

PORTLAND WOMAN FAVORS SUFFRAGE

Mrs. Abigail Scott Duniway Writes on Development of Movement in East.

New York, Jan. 28.—Being aware that the majority of the readers of The Journal, whom she initiated leader of the suffrage movement on the Pacific coast, are interested in the "silent suffragists of America," she is eagerly watching for tidings of our work from the Atlantic side of our widespread continent. I draw aside from the rush and hurry that surrounds me on every hand, to give to your columns a running account of things I have seen and heard.

Mrs. Grealey Reads Paper.

First, there was Mrs. Grealey's "nausea," given on Tuesday at the Waldorf-Astoria, where a representative gathering of club women, chiefly of the silent suffrage order, were treated to a delightful paper by Mrs. Grealey on "Progress and the silent suffragists of America," ending with an impromptu address by the writer, followed by a reception in her honor, with Mrs. Charlotte Wilbour, veteran suffragist and club woman, at its head. The intercourse, that has followed between herself and the silent suffragists of the city, who form the large majority of women everywhere, who deprecate the reticent and timorous hush of the "trust" that wrecked us in Oregon in 1905-6, and made our cause a roaring farce in the state of Washington last June, has been almost continuous.

"Trust" Wrecks.

That the wrecking of constitutional amendments submitted for women's enfranchisement in Nebraska, South Dakota, Michigan, Kansas, Washington and Oregon, was caused by the domination of this "trust," working in more or less secret connivance with the fanatical, induced congress to pass the anti-union law, and then make that law both a secret and open excuse for refusing the right of suffrage to all women, is beginning to open the eyes of all honest co-workers with said "trust," is shown in the east, illustrated by the formation of numerous "leagues" of women who cannot longer be kept in "silence," and by the quiet determination of many well known and level headed advocates to change the present national administration into a system that will convince voters everywhere that the majority of women are not seeking for the political opportunity to enforce blue laws.

Women Who Must Work.

They are seeking to free the vast array of women who must work for wages, starve themselves and children to death or live the lives of shame that result from the subjugation of woman to a class.

Among the leaders of the movement who have reached the porting of the ways are Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, president of the International Woman Suffrage association, a wealthy and beautiful woman, who lives in elegant comfort in a grand apartment house overlooking West Central park, and Mrs. Clarence Mackey, to whose meeting at the Garden theatre a party of four of us was admitted yesterday by her special invitation.

Mrs. Mackey Astire.

Mrs. Mackey is a tall, willowy, elegantly gowned, handsome, young and wealthy woman, before whom the average man will bow in admiration, though he would turn with contempt from the pleadings of the worn out mother of many children whose sad experiences have taught her the need of the ballot in the interest of equal pay for equal work for men and women in the struggles of the submerged majority for a livelihood.

The chief incident at the meeting yesterday was the scholarly, comprehensive and almost exhaustive address of Mrs. Donn Anspacher, who is proud to be known as the husband of Katherine Kidder, the famous actress, whose gray-haired grandmother beamed upon him from a conspicuous position through the hour and a half of his oration.

Said for Both.

"The contest of women by men is bad for both," said the speaker. "The industrial exploitation of defenseless women has done more to disrupt the home than any other power ever could."

"Man is growing to hate woman as he hates a cheap machine with which he must compete. * * * Poverty is our real Gorgon. It is very easy to tell the poor to be virtuous. To deny the ballot to women all they know how to do is like denying us water till we know how to swim."

Many Paid Employees.

The whole of the seventeenth story of the great modern building is occupied by these salaried officers and their paid employees, as a gift for the year from the bountiful hand of Mrs. O. H. Belmont, who was not present at the time of my call.

But Ida Husted Harper, editor of "Progress" and a newspaper woman of worldwide fame, received our party, and showed us through the rooms, so strikingly resembling the Portland headquarters, and the silent suffragists of America, as they are eagerly watching for tidings of our work from the Atlantic side of our widespread continent. I draw aside from the rush and hurry that surrounds me on every hand, to give to your columns a running account of things I have seen and heard.

No More Invasion.

No longer is the invasion and defeat of any state campaign by the Anna Shaw regime to be permitted anywhere. The women of the many states whose suffrage campaigns she has dominated for her own exploitation, with her almost matchless oratory, sarcasm, and the ridicule with which she has assailed the voters to whom, alone, we can look for victory, have had their lesson.

