

SKATERS WHO BEGIN SIX DAY RACE IN EXPO RINK

All that awaits the starting of the six-day skating race at the Exposition rink this evening is the crack of the pistol. The dozen or more speed marvels are anxiously awaiting the signal that starts them on the fast grind for 80 minutes each evening.

Fay of San Francisco surprised the fans who were at the rink this morning by the way he shot around the floor in warming up. There were a number of local skaters going around when Fay cut loose with his speed and left them a good distance behind.

ing and worked out this morning in an endeavor to loosen up the kinks in his legs. The local skaters have been working out in the rink for the last month getting into condition for the big event, which promises to eclipse all others held in the northwest. The races start at 8:30 o'clock and continue for 30 minutes each evening.

STOCK BROKERS ARE SUSPENDED FOR YEAR

ATHLETES ENTERED FOR SCHOOL'S MEET

Championship for Season on Track Will Be Settled Saturday Afternoon. With all the entries in for the big interscholastic track meet Saturday, the athletes have nothing to do now but wait for the decisive day.

CHIMMIE'S COLUMN

Rah! Rah! Rah! We made it two straight by beating Sacramento yesterday. There was some basting in the seventh inning and allow me to inform you gentle readers that it looked as if the Senators had our "goat" until Mr. William Rapps, our nifty first baseman, came through with a double scoring both Helling and Fisher.
