Thieves and Burglars Busy.—By cutting away the screen to the meat market of J. Kurath, 997 Corbett street, yesterday evening, thieves entered and stole three checks and a quantity of meat. The home of W. G. Knighton, 808 Northrup street, was also entered yesterday afternoon while the family was at the park. Silverware and money to the value of $20 were stolen.

Mother's Meeting.—At the meeting of the State Congress of Mothers on Tuesday Mrs. C. M. Wood will talk on the work of the congress in California. Mrs. Wood was associated in the work while in California and is enthusiastic regarding the good achieved and the wide range of interests. She is an entertaining and fluent speaker and all members of circles and others interested in child culture are cordially invited to come. Meeting held at city hall at 2:30 p. m. on Tuesday.

Nearly Bleeds to Death.—While walking down Front street, near Columbia street, this morning, Otto Brandes, 320 1/2 Tenth street, suffered a rupture of a varicose vein. The flow of blood threatened his life for a few moments. Dr. W. S. Armstrong placed a band around the knee. Brandes was taken to the hospital, and is still in a critical condition from loss of blood. Brandes, who is city salesman for the Albers Milling company, was going home at the time.

Deal for President.—The annual meeting of the Oregon Conservation association will be held at the Commercial club this evening. Election of officers will be one of the important events of the meeting. A ticket, headed by J. N. Deal for president, has been prepared by the nominating committee, which it is believed will be ratified at tonight's meeting.

Fire Does Damage.—Fire damaged the restaurant at 293 First street this morning to the extent of $250. Charles Tagmull is proprietor. The cause is thought to have been from a stovepipe.

that was near the siding. The fire also burned through to the second-hand store, but little damage resulted in the latter place.

Funeral of Mrs. Zimmerman.—The funeral of Mrs. Christina Zimmerman, who died at her home, 530 East Couch, Saturday evening after a brief attack of pneumonia, will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock from St. Francis church. Mrs. Zimmerman was 69 years old and came to Portland with her husband direct from Germany in 1876. She is survived by her husband, Peter Zimmerman; two sisters, Mrs. F. Zimmerman of Portland and Mrs. Johanna Von Horenhoffen, in Germany; two children, Carl and Mrs. F. L. Schanz.

Turn Verein Concert.—The second annual concert of the Portland Social Turn Verein was given last night at the hall, Fourth and Yamhill streets. The concert was given by the mixed chorus of the organization and proved to be the best and most entertaining, as well as the best presented concert ever given by that musical organization. The hall had been tastefully decorated for the occasion and there was a large attendance from Portland and Vancouver.

Hope for Mrs. Day's Recovery.—Mrs. A. G. Day, who was thrown from her horse while riding in a Hunt club chase Saturday, is still at the Good Samaritan hospital suffering from the result of her fall. While Mrs. Day is still delirious it is not believed that her injuries are critical, and the hope is expressed that she will have recovered from her unfortunate accident within a few days.

Policeman's Aim Good.—A dog belonging to J. P. Johnson, 247 North Fourth street, was mangled by a streetcar Saturday night and suffered until yesterday afternoon, when killed by a policeman. The animal was struck by the car at Seventeenth and Johnson streets.

Hear Homer Davenport at White Temple tonight on "The Power of the Cartoon." Admission 50c and 75c. Seats on sale at Sherman, Clay & Co's Piano store and Woodard-Clarke's drug store.

Professor Knox Lectures.—An interesting lecture was delivered by Professor Knox last night in Christensen hall on "How to Overcome Poverty and Accumulate Wealth." The spirit of the lecture as outlined by Professor Knox was to the effect that poverty springs largely from the mental attitude of the people and that it could be overcome by a right habit of thinking coupled with intelligent effort.

ly from the mental attitude of the people and that it could be overcome by a right habit of thinking coupled with intelligent effort. Tonight the speaker will deliver the second of his series of four lectures on "How to Educate the Child to Make a Success in Life."

Sell Your Eyes.—Not for millions; certainly not. Yet how careless you are of those million-dollar eyes! Glasses as I fit them insure relief from eye-strain and headaches. Rubenstein, the optician, opposite Baker theatre.

EASTMORELAND
(The Place for Your Home)
Twelve hundred acres of land are being covered with Portland homes each year.
The three largest tracts of close-in property are now on the market—they have been held privately until the city has grown far beyond them.
When these are sold, the homeseeker will have to go far out.
Portland will have 600,000 people in 1915 at its present rate of growth—Eastmoreland will be built solid.

Oh Joy Theatre.
Scarcely ever has a picture been presented in this city to equal the thrilling qualities as was shown in the "Frozen North," the headliner at the Oh Joy theatre yesterday. This is a story of love and adventure in Alaska, and being absolutely true to life, holds the spectator from the beginning to the very close.

Garden Tools AT ESPECIALLY Low Prices
Spring is here, and right now is the time to make things grow. The trees and the bushes need pruning, the dead limbs should be taken off, and the garden and lawn will amply repay you later on for a little attention now. Good workmen use good tools, and those are the only kind we carry. Let us suggest Garden Barrows, Garden and Lawn Rakes, Spades, Spading Forks, Shovels, Trowels, Pruning Shears, Saws and Spray Pumps. Briefly, everything to make the lawn, garden and shrubbery beautiful for the coming year.
