

SAYS OREGONIAN TRYING TO FORCE CONVENTION PLAN

E. H. Flagg, Paper's Own Correspondent at St. Helens, Says It Cannot Fool Public by Its Methods.

Grant Wade of Olex, Or., who died at Spokane.

One of that paper's own correspondents has come forward to explain that the Oregonian is not correctly reflecting Republican sentiment as to the assembly in the interviews it has published with "the leaders." He says further: "Nor do we believe the Oregonian wishes to present a correct summary of public sentiment. It desires such expressions as will aid it in its desire to discredit the direct primary law."

Convention System Discredited.

His statement appears in an editorial in a late issue of his paper, and is as follows: "The Oregonian, with all its power and ability, is endeavoring to force upon the people of Oregon the discredited and discarded convention system, under which Oregon was plundered locally and misrepresented at Washington."

"It claims that the election of Chamberlain was due to the direct primary system, and in this claim there is much truth, though the truth is not creditable to the assembly advocates, whose influence elected a Democratic United States senator from Republican Oregon out of revenge for the defeat of their candidates."

Not All Oppose Direct Primary.

"Not every assemblyman opposes the direct primary law, but every opponent of the direct primary law favors the assembly plan, and many of them are honest enough to admit that what they seek is the old way of doing things by the convention system."

"Such men as Dr. H. P. Belknap of Crook county are honest when they say: 'I favor an assembly. In practice the direct primary law is an unqualified failure and I hope to see it condemned.' The expressions of leading Republicans published from time to time in the Oregonian are misleading and by no means reflect the sentiments of the majority of the state."

Paper Interviews Correspondents.

"The Oregonian's correspondents were instructed by letter to secure interviews with leading Republicans. These correspondents, very naturally, as a rule, interviewed men whom they thought to be favorable to the assembly plan."

"At St. Helens the editor of the Mist in a correspondent for the Oregonian. It would have been easy to have interviewed a dozen Republicans here opposed to the assembly, but we picked out two leaders favoring the plan and three opposed to it and sent their views to the Oregonian."

"They are not fair interviews and no one is misquoted, but we submit that public sentiment cannot be correctly ascertained by such a method."

Not Square Deal.

"Nor do we believe the Oregonian wishes to present a correct summary of public sentiment. It desires such expressions as will aid it in its endeavor to discredit the direct primary law."

AS CERTAIN AS QUININE

This is said of the New Austrian Specific for Asthma.

A specific for asthma as certain as quinine for fever has long been desired and sought. "A specific for asthma as certain as quinine for fever" is the assertion of the Rev. F. B. Moran, rector of the Catholic church, Arnaudville, La., regarding the Austrian asthma treatment, through which so many thousands have regained their health. Rev. Mr. Moran says: "I used ascato for asthma when all else failed. I recommended it to friends, and particularly to physicians, who were glad to hear that a specific for asthma had been discovered." "Now, three years later, Rev. Mr. Moran reports: 'I have suffered no more from asthma since.' His experience is paralleled, and even exceeded, by asthma sufferers in all parts of the country, the most remarkable part of their testimony being that they have had no return of asthma after lapses of three, five and even six years."

It is not necessary to journey to any institution to take the ascato treatment, as it can be pursued right at home without interfering with daily duties, and sufficient of the remedy for a trial will be sent free to anyone who will write to the Austrian Laboratory, 32 West 45th street, New York City. The genuine ascato for the regular treatment may now be procured in both the 50 cent and $2 sizes at the Skidmore Drug Co., Woodard, Clarke & Co., and other leading drug stores.

An attack of the grip is often followed by a persistent cough, which, to many, proves a great annoyance. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been extensively used with good success for the relief and cure of this cough. Many cases have been cured after all other remedies had failed.

to discredit the direct primary law, to which it unjustly attributes the election of Chamberlain as United States senator, instead of placing the blame where it justly belongs) with the friends of Senator Fulton, including the national committeeman, Ralph Williams. "These are the men who claim to be the 'organization,' and denounce all that oppose the plan to return to the 'good old days' when a very few men—leaders of the dominant faction—dictated the program, and none but their henchmen had any chance whatever of securing a nomination. "The Oregonian has undertaken a big contract, but we do not believe it can deliver the goods."

DEATH ROLL OF THE NORTHWEST

William D. Hare.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Hillsboro, Or., Feb. 9.—The funeral of William D. Hare, the pioneer resident and attorney of this city, was held at the late residence at 10 o'clock Tuesday forenoon. Evan P. Hughes, an old friend and formerly pastor of the Congregational church of Hillsboro, preached the funeral sermon. Burial was in the Masonic cemetery.

Mr. Hare was of English descent. He was born at Wheeling, W. Va., on September 1, 1834. His father, who is dead, was a minister. His mother is a resident of Astoria, and more than 90 years old.

Mr. Hare came to Oregon in 1853, and stopped at Portland. He was employed for some time as purser on a steamboat. Coming to Hillsboro in 1857, he worked on the county records. He received the appointment of county auditor to fill a vacancy. In 1858 he was elected county clerk, and was twice reelected. In 1870 he was elected representative to the state legislature, and was on the Republican electoral ticket in 1872.

Being appointed collector of customs at Astoria, he continued in that office for eight years, and was later, in 1882, elected state senator from Washington county.

Mr. Hare was admitted to the Oregon bar in 1864, and practiced law here for several years, later engaging in the hardware business. He was a member of the A. O. U. W., and of the Masonic fraternity, serving one term as grand master of the order in Oregon.

He was married twice. He leaves five children living, all of the first family. He was married to Henrietta Schofield, a sister of Benjamin Schofield of Cornelius, and of John Schofield, for many years a justice of the supreme court of Illinois. The children are: J. C. Hare, Portland; Mrs. Frances O'Connor, Mrs. Henrietta Morgan and W. G. Hare, all of Hillsboro, and Mrs. Martha Mann, Corvallis.

