

GOVERNOR BENSON SAYS HERMANN'S REPUTATION GOOD

Other Character Witnesses, Among Them Chief Justice and Attorney General, Testify for Defendant.

HOLMSTROM ATTACKS MELDRUM'S TESTIMONY

Hermann May Go on Stand This Afternoon—Jury May Get Case Late in Week.

Binger Hermann established the fact that he is known as a man of good reputation for honesty and integrity by the testimony of Governor Benson, Chief Justice F. A. Moore, Attorney General Crawford and some six other well known citizens.

He then proceeded to take a "fall out" of Henry Meldrum's testimony, given in behalf of the government, by putting Charles Holmstrom of Salem on the stand.

Holmstrom Testifies. The latter testified that he had paid Meldrum three visits at his office, and that at neither of these had he seen either Meldrum or Hermann in the office.

This is in contradiction to the testimony of Meldrum and H. L. Patterson, who said that Holmstrom was one of the men in the office at the time Hermann was there, and had his talk with Meldrum about the Blue Mountain forest reserve.

Three other witnesses are yet to come, presumably also attacking the Meldrum testimony, and then Mr. Hermann, the defendant, will himself take the stand in his own behalf, as the last witness for the defense. It is probable that Hermann will be reached late this afternoon.

Other points of interest in the morning session were Mr. Hermann's examination of H. W. Scott, who testified to Hermann's good character, and was confronted with editorial utterances hostile to Hermann and his administration of the general land office, as well as the cross-examination of Phil Metcalf, proprietor of the Imperial hotel, who said that he did not think much of the land-fraud prosecutions, and admitted that he had a coal claim in Alaska, which he had never seen, but which was not in the Cunningham group, to his knowledge.

Case to Jury This Week. In view of the rapid progress made by the defense, it is now believed that the case will be sent to the jury before the end of the week without fail.

Governor Benson was the first witness in behalf of Mr. Hermann. He testified that he had known Hermann for 25 years, and that his reputation for honesty and integrity was good. On cross-examination the governor said he had held the office of county clerk and school superintendent in Douglas county, and that he had always been a political supporter of Hermann.

A. M. Crawford, attorney general of Oregon, was the next character witness. He testified that Hermann's reputation was good. Crawford, on cross-examination, said he was formerly receiver of the land office, and that Senator (Continued on Page Ten.)

BARBER'S HEAD USED AS BUMPER BY BUSY DIVER

A. R. Haskins Finds a Head Harder Than His, While Enjoying Swim—Physician Repairs Injured Cranium.

"Harder heads than mine exist," is the opinion of A. R. Haskins, a barber in the employ of Sam Howard, 107 Fourth street, as a result of a head-on collision in the Casino swimming tank in which he and another swimmer were the principals.

Haskins received a four inch cut in his head, while the other man carries but a bump on his head.

Haskins was enjoying a swim in the pool yesterday, and in diving from the spring board plunged straight into a man coming up from a search for tins.

Their heads met with a crack, Haskins receiving the cut in his head, while the man coming up, came above the water with an aching yet undamaged head.

Haskins fearing that the man was stunned, turned around, grabbed him by the hair and pulled him out of the water before he could get to the bottom.

PROPOSED PLAN TO RENAME AND RENUMBER CITY'S STREETS

VENDETTA AMONG BLACK HAND MEN

Police Frame This Theory to Account for Murders at Vancouver, B. C.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Vancouver, B. C., Jan. 31.—Following the serious shooting of two Italians in a house on Bernard street last night and the probably fatal shooting of Tomaso Bruno, Saturday night the police are diligently searching the Italian quarter of the city for some trace of the would be assassins.

The two victims of last night's affray, which is supposed to be the work of the Black Hand, are Rocco Catano and Nick Forfano. At the hospital where the wounded men were taken, the police learned that during a heated discussion in which several Italians participated, a fusillade of shots was suddenly fired into the room from the street.

Catano received a bullet in the groin while Forfano was shot in the leg. Neither man would admit that he knew the identity of his assailants.

Tomaso Bruno, who was shot down in front of the Klondike hotel Saturday night, is hovering between life and death. He was apparently seized upon every Italian in the city and the police have little hope of arresting the would be assassins.

The slight clue they are now working on is that an important Black Hand meeting has recently been held here and as a result of a disagreement, a murderous vendetta is now being carried out. Detectives have learned that the men now in the hospital came here a short time ago from Phoenix, B. C., where a Black Hand gang was recently forced to leave town.

UNIFORMITY IS AIM OF SCHEME EVOLVED BY ENGINEER MORRIS

A plan for renaming the streets of Portland and for numbering the houses and buildings situated thereon in accordance with a system that is uniform and at the same time simple is soon to claim the attention of the city council.

After months of work City Engineer Morris, as previously stated in The Journal, has evolved a scheme for so designating the streets in order that it will be an easy matter for even a stranger to locate any given place within the city limits.

The plan divides the city into four quarter sections, with Burnside street as the dividing line between the north and south portions and East Water street as the dividing line between the east and west portions. It is proposed for sake of convenience to call Burnside street Central avenue and East Water street Division street.

This forms the basis of the plan to use the term "street" to designate all north and south thoroughfares and the term "avenue" for all east and west thoroughfares.

The streets to the south of Central avenue and running parallel thereto would be known west of Division street as First avenue, Second avenue, S. W. Third avenue, S. W. Fourth avenue, S. W. Fifth avenue, S. W. Sixth avenue, S. W. Seventh avenue, S. W. Eighth avenue, S. W. Ninth avenue, S. W. Tenth avenue, S. W. Eleventh avenue, S. W. Twelfth avenue, S. W. Thirteenth avenue, S. W.