Rabbi Wise Entertains.

To be entertained at luncheon in the elegant home of mine and Portland's valued and honored friend, Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, and his charming wife and children, has been one of my delightful experiences of the week.

To say that Rabbi Wise has aroused New York to an extent that has caused its money mad votaries to sustain his altruistic and practical plans for the betterment of Manhattan's struggling poor is to state the fact mildly. That he is a mighty factor in the suffrage issue is gratefully acknowledged by all patriots.

Next Monday is to be Sorosis day, and, anxious as I am to be moving westward, I cannot resist the temptation to accept a cordial invitation to stop over and attend the meeting.

WILL GIVE SERIES OF MUSIC CONCERTS

The second of the series of chamber music concerts will be given at the Women of Woodcraft hall, Thursday evening, February 3, by Alf Klingenberg and H. Bettman, assisted by F. Konrad and Carl Denton.

A splendid program will be given, including the Saint-Saens Trio, op. 18—a delightful modern, melodious work, quite typical of French.

WOODBURN ELECTRIC OPENING CELEBRATED

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Woodburn, Or., Feb. 2.—Last night a band of 30 boosters arrived over the newly completed Valley Electric line to help the citizens of this city celebrate in fitting style the completion of the road from West Woodburn to Woodburn. The visitors were the members of the Salem board of trade and the Salem Businessmen's league. They were greeted by a big gathering in the Odd Fellows' hall with Honorable E. P. Morcom, president of the Woodburn Commercial club, in the chair.

Mayor Robert H. Scott welcomed the guests and E. Hofer of Salem responded. Among the other speakers were Honorable J. S. Settlemier, founder of Woodburn, Mrs. Maude Mochel, president of the Woodburn Woman's club, and the following from Salem: Senator T. B. Kay, C. S. Walters, C. L. Dick, W. J. Staley, P. D. Arroy, M. O. Buren, August Hockenstein and others.

CLAIMS TO BE FIRST CLASS

Management State That the Casino Hall Is Rightly Condemned.

No possible objection can be voiced against legitimate criticism of any amusement enterprise, where there is opportunity to flout vice in the face of the public or a desire evinced to disregard the laws of the municipality, but when the innocent are compelled to suffer as the result of the acts of a few lawbreakers, it is meet that those unjustly assailed should be given an opportunity of making some statement in their own behalf.

In connection with the recent and unwarranted attack made upon the dance halls of the community by the authorities as the outgrowth of numerous cases of young women lured to destruction by the male habitues of Terpsichorean establishments, all those familiar with the situation, including peace officers, agree that the Casino amusement company in the former Y. M. C. A. building, is entirely above reproach.

Lombard Favors Company.

After the traffic manager had promised to heat the cars, Councilman Lombard wanted to protest against the complaints against unheated cars, but Councilman Russhlight wanted something stronger than the mere promise of the corporation official. He pointed out the fact that many promises had been made before the company finally put in the present subway system.

Other Compliments.

Similar answers were filed before the committee in regard to complaints against the lines on Alberta street, and between Portland and Sellwood. On the former the service was changed January 1, according to Mr. Franklin, from seven and eight minutes to six. The Sellwood line will have a five minute service in rush periods.

Highest is 20 Inches.

The highest car step in Portland, says Mr. Franklin, is 20 inches. He said the company has no objection to reducing the height of the steps if the people demand such action. However, he wants the council to decide on any change that may be made as this in future.

Provides Double Track.

In reply to the complaint from the Mount Scott district that the company had not given good service on its single track Manager Franklin stated that the improvement budget of the corporation for 1910 provides for a double track.

CAR COMPANY BOWS TO WILL OF THE PEOPLE

After Many Complaints Made by Passengers P. R., L. & P. Promises to Heat All Suburban Cars.

All the suburban lines of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company will be heated next winter, the company already having sent to an eastern factory for 100 sets of heating apparatus. This was the definite assurance given yesterday afternoon by Traffic Manager Franklin, of the local street-car company, to the special council committee on trolley transportation.

The action of the railway corporation was taken after the receipt of numerous complaints about the cold cars. Many protests were also received by the council committee, but Manager Franklin says his company has already ordered the new heaters when these protests were filed.

