CRACK SWIMMERS IN RACES TONIGHT

Y. M. C. A. Athletes of Northwest Try for Trophies in Association Tank.

Tonight the Y. M. C. A. athletes of the northwest will hold their championship aquatic meet in the local tank.

Pratt of Tacoma will be a strong feature in the diving. Pratt was a star member of the Harvard college aquatic team several years ago.

The Portland Y. M. C. A. has one of the best tanks on the Pacific coast. The tank is 30 by 60 feet with eight high power electric lights in the bottom.

The Couch Grammar school is the only school entered as yet. There will be a 40 yard swim and a 160 yard relay race for the grammar schools.

Forty yard swim, Gross, H. Pfander, Derling, Alby, H. Pratt of Tacoma, J. Brockett and J. S. Rother of Seattle.

One hundred yard swim, J. C. Rota, Abby, H. Pfander, J. C. Brockett, Hitchcock, Markitz, Trautman, Boyle, Abby, J. C. Brockett.

Two hundred and twenty yard swim, Hitchcock, Markitz, Trautman, Boyle, Abby, J. C. Brockett.

Dividing, Shidamo, W. Pfander, Abby, Giddings and H. Pratt.

The Portland association relay team is composed of F. Gross, H. Pfander, Derling and Abby.

TRAINER RESTS BEFORE JOINING CLEVELANDS

F. W. Schmieder, who for three years has been trainer at the Multnomah club, resigned his position yesterday in order to take a three weeks' rest preparatory to joining the Cleveland American baseball team.

Word has been sent to the local promoters that the Jeffries party will arrive in Portland the morning of their show next Friday night.

MISS ALICE HAGER CHAMPION GOLFIST

San Francisco, Jan. 22.—By the narrow margin of one up Miss Alice Hager today defeated Miss Edith Cheabrough in the final round of the woman's state golf championship on the San Francisco Golf and Country club links.

The match was one of the most brilliant ever played between women golfers in this city.

SUNSHINE JIM GETS COLD FEET IN VERBAL JOUST WITH MUSCOVITES

New York, Jan. 22.—A slight of Jimmy Coffroth, "czar" of the Pacific coast fistic realm, and "Silent" Charley Harvey, "king" of England's fight promoters, with their feet in a snowbank on the Russian frontier recently greeted the eyes of Moscow's railway police, according to letters arriving here today from Berlin.

Coffroth and Harvey were attempting to enter the czar's domain, possibly for the purpose of signing up Mohammed Ahl, recently deposed Persian shah, who is seeking the elusive rouble in the St. Petersburg marts of trade.

Coffroth, however, had forgotten his passports. So had Harvey. Failing to possess a high sign in their Russian vocabulary, Coffroth and Harvey were ejected from a train on the frontier as suspicious characters.

When a return train headed for Berlin came up, the promoters were cold feet in their lives.

They returned to the German capital, obtained their passports and departed. It is hardly probable that Ambassador Rockhill will take action.

Lower row—Pat McHale, pitcher; Causey, first base; Pembroke, left short; Beagle, captain and catcher; Magee, right short; Hugh McHale, second base, and Henderson, pitcher.

BOXING FANS LOOK FOR COMING BOUTS

Jeffries Show and Connolly-Webster Go Get Attention—O'Brien-Whitman Match.

Interest of the boxing fans will now be directed toward the Jeffries show, which takes place in the Exposition rink next Friday night, and the Rose City Athletic club's smoker, February 3 in the same arena.

In addition to the run of seven he made two runs of four and three runs of three points.

It was announced this morning that Danny O'Brien and Ted Whitman would be the preliminary.

O'Brien has placed himself under the care of Doc Cornell, who will school him for his future exhibitions in Portland.

O'Brien will take up his training with Frankie Connolly at Tracey's training place, while Whitman will probably work with Danny Webster.

Word has been sent to the local promoters that the Jeffries party will arrive in Portland the morning of their show next Friday night.

SOLOMON PLAYS GREAT THREE CUSHION GAME

Henry Solomon played the greatest three cushion billiard game in his career last night at Kelly's parlors, when he defeated Jack O'Donnell, 80 to 11.

He went into the game with surprising abandon, which probably accounts for the big score made at the difficult game.

Solomon made a high run of seven, the eighth shot barely missing. This is remarkable when it is considered that the high run of Eames, the present champion at the three cushion game, has a high run of six.

In the seventh round Nelson opened up and had Lang in distress from rippage blow blows before the gong.

The eighth spelled defeat for Lang. After belaboring Lang's midriff with a succession of lefts and rights, Nelson sent a crusher to the kidneys and Lang fell like a log.

Nelson stated today that he would engage in no more fights before his battle with Wolgast next month.

MOGULS TO MEET FOR CLEANING UP

Session Called for Tuesday—Barnstorming and Playing Schedule to Be Taken Up.

San Francisco, Jan. 22.—Players of the San Francisco team of the Coast league will have their contracts some time next week according to Secretary Danny Long today.

"The Soles played grand baseball last year, and brought a barrel of money to the grounds," said Long. "I will send out 22 contracts, but I do not think the number significant, as I am preparing a twenty-fourth to break the charm."

A call for a meeting Thursday has been issued by President Graham, and it is predicted that one of the subjects for managerial discussion will be the inclusion or otherwise of a clause prohibiting players from playing "barn storm" ball out of the playing season.

The question has arisen in the east and many clubs have incorporated a prohibitory clause in the 1910 contracts. Another matter for consideration will be the playing schedule.

The dates have been pretty well whipped into shape, but a cleaning up is necessary before the season opens next March. A plan is under way to have the Tuesday games, in which Oakland is scheduled to play at home, transferred to San Francisco and to give Oakland the Thursday and Sunday morning games of the series, all others being played in this city.

Meaning the advance agent of the national game, the ground keeper, is beginning his preliminary award doctoring at Recreation park, and it is predicted that the diamond and outfield will rival a billiard table for smoothness.

Walter McCredie, manager of the Portland club, will depart tonight for San Francisco to take in the meeting. He will return in about a week.

ANDERSON ON WAY TO WRESTLE HERE

Gus Anderson, the famous Des Moines middleweight wrestler, who meets Eddie O'Connell in a catch-as-catch-can match in the Exposition rink next "uesday night, is expected to arrive in Portland tomorrow.

Anderson is now on his way from Salt Lake, according to advices received here.

The match will be the best witnessed here this season, is believed by the fans in general. Around the Multnomah club there has been a desire on the part of the members to see their popular instructor in action more often than heretofore.

O'Connell was the first man to make wrestling popular in Portland and the game still lingers with a pleasant feeling in the minds of the fans.
