

WILLIE'S PAPA TRIES HIS NEW ROWING MACHINE

DEAR TOMMY: This is an exerciser I made for papa. You have to keep the oars in the water to prevent the spring from snapping the seat back too quickly. It showed him how with Yours, etc. WILLIE.

JINGLING JOHNSON LETS OUT A FEW LINES ON SPRING AND LEMONS

SPRING FLOWERS ARE HERE, SO LET US SEEK THE VIOLETS AND ROSES. THE COLORS WILL DELIGHT OUR EYES THE SCENT WILL PLEASE OUR NOSES.

I GUESS WE MIGHT AS WELL GO. THE LANDLORD WILL BE ALONG SOON FOR THE RENT!

THE ONION IS A NOBLE BIRD BUT CANNOT WARBLE SWEETLY. THOUGH WHEN YOU COOK HIM IN A STEW, HE FLAVORS IT COMPLETELY.

HA! I SEE A MAID WITH A PAIL OF MILK!

THE DAISY REARS ITS PETALS WHITE, UPON A FIELD OF YELLOW 'T WOULD LOOK WELL NEATH A MILKMAID'S CHIN - SO COMFORTING AND MELLOW. SQUEE?

GET OUT OF MY WAY, YOU LOON!

A WISE MAN ALWAYS CARRIES A HOSE!

THE DANDELION - LION'S TOOTH - SO TASTY IN A SALAD. OH, WEAR THIS, PRETTY MILKMAID, AND I'LL SING TO THEE A BALLAD.

THIEF!

WOMEN ARE SO CAPRICIOUS!

INGRATITUDE, A POISON WEED - ITS GROWTH IS MOST CONTAGIOUS. IT FOSTERS IN A FEMALE'S MIND, IN MANNER MOST OUTRAGEOUS.

TAKE THAT YOU WRETCH!

HERE COMES THE KEEPERS!

THE LEMON, ALTHOUGH AS A FLOWER, IN BOTANY NOT BRANDED, IT IS A MARK OF DISRESPECT, WHEN TO A POET HANDED.

MERRY CHRISTMAS!

I'M GETTING SO I DON'T LIKE THIS PLACE!
