The reductions are unusually heavy in this case because the sizes are broken. But we can promise to fit you in sizes 35 to 46. If your size comes within these figures you owe it to yourself to at least take a look at this lot.

At $8.95 An extremely low price. The fact that there is almost every size in this lot makes it particularly attractive. Former prices ranged from $20.00 up.

At $14.95 Another group of exceptional values. Had you bought one of these suits before this sale you would have paid from $30.00 to $35.00.

At $24.75 In this group will be found some of the best values in the whole women's department. Besides the women's suits there are also some for misses. Cloths are broadcloth, wales, serges and worsteds. Great variety of styles and colors. This item is a fair criterion to judge the store by if not well acquainted with us. Formerly priced up to $65.00.

At $12.50 At this figure there is a saving of at least a half on regular prices. These suits were formerly priced at $25.00, some even up to $30.00.

over of the boulevards by the city, and will try to get the county to retain title to them. The question now rests with the county commissioners. The city council disregarded the wishes of the league and of every other club on the Peninsula when it adopted a minority report of the street committee, but it is hoped that the county commissioners will listen to the club and retain title to the boulevards.

the action of the mass meeting of the East Side clubs was heartily approved. It is planned now to try to keep the matter constantly before the people and to try and secure a public service commission. New School Building. (Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
