LOG SCALING AND GRADING BUREAU ORGANIZED HERE

Will Be Incorporated This Week With Capital Stock of Five Thousand Dollars—Industry on Sounder Basis.

The Columbia River Log Scaling & Grading Bureau, will be incorporated here some time this week with a capital stock of $5000. for the purpose of conducting a log scaling and grading bureau similar to that on Puget sound. About 16 of the more important logging concerns in this district will belong to the bureau.

The object is to place the logging industry on a sounder basis by grading logs so that buyers know exactly what kind of logs they get when contracting for a certain kind. Under existing conditions it is for the buyer and seller to reach a satisfactory understanding as to the quality and quantity. The bureau will employ expert scalers and their work will be backed by the bureau's certificate, as is lumber inspected by bureau.

Decision to incorporate was reached at a meeting held by a number of representative loggers yesterday afternoon. At the next meeting to be held by Temporary Chairman J. S. O'Gorman of the Wisconsin Logging & Timber Co., permanent organization will be effected and officers elected. To start with, the bureau will be in charge of the board of managers. Headquarters will be maintained in Portland.

The Columbia River Loggers' association held its monthly meeting yesterday afternoon and elected officers as follows: President, H. C. Clair; vice president, C. S. Collins; treasurer, J. S. Bradley, and secretary, Fred Chapman.

It was explained that most of the logging camps will begin operations in a few days, or as soon as the weather permits. For the past several weeks the forests have been filled with snow and slush, making it impossible for the men to work. The mills are badly in need of logs and for that reason camp owners are anxious to get operations under way without delay.

DOUBLE TRACK FOR O. R. & N. TO DESCHUTES

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) The Dalles, Or., March 5.—Work on the double tracking of the O. R. & N. between here and the mouth of the Deschutes river is being pushed with considerable energy, over 500 men being employed on the job. It is a big undertaking, as virtually a new roadbed is being built more than half the distance. The parties in charge of the work say when it is completed it will be one of the best stretches of road on the entire Harriman system.

Moran and McCarthy Meet

(United Press Leased Wire.) San Francisco, March 5.—Owen Moran, the clever English featherweight, who lost the decision to Tommy Murphy in a close 20 round fight here last week, has signed to meet Tommy McCarthy here the latter part of April. McCarthy has proved himself worthy of the fight by fighting Cyclone Johnny Thompson a 20 round draw.

DAINTY FOOD

Turns Pale Cheeks to Pink.

Our best physicians of the present day seek to cure patients by the use of food, rather than heavy drugs, and this is the true method, for all physicians agree that only from food can the body be rebuilt.

Most people fail to give their physicians credit, for after living on poorly selected or badly cooked food for a long time, perhaps, and when their ailments become chronic, they expect the Doctor, with some magic potency, to instantly rebuild them.

This is not possible. The only true method is to turn as quickly as can be, from poor food to good. A young lady over in Ohio says that I had better be true.

"I was variously treated for my nerves, muscles, lungs, etc., but none of the treatments gave me relief.

"About a year ago my appetite failed completely and I began to have sinking spells similar to fainting, then I took all manner of tonics and stimulants, but they were of no effect. I had been brought to quit drinking coffee and taking Postum in its place, and gradually began to get a little better.

"Someone suggested that I found Postum so beneficial I had better use Grape-Nuts food, as they were both the children of one brain. I commenced on Grape-Nuts food for breakfast, having Postum with it. I found the food so dainty, delicious, and appetizing that I always looked forward to breakfast with pleasure.

"Shortly after commencing this diet, the wretched pain in my side was greatly relieved, and now, a year later, it has gone entirely, also the sinking spells; in fact, my pale cheeks have changed to pink; I have gained back more than the twenty pounds I lost, and am thoroughly well in every way.

"Read the Little Book, 'The Road to Wellville,' in pkgs. 'There's a Reason.'

"Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest."

the different participants. This is not a prizefight and therefore does not come under the designation of the grand jury, Mr. Michael contends.

CHIEF COX DOES NOT INTEND TO SUPPRESS GLOVE EXHIBITIONS

In regard to prize fights, gambling and other vices mentioned by the grand jury, Chief Cox held that the affairs classed as prize fights during the winter were not regular prize fights, but boxing exhibitions. He contends the prize fights specified by law are where two men box for a certain stake, a decision is given and a knockout allowed. He has attended the greater number of the exhibitions and only had to stop one bout on account of brutality.

"There may be small gambling games going on in the cigar stores and saloons, but I don't believe there are any large games," he said. "My officers report that they find little gambling. Wherever such places have been operating and large stakes laid, they have been arrested. Three raids within the past three months have resulted in the arrest of 27 men, but in no instance was any large amount of money found."

"I have repeatedly instructed the patrolmen to give special care to places where gambling of any kind was thought to have been tolerated by the proprietors of places. Word was later sent to such proprietors that they would have to stop gambling if they were allowing it."

The chief contends that gambling is the hardest thing to handle in the line of vice, as shaking dice and shooting craps can be done almost under the eyes of the patrolmen, and the persons are not caught. Where games have been raided it has been discovered that a complete system of push buttons, signals and "look outs" have been maintained, and all questionable persons have not been allowed in the places.