After the traffic manager had promised to heat the cars, Councilman Lombard wanted to protest against the complaints against unheated cars, but Councilman Russhlight wanted something stronger than the mere promise of the corporation official. He pointed out the fact that many promises had been made before the company finally put in the present subway system.

The east side should help the west side, just as the west side has helped the east side," declared the members of the Waverly-Richmond Improvement club at their meeting last night. Accordingly, they passed a resolution asking ing the residents of the east side and of their section of the city in particular to go to the polls and vote for the bond issue for a new high school today. They are planning on making a personal effort to get all their friends to go to the polls and vote for the bond issue, for they think the west side greatly needs a new school building.

FIFTY MILLIONS FOR PANAMA-PACIFIC FAIR

(United Press Leased Wire.) San Francisco, Feb. 2.—It is announced by the Panama Pacific exposition committee that a chairman of the finance division, upon whose shoulders will fall the duty of superintending the raising of all the funds for the big fair projected to celebrate the completion of the Panama canal in 1915, will probably be named this evening. When this official is chosen the actual work of collecting funds will begin.

Herrin Promises S. P. Extensions.

(United Press Leased Wire.) San Francisco, Feb. 2.—After a trip to New York to confer with Judge Robert S. Lovett, president of the Southern Pacific railroad, William F. Herrin, chief counsel for the system on the Pacific coast, is in San Francisco again. Herrin's return has been anxiously awaited by persons particularly interested in the situation surrounding the Republican gubernatorial nomination. Today, however, he refused unqualifiedly to discuss political matters. According to Herrin, President Lovett intends to improve the service of the Southern and Union Pacific roads on the Pacific coast and make extensions for the development of new territory.

Other Compliments.

2 HEALTH BOARDS IN SAN FRANCISCO

Taylor Board Resists McCarthy—McCarthy Board Prepares for Business.

(United Press Leased Wire.) San Francisco, Feb. 2.—Two boards of health will be in session here next Friday. The Taylor board, which is resisting the mayor's attempt to oust it, will hold a session, while the McCarthy appointees are planning to take charge of city affairs. Unless the courts intervene it is likely a serious municipal tangle will result. The members of the Taylor board, who refuse to resign, are making preparations to apply for an injunction to restrain the mayor from removing them. They declare they have done their duty and cannot be removed for cause. The men of the McCarthy board, who secured their seats with the aid of a locksmith, who removed the bolts and bars that kept them from the offices of the board of health, will hold sessions in the regular board room, while their opponents will meet at the offices of one of the contending commissioners.

WOMEN'S MEETING MA DECIDE ON NEW HOME

Mrs. Herman Heppner, president of the Monday Musical club, has called a conference of the presidents of all federated clubs of the city, and the presidents of several other women's organizations, for 2 o'clock Thursday, at the men of Woodcraft hall, Tenth and 2nd streets, to hear the reports of committees, and further consider the matter of a woman's clubhouse.

It is hoped that something definite will grow out of this meeting. A week it is proposed to hold a mass meeting of all the club women of the city in order to get a general expression of opinion. How to Get the Pick of 3,000,000 Cans of Asparagus

We put up three million cans of Asparagus this year. All high grade, tender, California-grown. This great quantity was taken from over 2,600 acres of Asparagus beds, cooked and canned the day it was cut. Most of the three million cans were put out under our four hundred odd brands and some for dealers who own their own labels.

Del Monte

The choice selections—the large, tender spears, we put up under our favorite brand, Del Monte. Del Monte Asparagus is the pick of this great quantity. It is chosen because of its excellent flavor, tenderness and color. All Del Monte Asparagus are carefully watched by our expert gardeners. One or two hours, make a great difference in the quality, for Asparagus grows one to two inches a day, and unless it is cut at just the proper time it becomes tough, "stringy" and takes on color. You will like Del Monte Asparagus. It is cooked, ready to serve as a salad, or it may be heated. You will find from twenty to twenty-five large spears in each Del Monte can. The retail price everywhere is 35c a can. Most grocers sell it.

The Choice of all Our Fruits and Vegetables is Packed Under Del Monte Brand

We put up six of every ten cans of Peaches; more Tomatoes than any other five concerns; the largest amount of Sugar Peas; and handle more than six-tenths of all the canned fruits and vegetables grown in California. More than thirty thousand people are on our pay roll during the canning season, and thousands of others contribute in various ways to the growing, canning and distribution of our products.
