

EMERGENCY HOME WOULD BENEFIT DESTITUTE PEOPLE

E. A. Brown of Denver, After Posing as Laborer, Says There Is Great Need of Such Institution Here.

"After one week of investigation in your city, two days of which I posed as a laborer out of work and in search of food and shelter, I am convinced that there is need here for an institution of this kind..."

Mr. Brown explains his venture in humanitarianism to have been the result of observations made in Denver, his home city, among the so-called "down and out" class...

"I feel amply repaid in the wealth of good cheer that has poured in upon me from all classes of society," he said today.

Mr. Brown does not maintain that his idea is a panacea for all social ills, but he is convinced that the establishment of such an institution in the large city would be a dominant factor in the ultimate elimination of the jail, the labor colony and the penitentiary.

"It is impossible to make unworthy men worthy by abuse and falls and prisons only embitter men."

Such is his answer to the argument on behalf of the reformatory features of penal institutions. On the other hand, he contends it is the duty of each organized community to help others to help themselves; and the best agency for this work, he maintains, is some sort of a municipal home, where the man or woman, boy or girl, each of whom may become destitute in any of the ways, may find food and shelter amidst helpful surroundings, and in return for which such services may be exacted from them as to remove the evils that beset the path of material aid.

200,000 Unemployed.

In support of his contentions Mr. Brown cites the work along this line that is done in Boston and New York, especially in the latter city, where he claims there is ever an army of 200,000 unemployed that needs the best aid that society can afford.

"I came to Portland after having conducted investigations in Los Angeles and San Francisco," continued Mr. Brown, "and in consequence of my efforts a commission is at work in the former city while the Building and Trades Council of San Francisco, of which Mayor McCarthy is president, has passed a resolution favoring the establishment of such a home in that city. I was not familiar with conditions here, but did not feel that I could afford to leave the Pacific coast without investigating; and while I find conditions which confront the destitute man here to be much the same as elsewhere, I do maintain that the Portland police department entertains a more liberal consideration for such unfortunate than do the police officials of other cities I have visited.

"I have not come here to tear down,

MISAPPLAID CHARGES WIFE WAS CRUEL

Father of Three Children Alleges They Were Mistreated by Stepmother.

Mrs. Emily Baker was unkindlike and roared like an animal whenever her husband or his children crossed her in any way according to the complaint made in a divorce suit filed this morning in which Joseph Baker is asking for a divorce.

The complaint sets forth a most harrowing tale of the cruelty which Mrs. Baker practiced upon the youngest child and upon Baker. Baker had been married once before and had three children, George, Clarence and Milton. Milton Baker, age 7, and Warren Clinton Baker, age six, were born to him. Emily Baker, whom he married July 15, 1904, has no sympathy or love for the children according to the complaint filed this morning and the father cannot stand to see his children abused any more.

Mrs. Baker was especially cruel to the youngest child according to the complaint. About three weeks ago the youngest boy turned the tip of his finger on the eye of the work about the house, came down and found that the child was crying about she grabbed him by the hand and pressed his whole hand against the stove till it was badly burned. When scolded she declared that she was glad she had done it and would do it again.

Mistreatment Alleged. On another occasion Baker alleges that she made the youngest boy climb out of bed when he was really too sick to move and go to school. That evening when the boy came home the mother locked him out of the house and forced him to stay out in the rain and sleet till the father returned home and let him in. He states that the child was made fearfully sick by this exposure and that it was the hard heartedness of the woman that brought it about.

Baker further claims that his wife is shiftless and that he has been forced to do all the work about the house. He has washed dishes, scrubbed floors and cooked and has even had to put the baby boy to bed. He says that many times the woman has forced the boy to go to school without any breakfast largely because she did not want to cook it.

"When the defendant attempted to fomentate with the woman she would become angry and roar like an animal," reads the complaint.

but to build up, and feel certain that once the public and its officials are made to see that the city has a municipal home, its establishment will soon be effected. I have seen the results of such institutions elsewhere and what has been accomplished elsewhere can be accomplished here to the last degree in this city.

CHURCH UNION IS THE GREAT NEED

ing out of taking in for this will be merely a coming together on common ground, neither church will absorb the principle of either evolution and not withdrew in 1844 at the time when there was a common separation, not a walking out.

