Will Give Musical—This evening at 8 o'clock in the lower temple of the White Temple Baptist church the Bersans and Knights of the Temple, two organized Bible classes for young men and women in the church will give a musical and literary program. The lower temple will be prettily decorated and the proceeds will be used for the benefit of the two classes. The first part of the program will be made up of a piano solo by Miss Grace Vogler; vocal solo by William La; a tableau, "The Old Sweetheart," made true to life; a reading by Miss Burnside Robertson; and one by Miss Rose Goad. The second part will be given over to the playing of a comic diorama called "A Case of Suspicion."

Wanted—Baby Carriages—Two second-hand baby carriages could be placed to excellent advantage by the Peoples Institute with mothers who have urgent need of them. One of the women has a child 2 years old and a sick baby of several months. She has no way to place the baby out on the porch in the fresh air and sunshine except to lay it on two chairs. The other mother is a working woman who has to carry a big six-month-old baby to the day nursery every morning before she can go to her work, and then carry it home after her day's work is done. Any one wishing to supply these needs may telephone the Peoples Institute.

Disorderly Women Arrested—Eight women of the underworld were arrested last evening. The names given were Irene Turner, 274 1/2 Burnside; Jennie Johnson, 357 Third street; Lucy Delaparia, 269 1/2 Burnside; Anna Foster, Third and Main streets; Grace Woods, Second and Main; Rose Smith, Anna Gray and Hilda Smith, 91 1/2 Fourth street. Their cases were set for hearing Saturday in the municipal court.

Has Session With Footpad—Ernest Olson, employed at the Grand hotel, met a holdup man last midnight at Yamhill and Park streets, who relieved him of his watch and $12. The highwayman used a gun. He is described as being about 35 years old and weighing 140 pounds. After taking the valuable of Olson he told him to hustle to bed and keep still.

Thrown Down Stairs—When George Lewis, a grocer at 214 Mississippi avenue went to the home of Earl J. Breslay, 503 Mississippi avenue, yesterday evening to collect a bill, he was pitched down the stairway and sustained a serious injury. Lewis caused the arrest of the man. He further charges Breslay with attempting to use a knife.

Chinese Lottery Seized—A full-fledged Chinese lottery game was found by the police last evening at First and Taylor streets. Charles Tong was arrested for conducting the game. Samuel Montgomery was arrested for visiting the place. The case will be heard in the municipal court Saturday.

Brooklyn School Alumni—The Brooklyn School Alumni association will hold its regular meeting tonight in the Brooklyn schoolhouse. An interesting program has been arranged for the occasion. All members are urged to attend.
