T. Scott Brooke entertained at dinner Thursday night, followed by a theatre party at the Orpheum.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK

On January 31, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Housman celebrated their tenth wedding anniversary at the home of Jack M. Swinsky. The rooms were tastefully decorated for the occasion with holly and ivy. The guests spent an enjoyable evening playing five hundred. Mrs. F. H. Madison and R. H. Carso carried off the first prize. Pink was the prevailing color in the dining room, where at a late hour supper was served, afterwards dancing was enjoyed by the guests and music by Housman. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. George A. Housman, Mrs. Harry W. Sifton, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Prechard of Fairbanks, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Madison, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Cuthbert, Mr. and Mrs. George Pickard of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Bloomer, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Carso, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Shanks, Mr. and Mrs. James Shanks, Miss Lillian Madison, Mrs. Martan, A. L. Kitting, J. M. Swinsky, Leo Swinsky, James W. Cuthbert.

Mr. and Mrs. William M. Raemus entertained at five hundred last Wednesday evening at the Western Academy of Music. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Barker, Judge Robert C. Morrow, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Riddell, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Thornton, Emil Enna, Gus Grittmacker, Mrs. Charles Riley, Miss Josephine Baker, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Mahon, Mr. and Mrs. A. Price, Victor Bode, Mr. and Mrs. J. Kelley, Mrs. B. Rosenstein, Mr. and Mrs. Reddick, James Finnegan, Mrs. M. Conrad, Fred C. Bode, J. Veitch, Mr. and Mrs. A. Rahles. After luncheon, the guests repaired to the academy auditorium for dancing.

Mrs. Leroy B. Cramer, a bride of the week.

East Side Y. W. C. A. was largely attended and was an interesting affair. Leotta, who in private life is Mrs. F. W. Swanton, is a clever reader and impersonator and her work was easily the most attractive part of the program. This is her first appearance in Portland though she has made her home here for some time, and she was greeted enthusiastically. Her work is always artistic whether it savors of the serious or the comic.

Incidental artists on the program were Master Cyril Manning, a boy soprano whose strong high voice pleased the audience, Master Albert Cretz, a boy violinist whose technique is very clever for a child so young, and Miss Louise Hellman, instructor at the Y. M. C. A., who gave two solos of merit. The accompanists were F. W. Goodrich, Miss Margaret Lamberson and Miss Margaret Smith.

The following officers of Peter A. Porter Circle No. 25, Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic, were installed Tuesday evening by the department president, Mrs. Himes, assisted by Mrs. G. O. Himes, acting as conductress: President, Mrs. Georgia Staves; senior vice, Mrs. Alice Boswell; junior vice, Mrs. Mary Horton; chaplain, Mrs. Miss Osterlander; treasurer, Mrs. Elizabeth Fehtling; secretary, Mrs. Mary Robinson; conductress, Mrs. May Shaver; guard, Mrs. Sarah Carpenter. At the close of the meeting Mrs. Himes was presented with a linen centerpiece by the retiring president, and a beautiful place of cut glass by the circle. She responded feelingly. Mrs. Mary Shelley, the retiring president, was made the happy recipient of a beautifully decorated salad dish. After a social hour, a banquet was served to about 75 members and guests.

Flag day was observed by the Daughters and Veterans of the confederacy Thursday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. E. Wommelsdorf. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. C. T. Allen. The parlors were beautifully decorated with flags. The opening address was given by Judge Darrel Johnson, his subject being the history of flags from the time of Moses to the present day. Miss Roxanna Wommelsdorf, daughter of the host, gave a good selection on the violin. Colonel Louis Garraghs spoke on "The Stars and Stripes." He told why the south as well as the north loved the American flag. Miss Mary King gave a selection on the piano. Mrs. Manship gave a pleasing negro dialect, reading in her usual graceful manner. The favor given was a poem entitled "The Home-spun dress," printed on confederate gray.

Among the most prominent fraternal events of the week was the masquerade ball given by Astra circle 152, W. O. W. Handsome prizes were awarded the following: Best dressed man and woman, J. C. Bonner and Miss Richards; most original characters, Mrs. M. Briggs and Mrs. Edmunds; most comical, Mrs. Dredell and Mrs. E. H. Springer; best sustained characters, Mrs. Smith and Miss Trimble; daintiest dressed lady, Miss Aschoff. Mrs. Scott represented the W. O. W. colors and Miss Spall represented the Circle's whist parties.