Then he treated the temperamental differences of the negro and the white and said that the negro is better satisfied in the church of his own race than in the church of the white race, whose natures are so dissimilar that their reception of religion is different. They are an emotional race and religion pre- sents to them in the way it is to the white. The negro should be in the same general church, but he is better satisfied with his own local churches. Difference in development, in education, demand this, and to give the negro his own church is merely recognizing the principle of ethnic evolution and not disregarding the law of brotherhood.

The southern white, he said, is the negro's best friend, and is so recognized. Dr. Clarence Wilson seconded all this and said that in Atlanta the whites do more for the negro than is done in Portland; that in Atlanta they are treated better than in Boston.

Decadence of Weeklies. Dr. Jennings of the Western Methodist Book Concern of Cincinnati told of the status of religious weekly papers, making a plea for more subscribers. He placed the Pacific Christian Advocate of Portland high in the list of "almost paying" publications. Inquiry showed that whereas in the west 1200 charges are without any official publication, in the northwest the proportion of subscribers is large.

The Oregon conference stands high with one subscriber in every five Methodists. Dr. Rader came in for a good deal of praise for his work here. Dr. Jennings called attention to the general falling off in all religious newspapers and laid it partly to the competition of secular papers, and more to the distribution of so much free religious literature, distributed by the various branches of church work.

Next Monday will come the annual election of officers. The meeting will be held at the Centenary church, with a banquet for the ministers and their wives. The pioneer preachers will be honored guests.

NATIONAL PACKERS

Provision company, Western Packing company, Colorado Packing and Provision company, New York Processed Beef Hotdogs Meat company, Anglo-American Provision company.

In addition to the criminal proceedings, the government started civil actions for the dissolution of the National Packing company. Defendants in this action, besides the companies named in the indictments, are: The Continental Packing company, Armour and company, Swift and company, and the following individuals: Edward Tilden, Louis Swift, Edward E. Swift, Charles Swift, L. A. Carter, Frank Fowler, J. Ogden Arnold, Arthur Meeker, Thomas Conners, Edward Morris, Thomas Wilson, L. H. Hyman.

The indictment charges that the National company is the instrumentality through which the big packers evade the anti-trust law.

Foresters Meet in Annual Convention at Commercial Club

J. B. Knapp, assistant district forester.

C. S. Chapman, district forester.

G. W. Peavey, director of forest school at O. A. C., Corvallis.

Men prominent in the United States forest service are assembling here today to attend the annual convention of the supervisors of the Sixth district, in charge of District Forester C. S. Chapman, with headquarters in this city. The Sixth district comprises Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Alaska.

The meetings are held in the assembly room of the Commercial club, but will not be open to the public, as many matters of confidential nature are apt to come up. D. D. Bronson, general inspector for the forest service, is here from Washington, D. C., to attend the convention, and A. F. Potter, former chief of the grazing division, who succeeded Overton W. Drive, associate forester, is expected to arrive here Thursday evening. District Forester Chapman presides over the meetings.

A number of interesting papers will be read before the convention. Supervisors in attendance will be C. R. Seitz, Cascade forest; M. L. Erickson, Crater forest; A. S. Ireland, Deschutes forest; Guy M. Ingram, Fremont forest; J. J. Bingham, Malheur forest; T. H. Sherrard, Oregon forest; M. J. Anderson, Siskiyou forest; A. E. Chubb, Siskiyou forest; Thomas E. Childsey, Umatilla forest; S. C. Bartram, Umpqua forest; Henry Ireland, Whitman forest; George W. Millham, Chelan forest; Homer Rose, Columbia forest; C. E. Reid, Colville forest; R. E. Benditt, Olympia forest; G. E. Allen, Rainier forest; B. P. Kirkland, Shoshone forest; C. H. Park, Washington forest; J. M. Schmitz, Wenatchee forest; and A. H. S. Vester, Wenatchee forest. Harry W. Harris, Wallawa forest.

FOUR EXCEED SPEED LIMIT AND ARRESTED

The excellent weather yesterday tempted automobilists to exceed the city speed laws. Four of them were arrested. Each was given a fine of $10 this morning in the municipal court. They were Charles Ackerman, Milton R. Norcross, Henry F. Smith and Henry Hoffman.

The patrolmen in the residence districts have complained to the chief of police that many "scorchers" they followed when signaled. The matter has been taken up with the city attorney, and the patrolmen will be instructed to take the numbers of the machines, and when the driver does not stop, a double charge will be placed against them, that of exceeding the speed limit and resisting an officer.

