

No. 5

Journal Photogravure
CouponFeb. 11
1910

Seven consecutively numbered coupons, when presented at The Journal office, with 5c, will be good for one of the series of four Fine Art Photogravures offered by The Journal.

To secure the other pictures of the set, follow the same instructions. These coupons will appear daily for several weeks.

For mailing send 10c extra to cover postage and packing.

Name _____
Address _____

AVIATION WEEK
TO BE BIG EVENT

Display of Air Machines in Meier & Frank's Store
Will Be Popular.

Aviation week is to be started at the Meier & Frank store next Monday at noon. Two aeroplanes, besides models of a number of other makes, are to be exhibited. Admission will be absolutely free. The plans for the exhibition are maturing now and will be finally announced Sunday.

Exhibited in the store will be a Curtiss and a Farman biplane, models of Bettini's machine, with which he crossed the English channel, Santos-Dumont's early model and Roger Sommer's Marie Antoinette, and a glider, the machine with which would-be aviators are first taught the game and which will be a distinctly interesting and novel exhibit to Portland people.

To explain the exhibit, Laurence Dare, himself an aviator and an expert mechanic, has been obtained. He is to give hourly talks on the principles of aviation and the methods of operating the machines shown and will give a story of how some of the beginners in the art of aviation start their course of instruction with the glider.

As a special feature there will be a mass of balloons. Each balloon tag, instead of being attached to the goods on display, as has been the usual custom, will be suspended from a small toy balloon. Hourly each day and starting at noon Monday balloons are to be sent up from the top of the Meier & Frank building carrying a letter which when caught and returned by any boy or girl in the city will entitle the holder to some prize designated in the attached letter.

The exhibit will be one of the most unique ever made in Portland. It is but seldom that Portland people get a chance to see such an exhibit.

SNUBBED HUSBAND'S
MANY WOMEN FRIENDS

Bearl A. Neal, a handsome, refined-looking woman with Titan hair, told in the circuit court today her strange matrimonial troubles, among them the fact that her husband tried to force her to entertain his women friends. She went into court in an attempt to get a divorce from Dr. Charles Arthur Neal, a wealthy dentist of New Bedford, Mass., to whom she was married February 20, 1894. Judge Morrow took her case under advisement.

"My husband brought his women friends, some of them of notoriously bad reputation, to our home and became angered when I refused to entertain them," testified Mrs. Neal.

Neal, she said, had a violent temper and misreated and humiliated her so by mutual consent, they separated about two years ago. She went to California for her health, which she said has been restored. Some time after she came to Portland, her husband appeared on the scene and caused her arrest, making a statutory charge. Later he relented and dropped the case against her. She said she did not think he was in the right mind.

"Did you recover your health in California?" asked Judge Morrow. "Did you get well?"

"As soon as I recovered," said the woman, "I began to get well."

SIXTEEN MEN PAY FINES FOR PLAYING POKER

(Continued from Page One.)

thought he was an officer, and handled him roughly until they discovered their

CLEAR-HEADED

Head Bookkeeper Must Be Reliable.

The chief bookkeeper in a large business house in one of our great western cities speaks of the harm coffee did for him:

"My wife and I drank our first cup of coffee a little over two years ago, and we have used it ever since, to the entire exclusion of tea and coffee. It happened in this way:

"About three and a half years ago I had an attack of pneumonia which left a memento in the shape of dyspepsia, or rather, to speak more correctly, neuralgia of the stomach. My 'cup of cheer' had always been coffee or tea, but became convinced after a time that they aggravated my stomach trouble. I happened to mention the matter to my grocer one day, and he suggested that I give Postum a trial.

"Next day it came, but the cook made the mistake of not boiling it sufficiently, and we did not like it much. This was, however, soon remedied, and now we like it so much that we will never change back. Postum, being a food beverage instead of a drug, has been the means of curing my stomach trouble. I verily believe, for I am a well man today and have used no other remedy."

"My work as chief bookkeeper in our company's branch house here is of a very confining nature. During my coffee-drinking days I was subject to nervousness and 'the blues' in addition to my sickness. These have left me since I began using Postum and I can conscientiously recommend it to those whose work confines them to long hours of severe mental exertion."

