Improvement in the price and demand for eggs is a big surprise to the trade, but this is one of the kind of surprises that the Front street merchants like to run against. Tottering values are not to their liking, for it not only causes shippers to lose money and swear that comeone is 'doing them' at this end, but huvers held back their purchases to an extent that usually forces lower values.

> PORTLAND LIVESTOCK RUN. Hogs. Cattle. Calves. Sheep. 243 482 Saturday Thursday Wednesday

Week ago. 425 Portland Union Stockyards, Stockdale,

Portland Union Stockyards, Stockdale, Feb. 1.—Livestock shippers will hold their cattle for a few days in order to keep them off the market, is the announcement made by an official of the stockyards today.

Just how the shippers are going to sell them when there is absolutely no demand at this time is one of the mysteries of the trade, and therefore shippers can do naught but hold them over.

In addition to the huge arrivals of yesterday about 15 more loads of cat-tle arrive in this morning, 13 of them being from Idaho Falls.

Buyers Keep Hands Off Market.

It is explained by some interests that the present duliness and less of price in the cattle market here is due entirely to the weaker feeling recently in the east, and with present indications of a better feeling there the local in the east, and with present indica-tions of a better feeling there the local market will do better after awhile. Just what the eastern market for cattle has to do with Portland demand and prices is not explained in any detail by those who are intent upon following every backward movement of prices elsewhere, but fail to look when the east is quot-ing an advance. Eastern cattle prices have naught to do with the local market, but there is do with the local market, but there is not the faintest connection between the two. Practically no cattle are shipped from here to the east, and vice versa, and, unlike the hog market, Portland is independent of what the east does when it comes to making extite quesis independent of what the east does when it comes to making cattle quota-

No Drop in Price of Meats. Despite all this weakness and de-cline in the local market for cattle, there has not been the faintest sign of lower prices for dressed meats— those put out by killers who buy from the stockyards. The public is still pay-ing the same old record values for dressed meats dressed meats.

This, too, is explained away by a representative of the nackers, who states that the meats now being offered by packers are from high-priced cattle, and therefore if packers cut values now they would be losing money.

In this respect it is a notable fact that prices are boosted practically every fav on an advancing merchant and the prices are boosted practically every day on an advancing market, and steers that killers purchased at low prices and were fed until the market reached a high value are never sold at the low level.

Good Mogs Sell at $3.90. While a number of cars of hogs were received in the stockyards yester-day, only one sale was made; Frank M.

Lacey, representative of the Carsten Packing company, a Puget sound con-cern, took that at $8.90. Local buyers Today's run of livestock compares with this day in recent years as fol-

U.P. AND S.P. EARNINGS SHOW A NET DECREASE

Roads Surprise to Traders -Traction Shares Bumped Real Hard.

Decreased earnings were shown both in the Southern Pacific and Union Pacific systems for the past month, Southern Pacific shows a net decrease of $4190, while Union Pacific's decrease is $715,477 net.

New York, Feb. 1.-While there was shares today, the statement of the Lovett roads showing decreased earnings in both the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific, attracted considerable southern racinic, attracted considerable attention from the trade and caused some seiling pressure.
Supporting orders of large volume were given the Steel stocks and there was a substantial advance in both the common and preferred issues of the corporation during the day.

To add to the market's general bearishness there was a further increase of 1726 tons in the visible supply of copper, the total world's supply being tons. Had it not been for the declaration of the regular quarterly dividend of 1 per cent by Brooklyn Rapid Transit today, that security would in all probability have suffered the same measure of selling pressure and loss as other traction shares. Third evenue dropped of selling pressure and loss as other traction shares. Third avenue dropped from 12½ to 10½, while interboro went from 21 to 15½ for the common and from 53 to 51 for the preferred security. Market in general closed slightly under the figures of yesterday. Regular dividend was declared today by the directors of the Pennsylvania railrond.

While the news cannot be confirmed here, an advice comes from Umatilia county this morning to the effect that an advance of 1c a bushel was paid for wheat there, which would put the track basis for club here $1.08 a bushel.

Only a small amount of business is reported at this time, southern operators being the only purchasers. Most of these, however, seem to be looking for "snaps" and this therefore accounts for the few transactions.

Holders of wheat are firmer than ever in their views and it is the general opinion of the trade here that they will not sell unless a higher price is offered.

Roseburg, Or., Feb. 1.—Arrangements were practically completed yesterday, whereby Roseburg will have for two weeks next September the biggest Chautauqua ever held on the Pacific coast. The arrangements were made between C. D. Beale of this city and Charles Wagner, the foremost Chautauqua organizer in the United States, business manager for Madame Sembrich. He stopped off here Sunday to see Mr. Beale, who has been a lifelong friend, and the plans were perfected.

Among Mr. Wagner's permanent organization of Chautauqua attractions are Madame Sembrich, Powell, the violinist, Jules Raney, the planist, and Mrs. Reed, reader and elocutionist. William J. Bryan and Joseph W. Folk are also promised to be on the program. Pell's concert band of 46 pieces will also be a feature of the Roseburg Chautauqua. The expense of the entire two weeks Chautauqua will be $5000.
