"Get Together" Banquet.—A "get together" banquet will be held by the Portland Realty board on the evening of Saturday, April 23, at 6 o'clock in the main dining room of the Commercial club, at which interesting and instructive speeches will be made by members of the board and invited guests. President Killingsworth will open the exercises by his long expected address on "Portland 25 years hence, and some impressions gained during a recent seven day trip." Ben Riesland will also speak on "My impressions of the future of Portland," to be followed by C. C. Chapman, the advertising man, who will have his say about "Best methods of real estate advertising." Other speakers who are expected to address the meeting are D. E. Keasey, W. A. Spanton and A. H. Birrell. It will be altogether an informal affair, will adjourn early, and each participant will pay for his own dinner, which will be $1 per plate.

Denounce Pitfalls.—At the fourth quarterly rally of the Epworth league of the Portland district, all the pitfalls of sin came in for a vigorous drubbing by the speakers. The public dance hall, saloon, joy riding, and roadhouses were characterized as dangerous pastimes. Chief of Police Cox was one of the speakers. He bitterly denounced each of the places. William H. Warren, president of the league, presided at the session. Music was furnished by Webber's Juvenile orchestra and Earl S. Abbott and Miss Laura Ferguson.

C. W. C. T. U. Meeting—Mrs. C. S. Badgley conducted a Bible reading, which was very helpful, at central W. C. T. U. Wednesday afternoon. A letter was read from Mrs. Margaret Wintringer relating to the work among the children. Mrs. Ponnay announced two medal contests in the near future. It was announced that an institute will be held Friday, May 6, at the Friends church, East Thirty-sixth and Main streets. Next week a song and social service, preceded by a Bible reading.

Blessing of New Catholic Church.—Sunday, May 8, Archbishop Christie will bless the new Catholic church at Cornelius, and will also be the speaker of the day. Clergymen from all over the state will be in attendance, and it promises to be one of the greatest events Cornelius has known. The church is not a large structure, but it is finished and decorated completely and reflects much credit upon the little city.

Penney Bros.' Friday Special.—$2.00 grade of Port, Sherry, Tokay, Angelica or Muscat wine at $1.00 per gallon; $1.50 grade Port or Sherry at 75c per gallon; eight year old straight Kentucky Whiskey, regular $4.50 at $3.50 per gallon; Kentucky Bourbon or Rye, regular $4.00, at $2.60 per gallon; Invalid Port, regular $2.50, at $1.25 per gallon. Friday only. 379-381 E. Morrison street. Phones East 287, B-2426. Free delivery.

Auto Turns Over.—An automobile driven by Joseph Thompson turned turtle this morning at 5 o'clock at Washington and Twenty-first streets. The driver was caught underneath the machine, but not injured. Others in the car were Harry Zeno, Frank Nole, Michael Lyons, Jack Francis and Samuel Bennett. The auto ran into a pile of dirt in the street.

Special Friday Only.—Don't be deceived. We sell absolutely pure wines and liquors. $1.50 quality port, sherry, angelica and muscatel wine, 75c per gallon; $4 rye or Bourbon whiskey, $2.75 per gallon; $4 brandy, $2.75 per gallon; $4 rum, $2.75 per gallon. National Wine Co., Fifth and Stark. Phone Main 6499, Home A-4499. Delivered.

Ballplayers Break Glass.—A window was broken yesterday evening in the home of Mrs. Georgia Mitchell, 53 Jessup street, from a baseball being thrown from a vacant lot. A ball team from the Jefferson High school was playing in the lot. The players ran when the window was smashed.

To Establish Bank—J. G. Loucks of Port Orford, Or., was in Portland yesterday completing arrangements for the establishment of a bank at Port Orford May 1. This will be the first bank to be established in Curry county. Port Orford is isolated as yet, but as the country is well adapted for fruit raising it is expected that it will soon begin to develop.

