

Ball Till Ninth-Terrific Clouts in Twelfth.

(Spreis Dispetch to The Journal.)
Los Angeles, May 14.—After Tom Scaton had pitched faultless ball for eight innings, he suddenly lost his grip in the ninth yesterday, when the Anin the ninth yesterday, when the Angels made three runs, tying the score and it took all the skill of Bill Steen and the war clubs of the northerners to win the game back in the twelfth, 5 to 4. It was the third successive victory for the Beavers and the Angel crew is in the dumps over their inability to trim the Mackmen. Seaton's pitching feat drew him the plaudits of the fans. Until the eighth inning he allowed but one hit, and in seven innings buf 31 men faced him, not a innings buf 21 men faced him, not a one reaching first base and eight fan-

Portland scored first when the visi tors put over two runs in the third inning, Rapps singling and Speas sac-rificing. Then Seaton walked and Casey fouled out to Roth. Olson hit out a double in the pinch and Rapps and

HIGH SCHOOL TRACK MEETING HELD MAY 2

Friday, May 27, has been definitely settled on as the date for the annual omah field. In order to pull the meet off on Friday it will be necessary to cut out the state championship scholastic met at Corvallis the next day.

Last fall the schools decided to hold the meet May 28, but inasmuch as the Corvallis college subsequently fixed on May 28 as the date for the state meet, the local school concluded on a post-ponement. However, this was impracticable, in view of the fact that the Multnoman club needed the field for the preliminary work of the society circus to be held during the Rose Festival.
