TAKES BRIDE AND LOCKED IN CELL

But It Is All a Joke on Patrolman C. D. Hinson, Who Enjoys It.

Patrolman C. D. Hinson of the day relief, who has been living with his parents at 401 Sixth street, was locked up in the city jail on the eve of his wedding day and severely reprimanded before his fellow officers as they were reporting off duty Saturday evening.

It was all occasioned by his marriage Sunday evening to Miss Hattie May Baldwin, 386 Davis street, and the two had planned to keep it quiet. The bride was the cause of the demonstration at the police station. Captain Slover is not opposed to men on his relief getting married, but he sets his foot down hard when they do so without telling him about it.