GRAND JURY SUGGESTS POLICEMEN BE PLACED AT LODGING HOUSES

"We further recommend that an officer be placed at each lodging house in the north end for the protection of lodgers against robbery and so forth, to be selected by the chief of police, and the owners of the lodging houses pay the expenses of their hire."

Above is the startling recommendation of the grand jury in its report yesterday. It was literally followed out, the streets of the north end would be lined with policemen, whose salaries would be charged up to the lodging house keepers. The lodging house keepers, in turn, would raise their rents to pay for the policemen, the skeptics are saying.

The recommendation of the grand jury is believed to be the outcome of a recommendation made by Chief of Police Cox when he testified before the grand jury on north end conditions. The chief suggested a special man or two for lodging house duty. The grand jury goes much further and recommends a policeman for "each lodging house in the north end."

BUSINESS MEN SAY ROYAL BAKERY CLEAN

To the editor of The Journal: In a recent issue of the Labor Press, an article appeared declaring a boycott on the Royal Bakery, further stating that unsanitary conditions prevailed. The Employers' association being interested in the promulgation of American principles and opposed to boycotts, decided to make an investigation as to the cause that led to the attack, and accordingly appointed the undersigned committee to inspect the plant of the Royal Bakery and also ascertain the basis of contentions.

On going through the bakery today, the committee was greatly impressed with the cleanliness that prevailed. In fact, we doubt very much if there are many homes in this city that are kept as clean and sanitary condition.

As far as the employment of Japanese is concerned, we found that they were only employed in menial work, such as cleaning and scrubbing. Also found that the employees had been afforded every consideration and that a liberal participation policy was in effect for all employees who received a salary of $20 per week or over, and that no request had been made to sign any agreement whatsoever.

We would ask in all fairness to the Royal Bakery, that you publish this article in order that the public may have a true statement of the facts as it comes from a committee whose action is entirely voluntary and whose contention may be easily verified.

Respectfully submitted,

C. H. JACKSON,
W. H. CORBETT,
A. C. CALLAN.

TO CELEBRATE BIRTH OF EMMET

Colonel Hofer of Salem Will Make Principal Address at W. O. W. Temple.

In memory of the birth of Robert Emmet, Irish patriot and orator, the Hibernians of Portland will hold exercises in the Woodmen of the World temple, 123 Eleventh street, this evening. The program will begin at 8:15 o'clock. The birthday of Emmet was March 4, he having been born at Cork, in 1778.

Robert Emmet was one of the most loved of the Irish heroes. He was sentenced to death for high treason at the age of 25 and, after languishing in jail for several months, was executed in 1805. Emmet devoted his life and his private fortune, which was considerable, to organizing an insurrection which had for its object the freeing of Ireland from British control.

The insurrection flashed in the pan and Emmet and his followers fled to the Wicklow hills. He could have escaped from the country, but he refused to leave Ireland without first bidding goodbye to his sweetheart, Sarah Curran, whom Moore has immortalized in his famous poem.

The Hibernians have secured Colonel B. Hofer of the Salem Capital Journal, to make the principal address at the Emmet celebration. The general public is cordially invited. Following is the program: Opening remarks by Chairman J. B. Coffey, vocal duet, Misses Helen Cardiff and Ethel Longston; recitation, Miss Mary Cardiff; song, Andrew Cain; "Emmet's Speech from the Dock," John Hiltchcock; song, "Come Back to Erin," Mrs. P. C. Hayes; recitation, "Exile of Erin," Miss Evelyn Keating; selection, Irish melodies, violin, Miss Julia Burke; oration, E. Hofer, Salem; "Blacksmith of Limerick," Aloysius Hyland; song, Frank D. Hennessey; "The Star Spangled Banner," by the audience, under the direction of Mrs. J. C. Hayes.

SOUTHERN TRAINS ARRIVING LATE

All Frisco Travel Comes Into Portland Many Hours Behind Time.

Trains due to arrive here yesterday from San Francisco were many hours late and it is feared no serious attempt can be made for several days to get California traffic back on schedule. Trains due to arrive at 7:30 a. m., 11 a. m. and 2:30 p. m. yesterday were many hours late. Besides, being delayed by a soft roadbed, the trains lost time waiting to meet north-bound trains. These three trains reached the depot about 9 o'clock last night. The tracks are being taxed heavily because trains to and from the east over the S. P. lines being detoured by the way of this city, on account of the condition of the road between Oregan and San Francisco.

While conditions are much improved, O. R. & N. trains from the east are still getting in late. Train No. 1, due to arrive here yesterday morning, reached the station late last night and the train due to arrive here at 8 o'clock last night is expected to roll into the station at 5 o'clock this morning.

O. R. & N. trains of the Washington division and Great Northern trains are routed by way of the S. P. & S. line between Pasco and Spokane, but the O. R. & N. hopes to be able to get its line between these two points open for through traffic today. Yesterday trains were operated over the entire distance excepting for a small gap between Colfax and Bolles.

Southern Pacific freight trains have been authorized to give freedom of right of way to passenger trains that are being detoured by way of this city by reason of the washouts in Nevada.