LIFTED SUNDAY LID; ANSWER IN COURT

Two men took chances with "the lid" yesterday and were arrested. They were Harry Haffey, 82 1/2 North Third street, and Henry Hoffman, 382 East Clay street. The men will be arraigned Tuesday in the municipal court.

Thomas Knowles was dry and asked two plain clothes men for money to get a drink yesterday afternoon. They followed him to the room of Haffey, where a large quantity of bottle liquor was confiscated. Patrick Morrow, a laborer, was seen to buy liquor from Hoffman, and the two men were arrested. Morrow is held as a witness.

Delayed Trains Arriving

Delayed O. R. & N. trains from the east are arriving at the union depot this afternoon in quick succession. Some of these should have arrived yesterday morning. Wrecking crews sent out from Starbuck and The Dalles yesterday morning cleared the tracks at 5:30 this morning near Cayuse station, where Engineer Risk and Fireman Hippie lost their lives when their engine, running light, jumped the track yesterday morning.

Faint Hope of Daniel's Recovery.

Dayton, Fla., March 21.—Physicians attending Senator Daniel, issued the following bulletin today: "Senator Daniel's condition shows no appreciable change over last night, when a slight improvement was noted. It is likely that Senator Daniel has been in a comatose condition. This was slightly relieved Saturday, when he regained consciousness for a few moments. Although his life is all but despaired of, his physicians have yet a slight hope that he may recover."

DEMAND DEPOT AT MONTAVILLA

(Special Dispatch to The Journal)

Salem, Or., March 21.—George L. Hibbard of Montavilla has filed a formal complaint against the Oregon Railway & Navigation Co. with the railroad commission today, asking that a hearing be held and the question determined regarding whether the railroad company shall establish and maintain a depot and agent at that point. It is set forth that the people of Montavilla purchased three acres of land and gave it to the railroad for a depot but the railroad will not maintain a depot. It is the contention of Mr. Hibbard, general manager for the O. R. & N. Co., that business at Montavilla will not justify the establishment of a depot and agency and that the recent four months' experience has proved his point.

The Oregon Ad club will hold its regular weekly dinner at the Oregon grill at noon tomorrow, when L. M. Walker will speak on "Advertising a Business College," and James B. Melkie will speak on "How to Build a City."

TACOMA CITIZEN IS WHOLESAL ROBBER

(Special Dispatch to The Journal)

Tacoma, Wash., March 21.—John J. Fitch, an electrician and a native of Tacoma, was arrested this morning charged with wholesale house robbing, extending over a period of more than six months and involving property in a large sum. Many homes and offices were looted by him.

Young Fitch has made a partial confession to the police, implicating his father, and the elder Fitch will be arrested as an accomplice. The prisoner is 33 years old.

POSTMASTER'S SON RECOVERS

A letter from Dennis Wood, the postmaster of Nepht, Utah, condenses to the following: "I am very pleased to inform you that my boy is on the fourth bottle of your Renal Compound and that the dropsy has almost disappeared. He was swollen and badly before taking it that every one thought he could not possibly live. There is a little dropsy yet that appears in the morning, but disappears as the day goes on. Would like to know if it is necessary now to continue to take the prescription to aid the compound that your physician sent. If the dropsy had not been relieved he would have had to be tapped. Your compound was surely a blessing to him and will keep on with it until he gets thoroughly well."

The funeral of Mrs. J. R. Hanson, who died last night following an attack of pneumonia consequent to an operation, will take place tomorrow afternoon. Services will be held in the Holman chapel, 220 Third street, at 1:30.

Kahn May Be Coast Member of Rules Committee

(Washington Bureau of The Journal)

Washington, March 21.—The Pacific coast members of the new rules committee of the house will probably be Kahn of California. There was some talk of Humphrey of Washington, with mention also of Ellis or Hawley, but the only one seriously considered is Kahn. The insurgents have definitely decided that they will not demand representation. The regulars, however, are disposed to grant them one member.

New Ship for Hawaiian Trade

Baltimore, Md., March 21.—The steamship Kentucky, built for the Hawaiian Steamship company, was successfully launched today at the yards of the Maryland Steel company. The christening ceremony was performed by Miss Nancy Johnson, daughter of Representative Johnson of Kentucky. A large crowd of spectators witnessed the initial plunge of the big vessel.

