

OR MAY VETO SALARY MEASURE

Is Opposed to Council's Idea of Paying New Firemen and Policemen.

Mayor Simon has until midnight next Monday to sign or disapprove the ordinance appropriating money out of the police and fire funds to provide the police and fire departments with additional men. The mayor is known to be opposed to the action of the city council in overriding the recommendation of the executive board as to the salary schedule to be put into effect by the fire and police departments and will probably veto the ordinance in their present form.

The board after carefully investigating, decided upon a graduated scale of salaries ranging from $80 for beginners to $100 for men who shall have served three years in either department. This scale was to apply to additions made to the fire and police departments from the passage of the ordinance.

Council Awarded Ordinance. The city council, however, amended the ordinance so that the salary scale would be from $90 to $100. As the ordinance now stands it called for a salary of $90 a month for the first year, $95 a month for the second year and $100 a month thereafter. As the board wanted the ordinance passed, firemen and policemen appointed hereafter would get $90 a month for the first year, $95 a month for the second year and $100 a month for the third year and thereafter.

The mayor is of the opinion that $90 a month is enough to pay green men and that by increasing the salary $10 at a time the men will have a greater incentive to do good work.

Wants Mayor's Aid. When the mayor's attitude on the salaries of firemen and policemen has been expressed publicly he has withheld his opinion on the raises authorized by the council for other departments. When asked if he was opposed to the increases allowed stenographers and deputies in the auditing, health and city engineering departments the mayor said:

"Well, you know that I am not a very strong advocate of any measure that will increase the municipal expenses. But I am not ready to say that I will oppose these increases. I believe in paying good salaries and exacting good service. While I may not be in sympathy with all of these raises still I do not follow that I will veto them."

From this latter statement it is gathered that the mayor may permit the ordinance, granting increases to city employees to become a law without his signature.

JURY NOW HAS CASE AGAINST EDW. JOHNSON

Accused of Selling Liquor Without License, Restaurant Man Fights for Directed Verdict.

Hotly fought to the end, the case of the city against Ed Johnson, charged with selling liquor to patrons of the Delmonico restaurant when he had no license, went to the jury in Judge Morrow's department of the circuit court at 11:40 o'clock this morning. Shortly after noon the jury, which reported that it could not agree up to that time and the jurors were taken to lunch.

Would Not Direct Verdict. Judge Morrow denied a motion for directed verdict this morning after it had been argued at length by C. M. Idleman, one of Johnson's attorneys. He urged that the testimony was insufficient to support a verdict. He said it was a case of inference "in the third degree," because the city had produced no positive testimony that beer was in the bottles found on the tables when the raid was made, no direct testimony that the beer sold to those who were drinking it, and no direct testimony that Johnson or any of his employees sold it. Johnson had a right to have beer in his possession, argued the attorney, because he possessed a government license.

Deputy City Attorney Sullivan contended that the evidence was sufficient to produce conviction in the minds of the jurors. He had shown that beer was being served to guests behind closed doors about 1:30 o'clock in the morning, and the defendant was there in person, admitted being the keeper of the place.

No testimony was introduced on behalf of the defense. The city had no direct evidence that Johnson or any of his employees sold beer on the date named in the complaint. F. A. Vennamo, named as the person to whom the beer was sold, disappeared long ago, the city having no power to hold witnesses under bond.

Joseph Kielen, a plain clothes man of the police department, told about raiding Johnson's place on orders from Captain Slover. He placed his foot in the door and forced his way in when Johnson opened it to allow a woman to come out. Kielen said Johnson did not see him at first, because he was behind the woman's merry widow hat, but Johnson tried to prevent his entering. Inside he found several men and women with lunches and beer in front of them. In the rear he found a large supply of beer of different brands.

Brewery Employees Testify. Managers and bookkeepers were called from several breweries to show that they had sold beer in large quantities to Johnson during the period when he had no license, but this part of the case was poorly prepared. The manager of the Gamberius brewery testified flatly that beer was sold to Johnson from that brewery since 1907. In two other cases the wrong persons had been summoned, they being unable to identify the handwriting in the books as their own. This attempted testimony was excluded.

From Louis Trummer, however, who was brought in on a bench warrant because of his reluctance to testify, it was learned that he had sold a considerable number of bottles of beer to the defendant, and another brewery manager testified from his own knowledge that deliveries of one or two dozen bottles were made every few days last July and August.

Another special venire was ordered for this afternoon by Judge Morrow to try the case against Johnson. In the first case Johnson was sentenced in the municipal court to serve 60 days on the rockpile, and this explains why such a hard fight has been made. In the case called this afternoon the lower court only imposed a fine of $100, and there has been some talk of settlement by a plea of guilty, as no imprisonment would be insisted upon.

Another case against Johnson was set for trial today, but cannot be reached. A fourth case is down for hearing on February 1. The jury that heard the testimony in the first of the series was composed of R. J. McCollum, J. A. Mariett, C. H. Tabke, J. F. Mahoney, A. J. Van Wassenhove, K. C. Couch, Thomas Cochran and Alfred Malm.