Those on the committee were: Mrs. Stiles, chairman; Mrs. F. Gardner, J. D. Hayes, Mrs. J. Hague and Mrs. M. Briggs. Mrs. V. Hayes was on the special committee for prizes.

The Welcoming Hand class met at the residence of H. P. Hoff, 715 East Yamhill, Saturday evening, in honor of the former president, Earl Brocken of Butte, Mont. Music and games were indulged in. Those present were: Misses Floy Henkle, Maude Angell, Wilma Zeigler, Nina Dixon and Zella Zeigler; Clinton Sheffer, Dorman Edwards, Clifford Poor, J. R. Euston, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Mann, Mrs. L. N. Guy, Mary C. Parsons and Rev. R. Showers.

Winslow Meade Circle No. 7, Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic, at the close of their meeting Wednesday evening, entertained their chaplain, Mrs. Sarah Zeigler, by celebrating her seventieth birthday. The department secretary, Mrs. Daisy F. Abraham, in the name of the circle, presented her with material for a silk waist. Refreshments were served and a flashlight picture taken.

The Lallou club gave a pretty dancing party Friday evening at Christensen's hall. This will be the last one before their next party being on Easter Monday in the same hall. Mrs. P. A. Smyth, Mrs. T. Mearner, Mrs. W. A. Elvers, Mrs. P. Douglas and Mrs. E. Farley acted as patronesses for this occasion.

Miss Margaret Maloy, eight years old, of 1775 East Seventeenth street, started this week for Mills county, Iowa, where she is to spend the winter and summer with her grandparents and aunts. Before returning she will make a trip to Etah, Minn., to visit her grandparents there.

Mrs. Gillespie's class in elocution was delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. Robert East, Main street, Tuesday evening. Mrs. Ella E. Jones, who has recently returned from Boston, presided at the piano, assisted by Mrs. Whitcomb.

Sewing club Tuesday from 10 to 4. A good number were out. Quilt piecing and apron making occupied the time. At 1 o'clock Mrs. Eva Haines served a luncheon.

A most successful mask ball was given by Mt. Hood Circle No. 151, Women of Woodcraft, Tuesday evening in the East Side Woodman hall. The 400 guests presented in their dancing a variety of spectacular scenes, representing everything from the gnomes, witches and butterflies of "Fairy Land," the knights and ladies of old, down to the shoguns with their wild incantations and warwhorls. Special features during the intermission were the dancing of the sailors' hornpipe by John P. Robertson and the Highland fling by John Smith to bagpipe accompaniment by John Coleman, all in appropriate Scottish costume. Great credit is due W. B. Moldman, J. M. Woodworth, J. O. Wilson, F. B. Tichenor, Frederick E. Wheeler, R. K. Woodworth, Minnie McGregor, Lou Ellen Cornell, Bettie Bruckman, Leah Shields, Etta McCulloch, Belle Shepard, Emma Fuller, Rosa Clark, Clara Wilson, the Misses Lizzie Evans and Della Perkins, the committee having the affair in charge. The next public event to be given by Mt. Hood Circle will be a George Washington whist social February 22.

When S. J. Mickey returned home Saturday evening about 8 o'clock he found between 50 and 60 of his friends at the Grand Army, Relief Corps and others in possession, intent on helping him celebrate his birthday. After partially recovering from the surprise he gave them a welcome and a most delightful evening was enjoyed. Tables were arranged for those who wished cards, and other amusements passed the time until refreshments were served. Commander A. W. Mills of George Wright post, in appropriate and pleasing remarks, presented a beautiful chased ring, from his friends present, as remembrance of the happy event.

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. John Counter of South Main street, entertained Ben Butler W. R. C. members at her home. Mrs. Counter has many interesting relics that have been handed down and sent to her. She has several souvenirs from Betsy Ross and a cup and saucer from China 399 years old. A guessing contest on a jar of beans and the ingredients of some candy were a pastime which was rewarded with prizes to the lucky ones. Dinner completed the afternoon, which was voted most enjoyable.

Miss Eunice Donald entertained the Hesperian Girls her home Monday evening with a comic dress party. The club members are all Irvington and Holladay Park girls, being Lola Lind, Alayne Meehan, Berthine Mathison, Harriet Rice, Eunice Donald, Bess Lloyd, Anne Rolan, Marion Leahy and Hazel Ford.

Terp-at-chore club's third annual ball took place at the Armory Thursday evening, February 3. It was an elaborate affair and about 400 couples in attendance. Weinberger's orchestra furnished the music.