In 1887 Mr. Hare was married to Mary A. Anthony, a cousin to Susan B. Anthony. The second wife died about a year ago.

Lewis Marion Parke.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Dayton, Wash., Feb. 9.—Lewis Marion Parke, a pioneer of the early seventies, died Monday of paralysis following an illness of a year. He was 60 years old.

Mr. Parke was born at Farmington, Mo., and lived on a ranch. He married Miss Clara Maynard in Illinois, and the couple came to Washington. He is survived by a widow and two children—William Parke and Mrs. Fred McDonald of Dayton. He carried a $3000 insurance policy in the Woodmen of the World.

REVOLUTIONISTS NEAR MANAGUA

Attack on Capital Soon to Be Made—Government Reports Discredited.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Bluefields, Nicaragua, Feb. 9.—By Wireless to Colon—Advisers from Managua state that it is almost certain that the revolutionists will attack the capital within 48 hours. General Chamorro has withdrawn from Boaca and is moving rapidly toward Managua. Twenty-five hundred troops are under his command. The main body of the administration forces was dispatched yesterday to hold Chamorro in check while preparations for the defense of the capital were completed. This force was halted at Santa Dominga by General Menz's insurgents early today, and Chamorro is virtually without opposition in his march. Couriers arriving from the front today confirm the report of sweeping rebel victories at La Garita and Santa Clara. They discredit the reports of administration successes which emanated from Managua.

According to their statements General Vasquez's attempt to surprise Chamorro at Boaca was a dismal failure. The insurgent commander easily broke through the lines and pushed westward toward Managua.

It is possible that Chamorro will wait for Menz to join him before moving upon the city. It is believed, however, that Chamorro is strong enough to take the city alone, and may not wait for reinforcements.

Swallows Tooth: Sues Dentist. (United Press Leased Wire.) Los Angeles, Feb. 9.—R. W. Pell of Los Angeles will collect $5000 damages to recompense him for suffering caused because he swallowed a tooth while under an anesthetic in a dentist's chair. The judgment was awarded in his favor by Superior Judge James of this city. Pell swallowed the tooth in August, 1907. For weeks he complained of severe pain in his chest, and coughed severely. He went to Arizona for his health, fearing bronchitis or pulmonary trouble. During a fit of coughing the tooth reappeared, and his illness disappeared immediately.

Fish Trap Question Settled. (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Astoria, Or., Feb. 9.—Fish Warden McAllister of Oregon and Fish Commissioner Riseland yesterday signed an agreement which adjusts the controversy over the Bakers Bay fishtraps. The agreement is that the channel designated by the United States government surveys for the passage of boats plying to and from Ilwaco, north of Sand Island, shall be considered as the boundary line between the two states until some further designation of the line can or may be made. This agreement gives Oregon jurisdiction over several of the disputed fishtraps from which the state has never before collected license.

SWEDEN ALARMED BY TIDE OF EMIGRATION. (United Press Leased Wire.) Stockholm, Feb. 9.—Alarmed by the increasing emigration of Swedes to the United States and South American countries, the government officers today announced that in the near future a succession of Swedish plays would be staged throughout the country to awaken a more patriotic feeling among the people. The plan has been given the sanction and approval of King Gustave.

Emigration, the king has pointed out, is draining the country of a large proportion of its best and most enterprising young men. The recent strikes contributed largely to the increased departures for other lands.

It is believed that these plays may rekindle the flame of patriotism, and that results will soon be apparent. They will be staged first at Gottenburg, where most of the emigrants embark.

Nordenskiold, the Arctic explorer, has been engaged by the government to tour the country, lecturing on national subjects. This is in accordance with another plan that has the same object.

CHICAGO PLAYWRIGHT CALLS ROSTAND THIEF. Chicago, Feb. 9.—Samuel Gross, Chicago clubman and author of the drama entitled "The Merchant Prince of Cornville" announces that he intends to take legal steps to prevent an American production of M. Rostand's barytone play, "Chanticleer." Gross also says he is considering action to prevent the continuance of the production of "Chanticleer" in Paris and France.

Gross some years ago accused Rostand of plagiarizing the "Merchant Prince of Cornville" when the French poet presented "Cyrano de Bergerac." Now he charges that "Chanticleer" and a great part of "L'Aiglon" were taken from his drama.

Water Will Be Supplied to West Side Schoolhouse Burns; Circumstances Indicate Incendiary Origin.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Chehalis, Wash., Feb. 9.—Chehalis West side school building burned to the ground at 2 o'clock this morning. The fire originated in the basement. Had the building not collapsed several near-by residences would have been in serious danger. The loss to the district will be about $15,000. The school books left by children and other belongings were also destroyed. The insurance was $5000. The building was erected about 16 years ago. It is the belief of many that the fire was the work of an incendiary. Temporary school quarters will have to be provided in the unfinished rooms of the new $40,000 brick high school building, and otherwise. Eight teachers were employed in the burned building and temporarily several hundred children will be without school facilities.

Robert Turnbull, Democrat, will in all probability be chosen to succeed the late Representative Francis H. Lassiter of the Fourth Virginia district. A special election to fill the vacancy will be held next month.

BEST RHEUMATISM RECIPE

These who have tried this recipe declare it has no equal for quickly stopping rheumatic pains and eventually curing this dreaded disease.

"One ounce syrup of Sarsaparilla compound; one ounce Toris compound; half pint of good whiskey. Mix these thoroughly and use a tablespoonful before each meal and at bedtime."

Any good druggist can supply these ingredients. The good effects are said to become apparent immediately. It is also a fine tonic for all persons of falling strength.