CITY ASKS LITTLE SPACE FROM R. R. CO. FOR APPROACH

All Required for West Approach to Broadway Span Is Room for Two Steel Columns 30x36 Inches at Base.

While the East Side Business Men's club is busily circulating referendum petitions against the ordinance passed by the city council, and signed by Mayor Simon granting to the O. R. & N. company 200 feet of ground on Oregon and Adams streets for a pier site for the proposed steel railway bridge, and while the various interests working for the proposed Broadway bridge are discussing the probable effect the referendum will have upon the construction of the Broadway viaduct, one man is saying nothing, but is proceeding with the preliminary work necessary before actual construction can be commenced on the big span to cross the river at Broadway street.

That man is Engineer W. R. Weidman, assistant to Ralph Modjeski of Chicago. Mr. Weidman has been in Portland only a few weeks but, without making any display, he has been attending to the hundred and one details incident to the building of the big bridge.

Modjeski's assistant is not given to talking, but when asked this morning what progress he has made he readily consented to advance the information requested.

"One of the most important preliminaries is that of measuring the distance across the river between the points where the shore abutments of the bridge will rest," said he, "and the obtaining by accurate mathematical calculations of the points in the stream where piers must be submerged. These points must be obtained by triangulation, and observations must be absolutely correct. I am making as rapid headway as possible.

"As to the amount of ground that will be needed for the supports to the west side approach in the terminal grounds, I can say that what we require will inconvenience the railway company very little. Two steel columns 30 by 36 inches at the base will afford ample support for the approach."

DEMONSTRATION TRAIN EXHIBITS AT HEPPNER

(Special Dispatch to The Journal)

June, Or., March 21.—The O. R. & N. demonstration train, in charge of Oregon Agricultural college experts, arrived at June at 1:30 p. m. after exhibiting this morning at Heppner, the first stop on the train's ten-day tour of eastern Oregon. Hundreds of persons viewed the train at Heppner and June.

Predictions of a record wheat yield and extremely favorable livestock conditions tend to make especially auspicious this year's tour of the demonstration train. Grain men and farmers declare that Morrow county's 1910 wheat crop will come close to the million bushel mark.

MUST TELL WHO RECEIVED MONEY

Investigation Into Insurance Legislation Continued; Odell Calls It Farce.

(United Press Leased Wire)

New York, March 21.—Superintendent William Hotchkiss of the state insurance department announced today that E. L. Kennedy, formerly a member of the committee of laws and legislation of the New York board of fire underwriters, would be compelled to tell the names of other men besides Aldridge who got money in connection with insurance legislation in the New York legislature. Kennedy, Hotchkiss stated, would be recalled to the stand tomorrow for that purpose.

Hotchkiss reiterated his statement that the investigation into the graft alleged to have been collected by corrupt legislators from the insurance companies would cause an upheaval in New York and would involve men prominent in national politics.

The stand taken by former Governor Odell when he stated that he believed the investigation into the graft was a farce, has caused much discussion among politicians. Odell said: "These investigations into corruption that have been a long time buried are a farce. I believe rather in preventing corruption at the present time."

Kennedy still asserts that he never paid money to a member of the legislature to influence any bill affecting insurance companies. He admitted, however, that a few thousand dollars had gone into the coffers of various political parties from the "yellow pup" fund of the insurance companies.

Apartment House for Hood River

Hood River, Or., March 21.—Hood River is to have its first apartment house. Attorney Seneca Fouts of Portland closed a deal today with Dr. C. C. Brosius for the corner lot on Oak and Ninth streets. It is the purpose of Mr. Fouts to erect a three story building on the site and work will begin at once.

FOR THE THIN AND SCRAWNY

Samose Will Make You Plump and Rosy, Say Leading Druggists.

If you are getting thin, you are sick, although you may not know it. If you are losing weight steadily, there is something wrong that needs looking after. If you have always been thin, it doesn't follow that you are sick, but you may not be healthy. You don't need to be strong if you are thin.

The only way to increase the weight and gain health and flesh is by using Samose, the standard flesh-forming food and tissue builder. It mingles with the food you eat and is assimilated so that all the flesh-forming and tissue-building elements of the food are retained in the system. This explains the great value of Samose.

Leading druggists sell every package on a genuine guarantee to refund the money if it does not do all that is claimed for it.
