OXFORD EIGHT WINS ANNUAL BOAT RACE

Cambridge Crew Leads in First Mile, but Is Then Left Behind.

(United Press Special Wire) London, March 23.—Oxford lowered the Cambridge colors today in the annual regatta on the Thames, winning by three and one-half lengths after a race of four and one-half miles. The distance was made by Oxford in 27 minutes, 14 seconds, which is 27 seconds behind the record time.

BEAVERS CAVORT AT MADERA PARK

Dan Ryan Makes Great Showing Against Yanigans—Netzel Looks Sure.

Madera, Cal., March 23.—This is the day when Portland and Madera play a regular game for blood. The locals are hoping to defeat the Coasters, and have strengthened up to the highest notch to do so. Tomorrow McCredie intends going to Fresno to remain until Monday, when he will go to San Francisco. He will send the Yanigans back here Sunday for a second game with Madera. Steen and Murray are Portland's battery today, while Guyon will pitch for Madera.

OREGON BASEBALL SQUAD WORKS OUT

Coach Kelly Reads Curtain Lecture on Early Training for Diamond.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal) University of Oregon, Eugene, March 23.—Coach "Father Tom" Kelly and Trainer Hayward lined up the squad of 40 baseball men last night and read them a curtain lecture on training. Heretofore baseball men have never had strict training rules imposed, but coach and trainer propose to change all this and from now on the ball tossers will be watched as closely as track or football men.

AGGIE GRAPPLERS READY FOR SEATTLE

Washington Coming Strong in Endeavor to Wipe Out Defeat Last Year.

Corvallis, Or., March 23.—The indoor athletic season will wind up early in April when the University of Washington sends its team of grapplers to wrest the conference championship honors from Oregon Agricultural college's husky team.

ALTIZER HAS BOOST FOR C. ARMBRUSTER

Former White Sox Speed Marvel Says Dutch Will Be Best Backstop.

"Let me tell you something," chimed in Duvo Altizer, the ex-Chicago White Sox fielder, who is visiting in Portland en route to join Minneapolis of the American association, during a morning here in Fielder Jones' office this morning.

MIND'S EYE VIEW OF BATTLE GROUND

Every Seat in Great Arena Will Be Reserved for the Big Fight.

San Francisco, March 22.—With the first plans for the big arena at Emeryville now laid out by the architects, the gigantic undertaking by the firm of Rickard and Gleason can best be pictured in mind. The arena as it is now planned on paper will be the greatest amphitheatre known to the history of modern ring gladiators.

Cuts Down Lead

Cambridge made a final spurt near the half way point and succeeded in cutting down Oxford's length and a half lead to an even boat length.

River Banks Lined

The river was lined on both banks throughout the entire race, and one-half miles of the course with thousands of shrieking enthusiasts who shouted the names of their favorite eight and waved the colors of the respective universities—dark blue for Oxford, light blue for Cambridge.

Williams Lacked Magnetism

Most spectators held that Captain E. G. Williams of the cantabrigia, who pulled No. 4, should himself have stroked the Cambridge boat. Even Williams obviously lacked the magnetism of his predecessor, D. C. R. Stuart, the idol of the rowing world.

Clegymen Protested

River-side clergymen protested vehemently at the holding of the present season's races in Holy Week and did their best to persuade the authorities to interfere and change the date.

Stanfield Leads League

Hermiston, on March 22, at the opening of the new ball grounds at Hermiston Sunday, in a game played between Echo and Hermiston, the home team lost by the close score of 4 to 3.

Banquet at Garden Home

The Garden Home Improvement club was tendered a banquet last night during the course of its regular meeting in Jaeger's hall, by the Ladies' Aid society of Garden Home.

Table with 2 columns: Name and Score. Stanfield 1000, Echo 500, Hermiston 500, Umattia 500.

Prospects Very Good

With Coach Kelly's advent and the large number of candidates out baseball prospects were never better. From 45 to 50 men are turning out every day and competition for places is keen.

Outfield Candidates are Numerous

Outfield candidates are numerous. Captain Clarke will probably play center.

