

SCOBEEY GONE TO OTHER WORLD

Former Editor and Politician Passes Away at Home in Portland.

J. O'B. Scobeey.

J. O'B. Scobeey dies at his home, 230 Nineteenth street, North, yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock after having been ill with Bright's disease and rheumatism since March 25. Since that time Mr. Scobeey had been confined to his bed.

Mr. Scobeey was well known in Portland among the legal fraternity, being a member of the law firm of Moulton & Scobee, and in addition, was one of the most successful men in realty operations in the city. Before coming to Portland he was well known in Washington politics, being known there as "the stormy petrel." It was he who was largely responsible for the election of John L. Wilson to the United States senate in 1896, when as leader of the "memorable seven," he maintained that Wilson interests could rally on the last night for the election of Wilson, even after Wilson himself had gone to Seattle and his headquarters at Olympia had been abandoned.

Receiver of Land Office. As a result of this work Scobeey was given the appointment as receiver of the United States land office by McKinley in 1897 and was reappointed by Roosevelt in March, 1902. He held this position until the spring of 1906, when he resigned to move to Portland.

Mr. Scobeey was always a strong Republican and during his residence in Washington was twice a leading candidate for the Republican nomination for governor. In the conventions of 1898 and 1899 he was the leading candidate but was defeated for the nomination by a sudden switch in the party program.

Soon after his arrival in Portland Mr. Scobeey became interested in some of the Portland realty and was very successful. He was one of the men who brought about the adjustment of the affairs of the Title Guaranty & Trust company by which the depositors of that institution were insured recompense for their losses.

Born in New York. Mr. Scobeey was born in Summit, New York, July 8, 1854, his father, Z. B. Scobee, being one of the leading Methodist ministers of the state. Mr. Scobeey graduated from Upper Iowa university in 1874. He studied law at Corning, Iowa. For a time he was engaged in newspaper work in Iowa, and then moved to Brookings, S. D., where he became a member of the law firm of Matthews and Scobee. He was elected to the legislature of the territory of Dakota and took a leading part in the location of the state capital.

He was elected speaker of the house of delegates and largely through his efforts secured the establishment of the Agricultural college at Brookings. Mr. Scobeey was married while living at Brookings to Miss Myrtle E. Walker, November 21, 1880. Leaving Brookings, Mr. Scobeey moved to Chicago in 1885, where he was in the newspaper business until 1887, when he moved to Pullman, Wash., and was for some time one of the professors of the agricultural college there.

Editor of Paper. In 1893 Mr. Scobeey and his family moved to Olympia where he became the editor of the Morning Olympian. Mr. Scobeey was a past master of the Masonic order, a Knight Templar and a Huron. He was also a member of the Woodmen of the World, the Modern Woodmen and several other secret and fraternal orders. He leaves a widow and four children, Misses Bess and Willis Scobee, Arthur M. Scobee of Los Angeles, and Helen.

The remains will be taken to Olympia at 7 a. m. Friday. Services will be held in the Olympia Methodist Episcopal church at 3 p. m. Friday, under Masonic auspices. Friends may view the remains at the family residence from 1 o'clock this afternoon until 8 o'clock to-night.

PLUCKS FULL BLOWN GLORIA DE DIJON ROSE AS THIRD THIS SEASON

J. W. Foster brought to the Journal office this morning a full blown Gloria de Dijon rose, which was plucked in his yard, 119 Gibbs street, South Portland, yesterday. This was the third full grown rose cut from the same bush this season. The Gloria de Dijon is a climber, several varieties of which bloom earlier than any of the bush or tree roses.

AT THE THEATRES

Classy Musical Act. As fine a musical act as has been played in a local vaudeville house is the team of Newell and Niblo, at the Grand this week. The act has created a sensation and is superbly dressed. The Italian troupe of acrobatic girls have established themselves in popularity.

"All the Comforts of Home." The favorite comedian, William Dill, is making one of his biggest local hits this week in the famous Gillette comedy, "All the Comforts of Home," at the Baker. He is the henpecked husband of a hard faced, domineering wife, and he needs watching, too.

