Axminsters
Great Special

$1.00

We place on sale in the Carpet Department tomorrow fifty Miter Rugs at exactly half of real value. They measure 3 feet by 3 feet and all made of Brussels, velvet and Axminster carpets.

Rooming-housekeepers please note this special.

Headed toward Portland just now are about two score freight cars filled to the roof with furniture and floor coverings for the Powers' Store. These newcomers need room—lots and lots of room—and we haven't nearly enough. But there's a remedy, which is to sell the goods that are now in stock. We've made up our mind to do this, and we're going to ask you to help us, and what's more, we're going to pay you most liberally for that help by a series of price reductions that will command alert attention from everybody with even a very remote furniture or carpet need. To cap the climax we're going to sell all these so very much reduced things on our usual extremely easy terms of credit, which allow you to pay as you wish—a little down and a little each month

The New "1910" Go-Carts Are Here

They came in a few days ago—and their arrival was most timely. There are so many pleasant days right now that "His Highness," the baby, ought to be taken out.

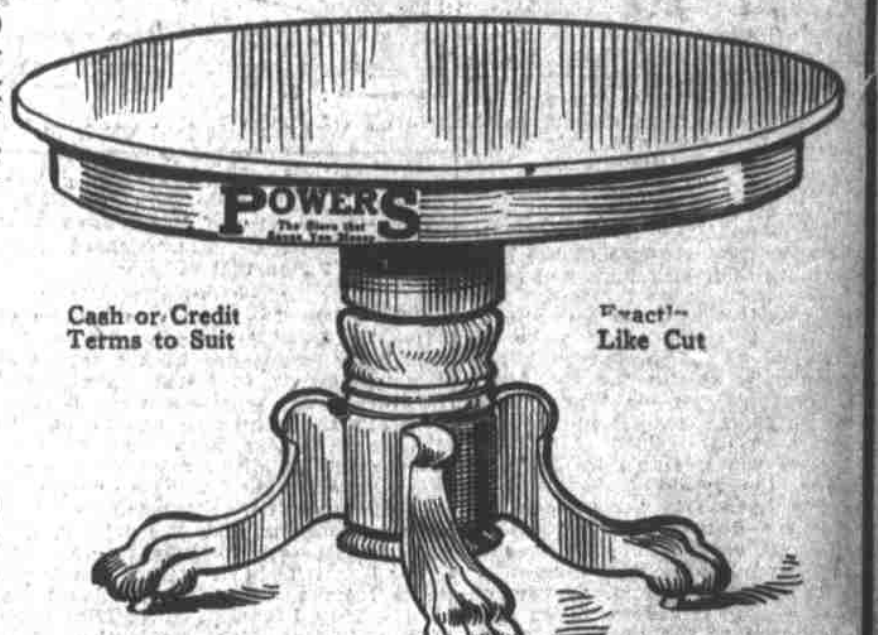

The carts we talk about today are collapsible. Their one-motion feature is wonderful in its operation. A positive footbrake operates on the rear wheels.

There are elastic steel springs under the seat which absorb all jars and jolts. The reclining back can be adjusted to no less than five positions. The adjustable dash is simple but positive. Last, but not least, the 1910 models are wider than those of last year—they're roomier and more comfortable. All are on sale at Powers' prices, which mean the lowest ever.