Casey is Hitting Like a Demon

Casey is hitting like a demon, and if he keeps up his present stride will lead the Beavers in the hitting line.

Steen is Showing a Lot of Improvement

Steen is showing a lot of improvement over his last year's work. He is even better before and McCredie likes the way he is taking hold.

CHIMMIE'S COLUMN

A small chap was heard to remark that 18 weeks of baseball out of 52 was not so "worst."

Jimmie Austin, the clever bantam who boxed Jimmie Carroll the other evening, has been offered a 20 round go with Jimmie Royal at Oxnard, Cal., about the middle of April, and will accept it.

Danny O'Brien has been matched to box Jimmie Fitten, the hard-hitting lightweight from San Francisco, before the Oregon Athletic club's smoker the end of this month.

James Coffroth, the San Francisco fight promoter, will build an arena capable of seating 15,000 people at Pacific and Market streets, which he will use in conjunction with his Colma arena.

Min M. Starks, who played nearly every position for the Pittsburg Nationals during the season of 1908, is dead at his home in Newton, Mass. He was 26 years of age.

They may talk about their good referees, but they do not want to overlook our own Jack Gray. The writer has seen them all perform and can truthfully say that they have nothing on Jack.

Ralph Willis, who figured to be one of the mainstays for the Seals, is suffering from an attack of blood poisoning and is all bunked up.

"Plane Legs" Pernell pitched a beautiful game of ball for Detroit at San Antonio last week, beating the latter team, 2 to 1. He allowed them four scratchy hits. Keep up the good work.

The Yankees may try Harry Walters in the outfield this year. He is some better and will make good.

"Slim" Nelson, the human barber pole of the Commodores, is in great form, and can be depended on to pitch the game of his life.

"Cyclone Johnny" Thompson and Battling Nelson may meet in San Francisco, say a few days previous to the Jeffries-Johnson go.

Mei Moffitt, who manages the Oakland Wheelman club, is certainly making some good matches, and is giving the Edison club managers a hard run for their money.

Billy Smallham, the featherweight, who was at one time eligible for the championship of the world, received a drubbing at the hands of Frankie Burns in San Francisco last Friday evening. Every clamp has his day.

Stanley Ketchel has signed to meet Jimmy Howard at Pittsburg on April 6. He is doing a lot of signing, and that's all.

Tim Sullivan, the Jeffries-Johnson stakeholder, is having a hard time explaining matters regarding the squareness of the coming big scrap.

Jim Hogan, the former Yale football champion, died at New Haven, Conn., last Saturday. Death was due to nephritis.

A special train consisting of five or more cars will leave New Orleans June 28, bound for San Francisco, and will carry the light fans to the Bay City scrap. What a time!

Eddie O'Connell, the local wrestler, is the target for about a dozen challenges from would-be champs. Let them come and grab off the best.

There is no use in arguing about it—Dan Ryan is a demon when it comes to flinging them over.

Just think of the way those Beavers are rounding to. It's enough to give one an appetite for six square meals a day.

Joe Carroll, who boxed Frankie Edwards Monday evening, left for his home in Salinas, Cal., last evening on the Shasta limited. Jimmie (Silver) Carroll leaves tonight for San Francisco.

Tom Seaton had an off day, allowing the Yanigans five hits in one inning. That's a bad start, Tom.

"Pretzel" Netzel secured a home run off Chimmie. If you do that in the big game, there will be nothing too good for you in Portland. Keep up the good work.

Low Powell has been matched to fight George Monte at Oakland about the fifteenth of April. This should prove some scrap, as both boys have met before. Powell securing a newspaper decision.

There is no boy in the world that can hang it on Willie Jimmie Austin at 105 pounds. He is to small a lad to mix with those 115 pounders.

The card announced by the Oregon Athletic club for their monthly smoker is certainly a poppin, and should draw some home.

Jackey Bennett, together with Jack Lossdale and Denny O'Brien, are training each afternoon at Tracey's, and some hot milling is witnessed by those that attend.

Portland will play the Madera "Coyotes" at Madera today, provided that rain does not interfere.

The Beavers finish their junketing trip at Fresno and then beat it for San Francisco, where the big thing comes off next week.
