

ANN FURLONG KILLED BY MURDER-MANIAC

Chicago, Jan. 21.—Believing that a maniac afflicted with blood lust killed Mrs. Jennie Cleghorn, known as Ann Furlong, whose headless and disem-bowed body was found here yesterday, the police today are seeking a "Jack the Ripper." They fear a repetition of the horrible crime, which is similar in its details to the infamous Whitechapel murders of London. At present there is little or nothing whereby to trace the murderer. No clue was left to reveal his identity but circumstances surrounding the murder point to the deed as committed for mere love of blood and joy of killing. Investigation shows that the assassin crept into the room of the woman, apparently while she was sleeping. The body was hacked and gouged, disem-bowed and frightfully mutilated. The head was missing and the police have been unable to find it. Dalles Expects 200 Pythians. The Dalles, Or., Jan. 21.—It is expected that no less than 200 Knights of Pythias from Hood River, Cascade Locks and Portland will attend the eleventh annual convention of the eighth district, to be held here next Saturday. Among the visitors will be Vice Grand Chancellor Yoran, Grand K. of R. & S. Sunson and ex-Grand Chancellors Kennedy and Calk. The grand chancellor, Honorable Frank Manafie, and ex-Grand Chancellor Bradshaw are residents of the city.

Shipper Twohy's Headquarters. (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) The Dalles, Or., Jan. 21.—Twohy Bros, who have the contract for double tracking the O. R. & N. between The Dalles and the mouth of the Deschutes river, have opened offices in the Hotel Shipper, from where the construction work will be conducted. Already quite a force is employed on preliminary work. Several camps have been established between The Dalles and the mouth of the river. This piece of work will require much heavy grading, and about 1000 men will be employed. Roseburg has a new orchard spray