Mount Hood Circle, W. O. W., gave a masquerade, Tuesday evening. It was a most successful affair, very largely attended. Rose Weinberger's orchestra furnished the music.

The Narcissus club gave another dance at University Park Tuesday. These dances are very popular. The next will be on Washington's birthday. Rose Weinberger will furnish the music.

The Enna Amateurs formed a party of thirty at the Elvira resort at the Bungalow Friday evening. Mrs. S. R. Wentworth acted as chaperon.

COMING EVENTS

Services commemorative of the birth of George Washington and Abraham Lincoln will be held by George Wright Post, No. 1, G. A. R., at its hall in Mulkey block, corner Morrison and Second streets, Friday evening, commencing at 8 o'clock, when the following program will be rendered: Selection, "Veteran Male Quartet Address, "Washington"; Rev. B. Your Selection, "Veteran Male Quartet Address, "Lincoln"; Rev. C. E. Chas. Selection, "Veteran Male Quartet Comrades and friends are invited.

The psychology department of the Woman's club will meet next Tuesday at 8 o'clock in Women of Woodcraft hall, Tenth and Taylor streets. The subject will be "Wireless Thought Communication." The lecture will be given by Dr. C. H. Chapman. Many have had a long preparation in reading and study for this special lecture, so it is looked forward to with eager anticipation. It will be by far the most important event in the year's course. The audience is requested to be seated by 3 o'clock.

Rev. Dr. and Mrs. N. Moessohn and Mr. and Mrs. David N. Moessohn will receive this afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock at their residence, 176 Johnson street, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. David E. Cohen of Lincoln, Neb.

ENGAGEMENTS

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Wickham of 337 Morris street announce the engagement of their daughter Edith to Edgar Denamore. The wedding will take place the last of this month. Miss Wickham is well known in musical circles.

Mr. and Mrs. Wittenberg have announced the engagement of their sister, Miss Fanny Ruddy, to Joseph Levy.

WEDDINGS

Wednesday evening the marriage of Leroy B. Cramer and Carrie Della Seal was celebrated at the home of the bride's uncle, A. C. Lohmire, in Irvington, the Rev. Benjamin Young of Taylor street Methodist Episcopal church officiating.

Before the ceremony W. H. Boyer and Miss Evelyn Hurley sang solos, which were much enjoyed. Miss Laura Fox accompanied the singers and also played the wedding march from "Lohengrin" to which the bridal party marched beneath a bower of smilax and bells, lighted with carnations. Roy Searle attended the groom and Miss Nellie Swarte the bride. The bride was exquisitely gowned in white messaline on train. She was accompanied by the groom's driver in the white horse with gilt harness in the rose parade of last June, which won first prize. She possesses a voice of rare quality and has gained prominence in musical circles and in the Woman's club, where she has been a regular worker. During the evening she sang several songs in excellent voice. Mr. Cramer has been in Portland about two years, and is a graduate of the University of Vermont and Union college, N. Y., where he fitted himself for electrical engineering. A delicious supper was served immediately following the ceremony. The dining room was tastefully decorated with festoons of smilax and carnations suspended from the chandelier, from which pink satin streamers hung down.

These present were: A. C. Lohmire, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Manning, Dr. and Mrs. Young, Miss Laura Fox, Miss Nellie Swarte, Miss Anna Dick, Miss Evelyn Hurley, Miss Nellie Dickinson, Roy Searle and Mr. Boyer.

Miss Zilia Lewis and Alfred Moss were married Friday evening at the home of Rev. Mr. Black, pastor of the Second Baptist church. They have gone to Paisley to live where Mr. Moss is a substantial farmer. The bride is the daughter of the late Rev. T. M. Lewis, former pastor of the Second church, and she has been living under the guardianship of W. H. Hall.

February 5, at 8 o'clock in the evening, at the Bennington Court, 319 Benton street, a pretty wedding was celebrated. Miss Olive Moss and Lawrence Bailey were married by Rev. Charles T. McPherson. Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Moffett and William Simmons were the witnesses.

John M. Jack and Miss Pearl Lauer were united in marriage at the home of Rev. E. H. Mowre, 541 Tillamook street, on Wednesday evening, February 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack will reside in Grangeville, Idaho.

O. E. Fletcher and Miss Laura M. Bristol, both of Portland, were married in the parlor of the White Temple Wednesday evening by Rev. John Bentzen.
