

PUNKY DRINGS COSTLY FLOOD TO SHERMAN COUNTY

High Water Carries Away Sewer, Bridges and Shaniko Branch Train Service Is Prostrated—Town Suffers.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) More, Or., Jan. 24.—A chinook and winter weather hit Sherman county Friday. Creeks were running bank full from Saturday morning to Sunday night. Seven bridges have gone out and many track stretchers on the Shaniko branch between Moro and Biggs. Water passed through Moro for 40 hours. In the Wind River lumber company's yard the water was 14 feet wide and 10 feet deep. All the railway tracks were under water. The damage to the streets will be over $1000.

Wasco Is Damaged.
Wasco, Or., Jan. 24.—Floods have subsided here after washing out streets and sidewalks and putting the Columbia & Southern railroad out of commission for a week. There are three washouts on the railroad between Wasco and Dalles Springs, and three between Wasco and Biggs. It is still raining slightly.

FRUIT GROWERS WILL ORGANIZE

What is believed to have been the largest gathering of fruitgrowers, interested in a single district, that ever assembled in Oregon, met at Sheridan Saturday night for the purpose of organizing the fruit and nutgrowers of Yamhill county "highlands" into an association, patterned after the association of Hood River apple growers.
Nearly every landowner in the entire district was present, and the degree of enthusiasm was such that it was well after midnight before the meeting came to an end. Addresses were delivered by President Newell of the state board of horticulture, and Professor Sonder of the Oregon Agricultural college. After discussing the addresses an organization was effected and an executive committee appointed to take charge of the actual work of organizing the orchardists in the district.
Another meeting will be held at Sheridan Saturday night, February 5, when two fruit experts from the Oregon Agricultural college will address the growers. At the meeting it is expected to complete the organization, which was started last Saturday night.

HARRIMAN LINES CROWD PACIFIC EXPRESS CO. OUT

time in its history, the American Express company is able to give through service between New York and Portland.
The American Express company is the nearest competitor to the Wells Fargo Express company. Wells Fargo operates over 70,000 miles of railroad, and the American over 55,000 miles.
Their annual business is at present nearly equal, amounting to about $30-600,000 each.
It is frankly conceded by the representatives of the Pacific Express that the company has been decadent for some time. Service has acknowledgedly been poor on all points along the Harriman lines between Omaha and Portland. The American Express company is as aggressive and active as the Pacific Express has been inefficient. It is said.
Improved service in all offices to begin at once is promised by the powerful new company.
The matter of taking over the business of the Pacific Express by the American is simple in appearance, but complicated as it affects the policies of continguous companies. The Pacific Express is a member of the railroad conventions or privilege of handling express. For this a certain amount is paid. At regular intervals the conventions are let and let. It is apparent that Judge Lovett, president of the Harriman lines, has decided the other day in his New York offices, that it would be better to allow the American Express the right of express handling on the lines between Omaha and Portland. Such is then the order. All the agents of the Pacific Express company have been instructed to turn over their business to the American Express company on the first of April, and to have the business in such shape that it can be done expeditiously.

GIRL FLEES WHILE HER MOTHER WATCHED

While the mother of Nettie Packwood, 17 years old, was preparing this morning to take the daughter to her home in Ellensburg, Wash., the latter slipped out of the rear of 881 Michigan avenue and ran away. The mother had searched all day for the girl, but is unable to locate her.
The daughter came to Portland to work as an apprentice to a Washington street milliner. She was staying with Mrs. J. P. Farr, 881 Michigan avenue.
The mother wanted the girl to come home, but the latter declined. Yesterday Mrs. Packwood came after the daughter and was packing grips this morning preparatory to going to the station. When they were ready, Nettie could not be found. It is known that she has been friendly with a young man, who has lived at the Y. M. C. A. She reported they intended to be married soon.

Blood Humors

Commonly cause pimples, boils, hives, eczema or salt rheum, or some other form of eruption, but sometimes they exist in the system, indicated by feelings of weakness, languor, loss of appetite, or general debility, without causing any breaking out.
Hood's Sarsaparilla expels them, renovates the system and restores the whole system. This is the testimony of thousands annually.
Accept no substitute, but insist on having Hood's Sarsaparilla
In usual liquid form or in chocolate tablets known as Sarsaparilla, 100 doses $1.

Tells of Early Days OF CONGREGATIONALISM

Rev. D. D. Gray read a paper before the Congregational Ministers' association this morning on "Reminiscences of the Earlier Days of Congregationalism in Portland." Dr. Gray is one of the oldest ministers in Oregon and gave many interesting incidents connected with the upgrowth of the denomination.

GENERAL INQUIRY MAY GROW OUT OF OZARKA WRECK

Criticism Following Loss of Life in Disaster off Coos Bay Leads to Agitation for More Efficient Service.

Agitation for a more efficient life-saving service will probably become general throughout the United States as a result of the loss of life attending the wreck of the steamer Carina off the entrance to Coos Bay a few days ago.
Shortly after the terrible disaster the Portland chamber of commerce took the matter up officially, with the state's representatives at Washington. Now comes word from Coos Bay that the port commissioner of that place has sent a supplicant to the movement. Other communities are being aroused, and it is expected that they will fall in line without delay.

Criticism Life Line.
A great deal of criticism has been going the rounds since the Carina wreck because of the fact that the life line apparatus failed to save the wreck, although it was but 2000 feet from shore. The line boats were too frail to breast the breakers, and no rescue of the men clinging to the rigging for nearly 24 hours was attempted. One by one they dropped exhausted into the sea to death.

Captain Howard Emory, inspector of the life saving service in this district, is at Coos Bay and, according to the Coos Bay Times of last Thursday, the inspector's ira has been much aroused by the unfavorable criticism of the futile attempt to rescue the Carina survivors. In response to this the editor of the Times writes:

"Here was a vessel stranded within 2000 feet of the main land of Coos Bay.
More than 24 hours of waiting and rescue. Within 2000 feet were the government's paid representatives supposed to be efficiently equipped with the best apparatus that Uncle Sam's millions could buy.
And yet twenty-four of those men perished and the ship was lost. It is a herald of water while the life saving crew, God spare the name, stood idly by and watched them perish. There is certainly something wrong with the efficiency of the service or the equipment that will permit such wanton sacrifice of human life under such circumstances."

Captain Emory Angry.
The news columns of the Times last evening stated that Captain Emory, United States inspector of life saving stations, was on the bay yesterday and grew irate when he heard of the censure of the equipment of the crew. Captain Emory is a man of many words,
