

LETTER LOCATES GEORGIA SLAYER?

Roseburg Authorities Arrest W. J. Widincamp, Alias W. N. Smith—Murder Charge.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Roseburg, Or., Feb. 17.—W. J. Widincamp, alias W. N. Smith, who has been living at Edenbower, a suburb of Roseburg, for three years, was arrested last night by Sheriff Fenton and Marshal Palm on a charge of having murdered R. W. Moore of Tattall county, Georgia, in September of 1906. Widincamp was indicted by the grand jury of Tattall a few weeks after the crime had been committed.

He had been living under the assumed name of William N. Smith while in this county, but he admitted upon being shown warrant, that it contained his true name, also that he had been in trouble in Tattall county, but he declared last night he was not guilty of the murder. He was located by a circular letter; he is 33 years old. He has a wife and two small children. They have been living upon a 10-acre farm at Edenbower. Widincamp will be held until an officer arrives from Georgia. The crime is said to have been one of the most outrageous murders ever committed in Tattall county. Sheriff J. A. Kennedy of Reidsville, Ga., in a letter to Sheriff Fenton, says in part: "The proof is abundant and is sufficient to convict Widincamp." SOCIAL and PERSONAL (Social news is a daily feature of The Journal. Any one wishing to insert such news should send it signed to the society editor or telephone it before 10 o'clock in the morning.) Mrs. M. A. M. Ashley entertained her fortnightly bridge club last night in her home on Bayler street. Three tables of bridge were played. On Saturday Mrs. Ashley will give a luncheon of 10 covers, complimentary to Miss Myrtle Hanan of Roseburg. Those asked are: Mrs. P. L. Willis, Mrs. Charles E. Rumelin, Mrs. Thomas B. Foster, Mrs. John Jameson, Mrs. Arthur St. Clair Gay, Mrs. S. W. Hughes, Mrs. Harry Froggatt and Miss Eva Rice. Mrs. Henry E. Jones is planning to leave next week to join the Portlanders now touring California. Mrs. Louis Burke and Mrs. Edwin Caswell will leave early next week for southern California for a month's tour. Mrs. J. G. Mack was hosted at a pretty luncheon yesterday afternoon in her Hoyt street home. The table was centered with daffodils and lilies of the valley and violets were given as favors. Bridge followed luncheon and whiled away the remaining hours of the afternoon. Covers were laid for Mrs. W. C. Bristol, Mrs. Walter H. Raymond, Mrs. Oskar Huber, Mrs. Benjamin Holman, Mrs. George Cotner Mason, Mrs. Thomas Brittain Foster and Mrs. F. O. Downing. Mrs. M. A. M. Bridge followed luncheon and whiled

of Mrs. Herbert Bradley, and has visited here as her guest on several occasions. Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Tobey and children left Wednesday for Riverside, Cal., where they will make their home. Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Tobey will join them soon. The Tobey brothers have interests in orange groves near Riverside, which cause the change of residence. Mrs. J. Walter Shearer entertained twenty friends yesterday afternoon at her home, 525 Going street. "Five hundred" was the diversion of the afternoon, after which refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Burns and Miss Anita Burns left early in the week for Southern California, where they will spend the Lenten season. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Olds and Miss Edith Olds left Sunday for an eastern trip. They will go direct to New York, and afterward visit Boston, Washington and Baltimore, returning home via New Orleans and possibly Mexico. Their trip will consume six weeks or two months. Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Whitney, who have been in Los Angeles and other parts of Southern California for some time, are now in San Francisco and are at the Palace hotel. Mrs. O. A. Lyman gave a luncheon today at the Hotel Portland for Mrs. George F. Cartwright of London, the much-entertained guest of Mrs. Herbert Hjalman. A Washington dispatch says: Mrs. Taft took advantage of the brisk, clear morning for a shopping jaunt, and, accompanied by her niece, Miss Anderson, walked down through F street from the white house, in Washington, yesterday morning and returned a little after 12 o'clock, leaving orders in several shops. Many people rubbed elbows with her and jostled her without knowing the first lady of the land was anywhere near them. She wore a very plain coat suit of wistaria rough serge, the coat about three-quarters length and the skirt walking length, with a hat of London smoke, with feathers of the same shade. She walked very fast and had no appearance of an invalid. Lebanon Boosters at Albany. Albany, Or., Feb. 17.—With half a hundred boosters and a brass band, the Lebanon Development league Tuesday afternoon and evening was the guest of the Albany Commercial club. This was one of the series of weekly visits being exchanged between Willamette valley cities. S. D. Goff Farm Sold. Oakland, Or., Feb. 17.—The S. D. Goff farm of 400 acres, located four miles southwest of Oakland, has been sold to F. A. Coppard and associates. The consideration was $18,000. The farm will be subdivided and placed on the market in small tracts. Joseph will have a rip-roaring celebration on the Fourth of July this year.
