

CONSERVATION NOT G. O. P. TEST

Bills to Establish the Doctrine Omitted From Administration Measure.

(Washington Bureau of The Journal.) Washington, Jan. 20.—In what is claimed to be an authorized statement is given a list of bills that President Taft will put forward as the administration's chief measure, support of which he will regard as a test of loyalty to the Republican party.

FOREST RANGERS AT COLLEGE LOSE PAY

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Seattle, Wash., Jan. 20.—Seventy-five United States forest rangers at the University of Washington are wishing today they had never "lured out" to Uncle Sam. The forest rangers have been wishing for some time, but it did not become known until today, when it was learned that the forestry department had notified the rangers at the university that they would not receive any pay during the college term.

ELECTRIC LINE IS ASSURED PENDELTON

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Pendleton, Or., Jan. 20.—The agreement and bond between the Washington-Oregon Traction company and the Pendleton commercial club committee of this city, has been signed. Samuel Drumheller is the last to go on the bond. He affixed his signature yesterday. Full salary will be started to the chief forester's removal. The "big salary" notification has been received.

PROMINENT MEN TO MEET AT CORVALLIS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Jan. 20.—At the Oregon-Idaho Y. M. C. A. state convention to be held in Corvallis from Friday to Sunday of this week, prominent men in Christian work will meet to assist in the promotion of the work. Among the speakers are Fred B. Smith of New York city, one of the association's international secretaries; H. J. McCoy, general secretary of the San Francisco Y. M. C. A., who is culminating his 35 years of service by erecting a $700,000 Y. M. C. A. building at Frisco; T. S. Lippy of Seattle, who has accumulated more than a million in business and has devoted much of his time and wealth to association work; Gale Keenan, Pacific coast student secretary, with headquarters at Los Angeles; J. B. Richardson, railroad secretary from Pocatello; J. B. Rhodes, state secretary of Oregon.

FUGITIVE ATTORNEY WILL FACE CHARGES

(United Press Leased Wire.) Los Angeles, Jan. 20.—The hunt for Elmer E. Rowell, an attorney who is wanted to answer several charges of obtaining money under false pretenses, has been renewed, following the receipt of a message from the accused lawyer to the effect that he would return and face trial as soon as he recovered from an illness.

ICE GORGE DANGER IN THE OHIO IS OVER

(United Press Leased Wire.) Evansville, Ind., Jan. 20.—It is believed that the danger to navigation caused by the ice gorge that has been sweeping down the Ohio river since Monday is past. Thousands of tons of ice have been forced upon the shores and the river is comparatively free. Although the danger is apparently past, little river traffic was attempted today. It is thought, however, that usual traffic will be resumed before the end of the week.

New Depot at Rex.

Salem, Or., Jan. 20.—Eighteen years ago, according to N. L. Wiley of Rex, the Southern Pacific promised the people of that place a depot. As evidence that the Southern Pacific company keeps its promises the railroad commission has received the following communication from Manager J. P. O'Brien: "We contemplate putting up a freight and passenger shed at this point in the very near future, which we trust will be satisfactory to the people of Rex."

Many ills come from impure blood. Can't have pure blood with faulty digestion, lazy liver and sluggish bowels. Burdock Blood Bitters strengthens stomach, bowels and liver, and purifies the blood.

Itching, torturing skin eruptions, disfigure, annoy, give one wild. Doan's Ointment brings quick relief and lasting cures. Fifty cents at any drug store.

After a heavy meal, take a couple of Doan's Regulents, and give your stomach, liver and bowels the help they will need. Regulents bring easy, regular passages of the bowels.
