Spring Shopping at The Greater Olds-Wortman-King Store Complete Displays of Easter Merchandise in All Department's Millinery Headquarters

Pre-Easter showing of new Ready-to-Wear Headgear. The surpassing beauty of this season's styles is well demonstrated in the charming styles and effects which are now ready for your inspection. Plain, extreme and modest patterns that will delight women in quest of hats for any occasion. Our first showing of tailored street or suit Hats, also black "Holland" Hats, ready to put on and wear out—New ready-to-trim shapes in English hemp, real hair, natural Leghorns, black chips, etc., for those who wish something different, something exclusively their own—made up to order. Rare assortment of trimmings, flowers, plumes, ribbons, braids, wings, feathers—the most beautiful plumage obtainable, rich and rare imported novelties in ornaments, etc. Then there are the less expensive materials for the early season wear. Now is the opportune time to bring in your plumes and materials and have your hat made up before the big Easter rush—Look to your needs now and thus avoid the crowds.

Extra Size Tailor'd Suits

This season we are amply prepared to meet the requirements of Portland's stout women. We will show tomorrow a line of Black Taffeta Silk Tailored Suits, sizes 40 to 49, and Black and Blue Serges, sizes 42 to 49, designed especially for stout women. No trouble to be fitted here. Pay the store a visit and see these suits. On display in the Suit Department, Second Floor.

Returning buyers are bringing new inspirations in the shape of smart styles, for which this store has always been conspicuous. Read the following list: Our Miss Bernard, buyer for the big second floor Garment Store, returns from a six weeks' trip to market. She brings new Easter Gowns, Dresses, Suits, Coats, Capes, etc., in very exclusive styles. Many of her purchases have preceded her and more will follow. These will please you. Our Mr. Edwards, millinery buyer, is home with his purchases of Paris Patterns, Easter Dress Hats, high and exclusive novelties in street hats, etc. Our Mr. Shipley brings hundreds of new novelties in Ladies' Neckwear, Laces, Trimmings, Gloves, Parisian novelties in Veilings, Dress Nets, Shadow Nets, Gold and Silver Nets, Maline, Radium and Shadow Laces, Allovers, etc. Very fine. Our Mr. Grimm, manager and buyer for the Dress Goods and Silk Store, will leave in a few days for New York in search of foreign and domestic novelties in his line for the new store, and for immediate use. Our Mr. C. W. King will go to New York in a few days, where he will remain for some time to counsel with the buyers, care for immediate needs for this Summer and buy for the new store, etc., etc. Our Mr. Chamberlain is en route to New York to buy clothing for this additional department to the new store. He will make an extensive tour of all the important cities, visit the leading clothiers to get the latest ideas for arranging his department and procure the best lines of clothing made in America, but none too good for Portlanders, who want the best. Our Mr. Wortman, who has been in New York for some months, closing contracts for the equipment of our new store, reports buying for the coming season and for the new store, on an enormous scale. Our Mr. J. C. Olds is now in the market placing import orders for chinaware, cut glass, silverware, cutlery, kitchen goods, etc., for big new store.