Shakespeare's Anniversary — The Shakespeare Study club of Portland will celebrate the poet's birth on next Saturday evening, April 23, at the Y. W. C. A., Seventh and Taylor streets. A musical and literary program from the plays will be given. Admission is free and the public is cordially invited.

For Violating Game Laws — On a charge of violating the state game laws, S. Marovich and Stephen Maynovich, proprietors of a fish market at East Water and Morrison streets, have been arrested and will be given a hearing in the justice court. Deputy Fish Wardens Rathbun and Donahue caught the two men Monday shortly after midnight in the river near Fulton. The two fishermen were using a net, and had several fish in their boat.

School Methods—An exposition of public school methods will be given at the reception to be held in the Eliot school, Knott and Rodney, Friday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock. Of special interest will be the drawing exhibit, which is all prepared and which will be sent to the western division of the drawing supervisors at Minneapolis. This is the only opportunity there will be to see the exhibit before it is sent away.

Exhibition of Fine Art.—The art lovers of Portland will be afforded an opportunity to see a very handsome painting, which represents no small investment. This painting is by Mulldorfer, the country's foremost artist, and will be on exhibition Friday, Saturday and Sunday at Rebe's confectionery store, 310 Washington street. The exhibition is free to all.

Lecture by Alderman—Professor L. R. Alderman, who occupies the chair of pedagogy in the University of Oregon, will deliver an address on "The Attitude of the School Toward the Home" at the Y. W. C. A. auditorium Friday evening. A cordial invitation is extended to all and it is especially desired that as many as possible of the teachers hear the talk.

Union Missionary Prayer Meeting—The churches of all denominations will gather at the First Congregational church this evening for a union prayer service. This is the final meeting of the Laymen's Missionary movement. Reports from the various churches will be heard on the missionary fund raised thus far.

Inventors' Meeting—The American Order of Inventors will meet tonight on the third floor of the Goodnough building to formulate plans for the extension of the order which was organized last week. The general plan is to use the wireless and wire telegraph in organizing branches in other cities.

Women's Press Club.—A meeting of the State Women's Press club will be held Saturday evening, April 23, at the Richardson apartments, Market and Fourteenth streets. The meeting has been called by the chairman of the special study committee.

SOMETHING SPECIAL EVERY DAY

STATE TO GO DRY, SAYS MINISTER

Rev. W. S. Gilbert Makes Prediction in Report Submitted to Presbyterian Meeting.

A busy year's work is projected by the Portland Presbytery. Churches are to be built at Montavilla and O'Ranco. Other work commenced during the past year is to be completed. An encouraging condition of growth and prosperity was made evident in the reports made yesterday at the meeting of Presbytery in the Piedmont Presbyterian church. Greater expenditures along all lines were authorized for the coming year. In an address at the morning session Rev. John Welch deplored the tendency of rural residents to move into the more congested centers.

Needed in Country.

The country people are more needed where they are, he said, and their lives would be longer, their vitality greater, and higher standards of physical and mental strength maintained, if they remain away from devitalizing influences. Vernon church was recommended in the report of Rev. E. M. Sharp, for having become self supporting, and Rose City Park church was complimented for having become self supporting from its beginning.

The coming of Rev. Robert McLean, an Auburn, N. Y., student, to become pastor of the Anabel mission in June was reported. The receipt of 80 acres of land given for an orphanage by Samuel Miller of St. Johns German church in Clackamas county was acknowledged.

Appropriations Made.

Appropriations for the help of needy churches were made as follows: Nestucca, $640; Alderbrook, $804; Tillamook and Bay City, $400; Kenilworth and Trinity, $400; Millard avenue and Anabel, $200; Reedville and Orenoca, $150; St. John German, $50; Hope, Montavilla, $450; Tulatin Plains, $50; Buxton, $600.

The report of Rev. Thomas Walker on Sunday school work showed that the work of Rev. J. R. Diven, missionary, was resulting in increased membership. Dinner was served at noon in the basement of the church by the ladies of Piedmont church. John Patterson, Rev. J. B. Seely, and Rev. J. E. Snyder made remarks. In his report on temperance Rev. W. S. Gilbert predicted that Oregon would go dry this fall.