"There's a Reason." Look in pugs for the little book, "The Road to Wellness."

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

BY DRUGILLA DREW

(Social news is a daily feature of The Journal. Any one wishing to insert such news should send it signed to the society editor or telephones tomorrow night at 9 o'clock for the members of the association, their friends and the Y. W. C. A. men.

Mrs. George G. Whiteside was hostess at a bridge party in her Northrup street home yesterday afternoon when 20 guests were informally entertained. Mrs. Marion F. Dolph and Miss Rhoda Falling received appropriate trophies for high scores. Mrs. Whiteside's guests included Mrs. Andre Fouilloux, Mrs. Samuel M. Mears, Mrs. E. C. Mears, Miss May Falling, Miss Rhoda Falling, Mrs. Marion F. Dolph, Mrs. Guy W. Talbot, Mrs. George F. Russell, Mrs. John E. Young, Miss Von Destinon, Mrs. Frank E. Hart, Mrs. Robert Washburn of southern Oregon, Mrs. E. C. Shewlin, Mrs. Louis H. Tarpier, Mrs. Fred H. Page, Mrs. David A. Shindler, Mrs. David C. Lewis, Mrs. Otis B. Wright, Mrs. Harrison Corbett and Mrs. Frederick G. Wheeler.

Mrs. George G. Whiteside was hostess at a bridge party in her Northrup street home yesterday afternoon when 20 guests were informally entertained. Mrs. Marion F. Dolph and Miss Rhoda Falling received appropriate trophies for high scores. Mrs. Whiteside's guests included Mrs. Andre Fouilloux, Mrs. Samuel M. Mears, Mrs. E. C. Mears, Miss May Falling, Miss Rhoda Falling, Mrs. Marion F. Dolph, Mrs. Guy W. Talbot, Mrs. George F. Russell, Mrs. John E. Young, Miss Von Destinon, Mrs. Frank E. Hart, Mrs. Robert Washburn of southern Oregon, Mrs. E. C. Shewlin, Mrs. Louis H. Tarpier, Mrs. Fred H. Page, Mrs. David A. Shindler, Mrs. David C. Lewis, Mrs. Otis B. Wright, Mrs. Harrison Corbett and Mrs. Frederick G. Wheeler.

Mrs. I. N. Lipman was hostess yesterday afternoon to her Fortnightly Bridge club, the members of which include Mrs. L. N. Wieschener, Mrs. Rose Selling, Mrs. Charles Kohn, Mrs. Julius Miller, Mrs. Adelpha Wolfe, Mrs. J. Lang, Mrs. Gustave Simon, Mrs. S. Steinhardt, Mrs. Marcus A. Fleischner, Mrs. Leon Hirsh and Mrs. Philip Golsinsky of San Francisco.

Mrs. and Mrs. H. F. Detwiler of Pennsylvania are the guests of their son William V. Detwiler, this week. They have just returned from a trip around the world.

Mrs. and Mrs. Edward Lehman are expected home Sunday from a trip of several months in the east. Mr. and Mrs. Lehman visited their old home in Baltimore and spent some time in Boston, New York and Philadelphia.

Mrs. and Mrs. A. M. Kerr are in San Francisco, where they are registered at the Union Square hotel.

Hugo Fisher of New York is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Beach at the Seward hotel. Mr. Fisher is a brother of Harrison Fisher, the well-known illustrator, and the son of Hugo S. Fisher, a landscape painter of reputation.

Mrs. Elwin Caswell gave the second of a series of parties yesterday afternoon, entertaining informally at five hundred. There were seven tables and those winning prizes were Mrs. F. Young and Mrs. M. A. M. Ashley. Mrs. Jones of Los Angeles was the guest of honor.

Mrs. Kate Holman entertained informally for Mrs. George F. Cartwright of London yesterday afternoon with a small tea.

Mrs. C. W. Hodson will give the second in her series of bridge parties Thursday, February 17.

T. Scott Brooks entertained at dinner last night followed by a theatre party at the Orpheum.

Mrs. Annie Leathers and small son of Astoria are guests of Portland friends this week.