TRIES DESPERATELY TO END HIS LIFE

After failing to cut his throat this morning with a rusty pocket knife, Nicholas Pamba, 34 years old, attempted to end his life by firing a bullet into his throat. The bullet missed the jugular vein by about a quarter of an inch, and he will live.

Pamba became despondent over failing to secure work. He is a Roumanian, and roomed at 494 Quince avenue. He locked the door of his room and began whittling at his throat. He made several attempts to cut deep enough to bleed to death. He severed the windpipe, but did not find the jugular vein. When he saw he had failed in his purpose he loaded his pistol and fired where he thought the vein should be. He missed it. Other roomers heard the shot, and found him lying on the floor. He was taken to the St. Vincent's hospital and will recover. The bullet was found lodged in the back of the neck. He still says he wants to die.

Long Competent to Care for Money.

Deciding that John W. Long is capable of attending to his own affairs and caring for $5000 recently received from the sale of farm in Marion county, County Judge Webster this morning denied a petition by his son, A. L. Long, asking that the father be declared incompetent.

The complaining son feared that his father would attempt to marry a Mrs. Bailey, with whom he boards at 166, Front street, and alleged that his father is almost continually under the influence of liquor. This charge was not well supported by the testimony today, although it showed that the elder Long now and then goes on a spree. Carl Long, another son, took the part of his father. Judge Webster decided that a case of incompetency had not been made out.

"I never thought I had any more sense than I ought to have, but I have as much now as I ever had," was the homely way in which Long himself summed it up. He is 66 years old.

J. C. ANDREY TAKES UP DUTIES OF NEW OFFICE

District Attorney Cameron Begins Investigation Into Affair.

The question over the release at Philadelphia of Minnie Kesten, who was wanted here, with Samuel Levine, on a burglary charge, has been passed up to District Attorney Cameron, who will communicate with the eastern authorities over what is considered a very bad case of "bungling." The woman was released by Magistrate Scott of Philadelphia, who said the Portland detectives did not have sufficient evidence to connect her with the crime.

Joe Day and W. H. Hyde, the detectives, say they told the magistrate everything, and even informed him of the warrant and requisition papers. They say they even attempted to get a fugitive from justice warrant, which the eastern authorities refused to give.

Into the entire matter the local district attorney will inquire, and will make a formal complaint from this state upon the eastern officials, if he finds they were negligent or attempted to beat the law.

Big Blunder Somewhere. That someone blundered is easily seen, and the question now is as to who it was. The Philadelphia officers laid it to the Portland detectives, while the local men assign it to the eastern officials.

Chief of Police Cox asked Magistrate Scott and his court for more information in the matter, and that official replied that the statement the two detectives brought back explained all. This statement given by the magistrate was that the woman was released by his order. This is considered very indefinite.

HIGH WATERS DO HEAVY DAMAGE

Losses in Touchet Valley Will Total Into Thousands; Floods Abating.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Dayton, Wash., Jan. 20.—Damage to property and livestock by high water in the Touchet valley will total hundreds. Bridges, outbuildings and railroad fills have been swept away; basements and cellars have been flooded, streets have been gullied and lawns ruined. Several narrow escapes are reported about Columbia county.

Herosim of a rare kind saved the life of Frank Herrington and his wife near Alto. Water backing up above the fill on the O. R. & N. formed a lake 50 feet deep and a mile long. The clay embankment finally gave way under the increasing pressure and the water rushed down a narrow ravine below the fill where was the Herrington house.

Herrington heard the roar of water and rushed into the house for his wife. Clinging her in his arms he ran for the hill. The two escaped injury but were surrounded by four feet of water. Their house was filled with mud and water. Fifty head of hogs and other livestock were swept away.

Freezing About Walla Walla.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Walla Walla, Jan. 20.—Clear weather and freezing nights the past two days have stopped the floods and the streams, while above normal, are within their banks and are doing no damage. The Northern Pacific tracks are shut out of the city have been repaired and trains are running on time. The O. R. & N. trains are moving regularly, except the Pendleton-Spokane trains, which have been sent around by Wallula and through this city, avoiding the hill between Alto and Starbuck, where the track was so unsettled by freshets that it will be two or three days before it is repaired.

Ice Gorge in Boise.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Boise, Idaho, Jan. 20.—Idaho is still in the grasp of freezing weather. The great ice jams have formed in the upper Boise river, and are backing up the water for miles. A sudden thaw would result in a disastrous flood, but there are no indications of moderation.

HUTCHINGS WOULD HAVE PAY FOR INJURY

George Hutchings, for the second time, has filed a suit for $6674 damages against the Royal Bakery & Confectionery company. In his former case the attorneys took a voluntary non-suit, conceding that their former pleadings were insufficient. Hutchings was employed as a plasterer by Bingham & McClelland to work on a barn owned by the defendant, and he says that while he was on a scaffold one of the defendant's delivery wagons was driven underneath, throwing him to the top of the wagon and then to the ground.