Saxophone Artists at Pantages. Critics declare that the Roma Saxophone Quartet, appearing at Pantages this week, is one of the very best organizations of its kind ever presented in Portland vaudeville. The selections are widely diversified in character.

TOWN TOPICS.

Three Thousand Dollar Banquet. Theodore Kruse, proprietor of the Louvre, and until recently "mimo host" at Garbhart Park, entertained 34 friends in the rathskeller at the Louvre last night with what was probably the most sumptuous and elaborate banquet ever served on the Pacific coast, and in point of cost it was one of the most expensive affairs of which there is any record. Besides Mr. Kruse, the following were present: George M. Hyland, toastmaster; E. W. Foster, assistant toastmaster; Chief of Police Cox; Ira F. Powers, W. C. North, R. W. Wilson, Edward Jackson, Edwin Caswell, B. D. Sigler, Russ E. Sewall, John H. Beall, J. H. Rogers, Edward Newberg, George Kaufmann. Covers were laid for 35, and it is estimated that each plate cost $300. Large quantities of the finest cut flowers to be had lined and banded the banquet room, the coolest china silver and cut glass ware used, and the table was covered with a piece of Irish point lace, worth in itself a fortune. The dinner was served in 10 courses, each course being accompanied with the finest and rarest vintages of imported wine, the occasion of the feast was an agreement made between Mr. Kruse

Don't Be Bald Almost Any One May Secure a Splendid Growth of Hair.

You can easily find out for yourself if your hair needs nourishment, if it is thinning, getting dry, harsh and brittle, or splitting at the ends. You simply have to pull a hair from the top of your head and closely examine its root. If the bulb is plump and rosy it is all right; if it is white and shrunken your hair is diseased and needs nourishment. We have a remedy for hair troubles that cannot be surpassed. It has a record of growing hair and curing baldness in 25 out of 100 cases where used according to directions for a reasonable length of time. It will even grow hair on bald heads; if the scalp is not grazed and shiny. That may seem like a strong statement—it is, and we mean it to be, and no one should doubt it until they have put our claims to an actual test. We are so sure that Rexall "33" Hair Tonic will completely eradicate dandruff, prevent baldness, stimulate the scalp and hair roots, stop falling hair and grow new hair, that we personally give our positive guarantee to refund every penny paid us for Rexall "33" Hair Tonic in every instance where it does not do as we claim or fails to give entire satisfaction to the user. Rexall "33" Hair Tonic is as pleasant to use as clear spring water. It is perfumed with a pleasant odor, and does not grease or gum the hair. We have it in two sizes, prices 50 cents and $1.00. and his guests that he would devote all over $300,000 received by him for his Garbhart Park property in giving a dinner. As Mr. Kruse was paid $203,000 for his beach property, he fulfilled his promise by serving a $3000 banquet.

Laurelhurst

The Addition with Character

The most essential points to consider when purchasing real estate for home or investment:

First—DEVELOPMENT. Is the property being highly developed? Will it have all improvements and are they being put in by the city? Laurelhurst is being developed right. The improvements in Laurelhurst are being put in by the city NOW. You pay for improvements in Laurelhurst as you use them and not before you get them.

Second—CAR SERVICE. Has the property car service NOW? Laurelhurst has all the necessary car service for years to come, for it is served by four of the best lines in the city. They are in operation NOW.

Third—PROXIMITY. Is the property close in? No one can ever criticize Laurelhurst for being too far out. If there could be an objection along this line it could only be that it is too close in.

Fourth—WHAT ARE THE RESTRICTIONS? The building restrictions in Laurelhurst are of the right kind. Nothing but high class dwellings are allowed to be erected in the entire Laurelhurst.

See Laurelhurst now. Take Rose City Park or Montavilla cars. Both lines run direct to the property. The Sunnyside and Mount Tabor lines serve the southerly portion. Get off at East 39th street and walk three blocks north to the property. Or call at our office and let us tell you more of Laurelhurst. We will then show you the property in our automobiles.