In honor of Miss Florence Pearson of Seattle, Miss Ida Lai entertained last night at her home, 386 North Twenty-

TRIBUNE'S POLL SHOWS THAT HE IS UNPOPULAR

(Continued From Page One.)

Speaker Cannon and 67 are against him, according to the poll. The poll included all the Republican and independent editors of the country, and the percentage for the whole is similar to that of Oregon. The cagwas made by the Tribune in order to test the sentiment with respect to Cannon. The paper being an active opponent of Cannon. The Record-Herald and the News are among other leading Republican and independent dailies in this city that oppose Cannon.

The Tribune's poll was made by inquiries sent direct to the newspaper editors, and the figures now published are made up from the replies received.

Question No. 2.—Do you endorse the Aldrich-Cannon tariff and the "organization?"

California—Republicans, yes 25, no 11; independents, yes 3, no 36. Total, yes 32, no 15.

Washington—Republicans, yes 23, no 7; independents, yes none, no 13. Total, yes 23, no 8.

Oregon—Republicans, yes 5, no 50; independent, yes none, no 13. Total, yes 5, no 63.

The speakers will include many prominent Portland men, as well as a great many prominent out of town Republicans. The Republican state central committee, and its members will remain over for the banquet. Listed for speeches are C. W. Fulton, Judge R. R. Butler of Condon, B. F. Mulkey, prosecuting attorney from Jacksonville, Thad J. Cleeton, Charles H. Carey, Colonel Owen Summers and Judge George H. Williams.

Abraham Lincoln's birthday will be celebrated in Portland tomorrow night with a banquet given by the members of the Union Republican club at the Portland Commercial club. S. C. Pier, president of the Union Republican club, will preside.

Among the guests it is expected that Judge George H. Williams, who, although he has been confined to his home for some time, is now slowly regaining his former strength, will be numbered. He has expressed a willingness to attend should the weather be such as would permit of his leaving his home. Salmon Brown, a son of John Brown, the patriot, and a resident of Montavilla, will also attend.

The speakers will include many prominent Portland men, as well as a great many prominent out of town Republicans. The Republican state central committee, and its members will remain over for the banquet. Listed for speeches are C. W. Fulton, Judge R. R. Butler of Condon, B. F. Mulkey, prosecuting attorney from Jacksonville, Thad J. Cleeton, Charles H. Carey, Colonel Owen Summers and Judge George H. Williams.

Men's sample suits, $10.75, $13.75, $16.75; values $20 to $35; alteration free. "Knew" Sample Suit Shop, 315 Oregonian building. Jimmie Dunn, Mgr.

There are now five entries in the race for the Democratic nomination for governor of Alabama.

W. D. Sord of Bessemer, S. D. Weakley of Birmingham, Colonel Emmett O'Neal of Florence, H. S. D. Mallory of Selma, and Charles Henderson, president of the state railroad commission.

Life is what
You make it.

Take a fresh grip—

"Cheer up" with a bowl of

Post Toasties

Dainty, fluffy bits of Ripe white corn
Toasted to a "turn."

It's a delightful,
Comforting food—

Served right from the pkg.

With cream or fruit.

"The Memory Lingers"

Ask Grocer.

fourth street. Features of the evening were games, music and refreshments. Miss Pierson will leave soon for Los Angeles. Those asked to meet the visitor were Miss Besse Zidell, Miss Bertie Chan, Miss Gertrude Tape, Miss Lena Lal, Edward Kan, Tom Kan, W. R. Moy, Sam King and W. K. Lal.

There will be a valentine party at the Y. W. C. A. Seventh and Taylor streets, tomorrow night at 9 o'clock for the members of the association, their friends and the Y. W. C. A. men.

COMBINE MEANS
BETTER PORTLAND-
FRISCO SERVICE

(Continued From Page One.)

from Lombard street dock in that city, and an effort will be made to arrange for the exclusive use of that dock for the company's vessels. In any case, it is stated, they will try and secure some wharf for their sole use for the handling of Portland freight, as in this manner they can expedite the handling of the freight and consequently the sailing of the steamers.

