who is challenging Eddie O'Connell, the welterweight champion. for a wrestling match, to take place in Portland, this morning forwarded a draft for $400 on a Spokane bank as the remainder of a $500 side bet. Matsuda has had $100 up as a forfelt for weight and appearance for a couple of weeks, but the money has not been covered by O'Connell, who says he does not like the conditions named by the Jap, who as a challenger, has been ask

The Jap wanted to wrestle January 5, but as that date has been taken by Gus Anderson, the Salt Lake wrestler. Matsuda is content on any date between that time and February 3. O'Connell said that if he concluded to take up the match, it would only be on condition that it was placed about February 10, as he wanted some time to make the 142 sounds ringside required by the Nippo-

In the meantime O'Connell is training faithfully for his match next Tuesday night with Gus Anderson, the Iowa wonder, who is now in Salt Lake. Anderson will leave for Portland in a day or so. He is always in the best of condition, and needs only a few days' work to take off surplus weight gathered in

AUTO DEALERS TO MAKE BEST OF IT

No opposition to the holding of the automobile show now exists among the dealers of the city. At a meeting of the Portland Automobile Dealers' associntion held in the office of the H. L. Keats Auto company's garage at the orner of Seventh and Burnside streets, It was decided that despite the trouble being had in getting all the cars here for show week the show should be held. Looks count for naught if the quality must be sacrificed. Why not both? If you get it in dentistry, you will have to come to us eventually, why not now? It's rather a slangy expression but appropriate here. When you buy a bargain in dentistry your name is dust with the rain on it. For quality go to the quality shop, you can't get it from the junk dealers. Nor is it to be found on the bargain counter of dental parlors. Don't, we beg of you, try to buy bargains in teeth. Go to the topnotchers. It's the cheapest in the end—and it's feeth insurance in the years to come.

The welterweight title situation is in odd circumstances. There are five claimants to the title, and as each claimant has beaten the other, all have as much claim to being the champion as the other. Four of the champions are shown in this cartoon, namely, Jimmy Gardner, Harry Lewis, Willie Lewis and Mike Twin Sullivan. The other claimant is Honey Mellody.