HOUSEHOLD ECONOMY

How to Save $2 on Cough Medicine by Making it at Home

Cough medicines, as a rule, are mostly syrup. To make the best syrup, add a pint of Granulated Sugar, add 1/2 pint warm water, and stir about 2 minutes. Get two and one-half ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth), put it in a clean pint bottle, and fill up with the Granulated Sugar Syrup. This makes a full pint of unequalled cough syrup, for about 54 cents. Keeps perfectly. You couldn't buy as much ready-made cough syrup for $2.50.

This home-made remedy is pleasant to take, and unusually stops even the most obstinate cough in twenty-four hours. It is splendid, also, for colds, whooping cough, bronchial ailments, etc. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

The Sugar Syrup is an excellent sedative. The Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway White Pine Extract, rich in all the healing elements of Norwegian pine. Be sure to use the real Pinex itself. Your druggist has it or can easily get it for you.

Strained honey can be used instead of the syrup, and makes a very fine honey and pine tar cough syrup.

BAD BUNGLING IN KESTEN CASE

District Attorney Cameron Begins Investigation Into Affair.

CRITICISM OF A "FAT" STORY

We were criticised for telling fat people to "tender" seventy-five cents to their druggists for a large case of Marmola Tablets. Several wrote in saying the use of the word "tender" was incorrect, that in such a connection raised the impression the druggist might refuse seventy-five cents as insufficient.

Now, isn't that odd? A few weeks ago seventy-five cents was "tendered" to a Broadway druggist and he did refuse it. That is he said he had no Marmola Tablets, whereas he did have seven cases. But, the wholesale house was closed on a Saturday, and he had to prevaricate to protect his regular customers, who absorbed those seven cases later in the day.

This elegant pharmaceutical adaptation of that famous, fashionable fat reducer, the Marmola Prescription (viz. 1/2 oz. Marmola, 1/2 oz. Fl. Ex. Cascara Aromatic, 3/4 oz. Peppermint Water), is certainly having a remarkable vogue. Millions of cases of tablets are sold yearly in the ordinary drug stores. This is doubtless because of their harmless (guaranteed by the Marmola Co., 655 Farmer bldg., Detroit, Mich.), and sure ability to remove ten or sixteen ounces of fat (not flesh) a day without inconvenience, bother, need for exercising or interfering with the taker's appetite for good things.

and other attempts to secure anything from the court have proven futile.

Levine is held in the county jail. A man named Cutler from Philadelphia, who says he is a cousin of the man, has shown an unusual interest in the matter. Meyer Himmelfarb, 680 1/2 First street, who accused Levine and the woman of taking money and jewelry from his home, has failed to identify the jewelry the detectives brought back. This jewelry was taken from Levine and the woman when they were arrested. Himmelfarb is criticised by the detectives for his failure to identify the jewelry.

RAILROAD HARD HIT BY SEVERE WEATHER

The recent storm in eastern Washington will cost the Oregon Railway & Navigation company $25,000 for repairs to its line. This estimate was made by Manager J. F. O'Brien this morning. At the same time stated that this has been the hardest winter in that part of the country for the past 15 years.

"Nearly all winter we have been compelled to operate the rotary snowplow before our trains," said Mr. O'Brien, "and for the first time in 10 years. Ordinarily we send the rotary out a few times each winter to clear the tracks, but this winter it has had to operate."

It is a dangerous thing to take a rough medicine containing opium that merely stifles your cough instead of curing it. Foley's Honey and Tar loosens and cures the cough and expels the poisonous germs, thus preventing pneumonia and consumption. Refuse substitutes and take only the genuine Foley's Honey and Tar in the yellow package. Skidmore Drug Co., 151 Third street.

NERVOUS DEBILITY

It is caused mainly through indiscretions and excesses, although brought on by overwork or severe mental strain, due to business worry or other cares. Its victims are found among all classes of men. The sufferer will notice that where he formerly felt energetic, ambitious and a general desire to get a hustle on and push his way through the world, he now feels weak, tired, listless and indifferent, and has a "don't care" feeling. He is easily fatigued and unequal to any great mental or physical effort. There is an inability to concentrate the mind. The eye lacks its former luster. He is troubled with gloomy forebodings and is irritable, cross and easily annoyed. He doesn't sleep well, and in the mornings feels fatigued and worn out instead of vigorous and refreshed, as in health. He lacks confidence; he has pains in the back and head, and the extremities are often cold, because of impaired circulation.

For the victims of this terrible ailment the bright light of hope is held out—the hope that is born of assurance that there is one medical firm that can cure you.

I have treated so many cases of this nature that I am familiar with them as you are with the very nature intended—a hale, healthy, happy man, with physical and mental powers complete.

VARICOSE VEINS

This complaint is a weakened and broken-down condition of the veins, due in the great majority of cases to strains, indiscretions and it will produce a physical breakdown.