Special Friday Only—Don't be deceived. We sell absolutely pure wines and liquors. $1.50 quality port, sherry, angelica and muscatel wine, 75c per gallon; $4 rye or Bourbon whiskey, $2.75 per gallon; $4 brandy, $2.75 per gallon; $4 rum, $2.75 per gallon. National Wine Co., Fifth and Stark. Phone Main 6499, Home A-4499. Delivered.

All Spring Coats and Jackets 1/3 Off Take Advantage

They Came—They Saw—They Purchased
And So Will You, for Values Here Are Marvelous

The very atmosphere of the store radiates value giving—the kind of value giving that is of interest to every intelligent, economical woman. These days when it is necessary to get the fullest value for one's dollar, the great $100,000 purchase of high-grade women's wearing apparel, bought at 50 cents on the dollar, enables us to announce these wonderful sensational values for Friday and Saturday:—

Greatest Offering of Pongee Silk and Foulard Dresses and Gowns We Have Ever Made

500 Exquisite Garments — $16.95 Each — Values Up to $45.00 Each

Magnificent New Styles for Street, Reception, Dinner, Theatre and Party Wear.

Not One Worth Less Than $30.00. Most of Them Worth $40.00 to $45.00.

The largest, the most important, the best purchase of silk dresses and costumes ever made by this or any other Portland store. A sale supreme in value-giving, in style-giving, in beauty and richness of materials, in varieties; 500 of the most beautiful Pongee and Silk Foulard Dresses, made up this season, secured for spot cash from a leading Fifth-avenue (New York) maker who was forced to accept less than half their real value to raise money quickly. We could have put the garments into our stocks and readily sold them at the regular price, $35.00 and $45.00 (a few only worth as little as $30.00). Some elaborately trimmed with braiding, laces, Persian and gold trimmings. Princess and belt effect styles, with pleated or tunic skirts. Imagine then, if you can, what extraordinary, unheard-of values they must be at the sale price for Friday and Saturday $16.95

$12.75 For Women's Suits Worth Up to $30

Without fear of contradiction we announce these to be the lowest priced suits in Portland. And they are the best values besides. Sizes for women and misses made of such desirable fabrics as Serge, Worsted, Cheviot and Diagonals, with newest 32-inch jackets, lined with guaranteed satin.

Hundreds of New Waists
$3.50 Values $1.49

New Waists in abundance—dozens of styles to select from at a price that is ridiculously low for such fine merchandise. Don't judge the Waists by the quoted price, for every one is worth more than we ask. Come and see them. They're all just as pretty as pictured, and the materials are much better than you'd expect for such little money. Shrewd buyers will purchase a season's supply.

Special for Friday and Saturday Only $1.49

GRAND FORMAL OPENING
New Electric Building
CORNER SEVENTH AND ALDER STREETS,
SATURDAY AFTERNOON AND EVENING
April 23, 1910
RECEPTION HOURS, 2:30 TO 4:30; 8 TO 10.

The people of Portland and vicinity are cordially invited to visit the magnificent new office building and inspect the home of the company. Heads of departments of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company will be in charge of receiving visitors and escorting them through the building.

Good music will be rendered by the Electric Orchestra on the fourth floor, and bands also will play on the first and fifth floors during reception hours.

The entire building interior will be beautifully decorated with plants and flowers, and brilliantly illuminated.

Light refreshments will be provided for lady visitors, who will be made especially welcome. Cigars for the men visitors.

Demonstrations given on the first floor of electrical housekeeping appliances, including cooking and baking.

This building is pronounced one of the handsomest and most conveniently arranged in the country, and gives to Portland the leading public service structure of the country.

Citizens should embrace this opportunity to examine into the internal workings of a big corporation.

Obviously, small children are not expected, owing to danger attending their presence in a large crowd.
