

GRANGES DECLARE TARIFF TOO HIGH

Stayton Body Passes Resolutions Urging Oregon Delegation to Fight Ship Subsidy.

The following preambles and resolutions were adopted by Stayton grange, approved by Salem grange and concurred in by Butteville and Woodburn granges. In each case the action being unanimous:

"Whereas, An exceedingly high tariff on materials that enter into the construction of a modern ship has increased the cost of ship building in this country so much that very few are now constructed for the foreign trade, and on account of our peculiar registry laws, many Yankee tars are sailing the seas under foreign flags; and

"Whereas, We cannot see any justice to other industries in this country that are burdened by this tariff tax in making them pay another tax for subsidizing the millionaire shipbuilder and three or four transportation companies that expect to operate these subsidized boats; neither do we believe that two legalized wrongs make a right; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That we call upon our senators and congressmen to see to it that this ship subsidy scheme does not become a legalized wrong, and use every honorable means to have the iniquity of the tariff tax and ship registry laws amended out of them."

"The same action was had on the following: "We protest against the proposed, or any other, tax on periodicals. Continue the R. F. D. and extend it. Provide local parcels post and postal savings banks without any jokers in it. Improve the postal service and bring it up to date. Cut down excessive payments to railroads for carrying mail and rent of postal cars. Then there will be no deficit in postal revenue, nor the liberties of our people and a free press threatened."

WHITMAN ACTIVITIES NET STUDENTS $300

Walla Walla, Wash., Feb. 10.—At the regular midwinter of the Associated Students of Whitman college, held Wednesday, the managers of fall activities made report, which showed the student body to be some $300 to the good. Football netted $24.46 at Whitman last season, and the production, "The Straightaway," added $57.59 to this. Howard Crawford, the student representative at the college conference, made formal report.

Two amendments to the constitution of the body were offered. One provided for the wearing of a white sweater with a blue "W" by track men, instead of the regulation blue sweater with the maize letter. Another amendment provided that the "W" be given to a baseball pitcher who shall play 18 innings of ball during a season. At present the rule is that he must pitch two full games. The amendments will be voted on at a special meeting next Wednesday. They will undoubtedly be passed.

LIVELY SAYS EAST IS COMING WEST

Stockyards Agent Back From Chicago Where All Are Inquisitive About Northwest.

"East is coming west. Oregon is the talk of the states. Our resources are amazing them all. Money and men prepare for relocation in this state of opportunity."

This statement was made by D. O. Lively, general agent of the Portland Union Stockyards company, yesterday, after his return from an extended tour of eastern states.

"I visited Ogden, where we secured the National Woolgrowers' meeting next year for Portland. I went on to Chicago, the heart of the livestock industry. I visited many other towns. I found that among business men what Oregon had to offer in the way of safe investment was the theme of the day. Our stock is certainly listed high among the easterners. "Most of all, I was impressed with the interest the easterners took in our Progress exposition of 1910. A great number of stockmen informed me that they would make a special trip to Oregon to see what were the stock raising possibilities here. Manufacturers told me they would come to see what might be done in the west-of-the-Rockies production.

"Our fair occurring during the first ten days of September will come at a time when the tourist travel is greatest. By widening its scope, as is now planned, making it an exposition of progress to show the place reached by Portland and Oregon, will make it the greatest advertising feature we have had since the Lewis and Clark exposition."

Mr. Lively, who, besides his livestock interests, is also a director of the fair association, says that central Oregon will participate this year in the Portland exposition.

"They are raising some fine stock down there," he said. "Some of them will have railroad facilities this year that they never had before, and they are coming to Portland to show in tangible way that stories about central Oregon resources are not pipe dreams. Altogether, the fair will be one of interest to Oregonians and all others, and its success is to be great."

Whitman's Coach Dismissed.
(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Walla Walla, Wash., Feb. 10.—Coach J. Merrell Blanchard, who was taken to North Dakota a short time ago charged with a statutory offense, has returned to this city after marrying the complaining witness, Ross Eleson, 18 years old. The wife did not accompany him. Blanchard wished to stay here in his old position, but the college authorities would not retain him. Blanchard will make no statement regarding the affair and his future course has not been made known. He was reputed as one of the best coaches the school has ever had and has been a popular athletic instructor.

CHURCH MEN OF NORTHWEST MEET

North Pacific Union Conference of Seventh Day Adventists in Biennial Session.

The North Pacific Union conference of the Seventh Day Adventist church opened in biennial session in the Central church at East Eleventh and Everett streets, at 10:30 o'clock this morning. Delegates are present from Washington, Oregon, Idaho and Montana, representing nearly 200 churches and a membership of more than 6000.

President C. W. Flak, who is presiding over the conference, told of gratifying progress made by the denomination during the past two years. The sum accruing from tithes during the year was more than $90,000, this in addition to free-will offerings.

The presidents from all local conferences were present when the meeting began this morning. They are: Oregon, F. C. Bunch; western Washington, F. W. Mills; Idaho, J. M. Willoughby; upper Columbia, G. E. Langdon; Montana, J. C. Foster. The meetings will continue 10 days, and the prominent men of the denomination will be among the speakers. The department of education will be represented and presided over by Professor M. E. Cady, president of Walla Walla college. Elder A. J. Reed has charge of the religious liberty department; A. J. S. Bordeaux of the missionary department; H. H. Hall, representing the Pacific Press Publishing company, which devotes itself exclusively to the publication of Adventist literature, is present.

MEAT TRUST NOT UTTERLY GUILTY?

Livestock Receipts Lower in 1909 Than for 5 Years—Grain Receipts Also Low.

(United Press Landed Wire.)
Washington, Feb. 10.—Figures which may show that the "meat trust" may not alone be responsible for the present high cost of living were issued today by the bureau of statistics.

The special statement which contained the figures declared that the livestock receipts at seven leading markets in the interior of the country for 1909 were considerably lower than for any year during the past five years. Livestock receipts at four principal Atlantic seaboard markets were less than for 1907 and 1908. The decrease was particularly noticeable in hog. At 15 large interior markets, grain receipts were lower than during any other year since 1904. A heavy decline in grain and its products, compared with the receipts of the past two years, was noted in grain and flour at principal Atlantic ports.

The figures contained in the statement will be presented to the committee of the senate appointed in accordance with the Elkins-Lodge resolutions.

GOOD THINGS TO EAT AT THE

Baking Powder Exhibit

Positively pure and healthful. The highest grade baking powder on the market. Manufactured in Portland. Cakes baked with this powder will raise higher, are lighter in grain and will keep fresh fully three days longer than if baked with other powders. Money cannot buy any better material than we are putting into our cans. We justly claim to have the purest and highest class baking powder on the market today. Our Coledyke goes out with a very strong guarantee, and if the quality is what we claim it is, our powder is deserving of your support, as ours is a home industry. Price for one pound can, 35c.
