Several carloads of metal beds and couches are now enroute from the East to this store. Where to put them in this already overcrowded store is a most perplexing question. The only solution is for us to sell the goods now in the store. We must and want to sell quickly. We know of only one sure way to attain this end. That is to reduce prices—reduce them so sharply as to make it well worth your while to come here speedily in order to take advantage of the bargains. We've cut prices without giving heed to what the goods cost us—acting solely with the object of selling, no matter what the loss. To make financial matters easy for you we stand ready to sell any of these "profitless specials" cash or credit, with terms to suit you. So if you're in need of a metal bed or couch come as soon as you possibly can. Take our word for it a visit to the store will prove profitable.