In speaking of the matter yesterday afternoon with the firm of Little & Company, agents, they explained that the different companies included in the West Coast Steamship company, which before the present incorporation was the name under which the passenger business of the different steam schooners was handled, have merged their interests in order not only to give a better service to their patrons, but in their own interest as well, as by this means they will do away with the necessity of chartering outside vessels whenever there is more freight than the steamers of one company can handle.

Heretofore, while these companies have run their vessels independently, whenever one of them had a wharf to transport immediately they have been under the necessity of chartering a steamer from one of the other lines, which was not only unsatisfactory, but was also unprofitable in the long run. Therefore, they decided that a coalition would be the best thing for all concerned, the operating companies and the Portland merchants as well.

They expect to increase their office room on the Oak street dock in the near future and will be in shape to handle all of the passenger business at this end of the line.

As soon as rates permit they hope to have four other lines, which are now running to Puget Sound and Gray's Harbor, will be included in the West Coast Steamship company and will make this port as well.

The steamer operated by the West Coast Steamship company are: The Olson and Mahoney, Jim Butler, J. Marhoff, Thomas L. Ward, San Joachim, Olympic, Shasta, Shikoku, Saginaw, Quinsault, Shoshone, St. Helens, South Bay, all of which are freighters, while those that have passenger accommodations are the Yosemite, Yellowstone, Klamath and Northland. To these the company announces that they also expect to add the J. B. Stetson (freight and passenger), Hornet, Wasp, Bee, Nome City (freight and passenger), Bowdoin and Cascadia.

Of these craft two are equipped with wireless apparatus. They are the Klamath and the Yellowstone, while the Shoshone will have apparatus installed as soon as possible. It is thought that it will be only a matter of a short time when all of the vessels running on this line, especially those carrying passengers, will be equipped with wireless apparatus.

Nearly all of the steam schooners which will be operated by this company have been more or less frequent callers at Portland, but the manner in which they have been coming has been very irregular. They have either been coming up independently for their owners or under charter to other companies.

Many arrive recently.

In the last few months a great many of them have been coming up here on the Richardson Steamship line, which has been chartering the steamers to carry their cargoes northward. The steamer Northland, which belongs to the E. J. Ladd company, has been running regularly from San Francisco to Couch street dock, and the Nome City belonging to Gray & Holt, which is one of the steamers that the West Coast company expect to add to their list, has also been running to that dock.

A few weeks ago the Olson and Mahoney Steamship company, which had been chartering their vessels to the Richardson Steamship company, began to run them between San Francisco and Portland independently, and when necessary arrangements have been made whereby the latter will handle through freight for the Inland Empire, which comes up from San Francisco on the West Coast steamers, by means of their steamers to the upper river.

In speaking this morning of a regular passenger service from San Francisco by steam schooners, D. Franklin, a well known water front man, said: "I don't believe that a service of this description would affect the business of the regular liners which carry passengers between the two ports, but would undoubtedly afford a cheaper means of travel with better than size accommodations, and would probably be the means of increasing the travel between the two ports."

"At all times there is a certain migratory class of people who would without doubt take advantage of this section of the country, as I believe that a great many men will take advantage of this line of steamers."

Will Handle Through Freight

On account of the close relations between the West Coast Steamship Company and the Open River Transportation company, arrangements have been made whereby the latter will handle

through freight for the Inland Empire, which comes up from San Francisco on the West Coast steamers, by means of their steamers to the upper river.

In speaking this morning of a regular passenger service from San Francisco by steam schooners, D. Franklin, a well known water front man, said: "I don't believe that a service of this description would affect the business of the regular liners which carry passengers between the two ports, but would undoubtedly afford a cheaper means of travel with better than size

accommodations, and would probably be the means of increasing the travel between the two ports."

"At all times there is a certain migratory class of people who would without doubt take advantage of this section of the country, as I believe that a great many men will take advantage of this line of steamers."

means of travel with better than size

accommodations, and would probably be the means of increasing the travel between the two ports."

"At all times there is a certain migratory class of people who would without doubt take advantage of this section of the country, as I believe that a great many