Three widely scattered hits were all that Gene Krapp, McCredie's smallest slabster, allowed the Oaks yesterday. By Max Balthasar. San Francisco, May 28 .- Jim Jeffries. which coupled with some mighty claver base running by Ivor Olson and Billy Spens, gave Portland a 3 to p victory. Incidentally it was the first same Krapp atic and ever undertaken. This is the answer to the eastern skephas won on the home grounds, his mater throwing him down on several occasion when he allowed the visiting team least than five hits to a game. In one game he lost after permitting but two scattared bingles. Dison was fast as a bullet on his feet and scored the first two runs from sec-ond base on short singles, the first time on Hetling's hit and the second on Rapps' rap. This was one of the feat-ures of the game. Another time Spea-went from first to third on a sacrifice by Casey training. Worked With Full Heart. by Casey. But this is the way the scoring oc-curred: With two down in the fifth Oison singled and stole second. Hetling slammed the ball across second base and Ivor sprinted home. Ivor sprinted home. In the seventh inning after Smith filed to Perry, Olson reached second on Shinn's error, an overthrow of first on the shortstop's grounder. Hetling walked and Fisher fouled to Darringer. Then Rapps cracked Whalen on the shin and the ball shied away from the Solonic infield Olson eccuring all the way around infield, Olson coming all the way around at breack neck speed. No Senafor got farther than second base. Krapp also pulled off a fielding stunt with Rapps that made the fans come to their toes. Raymer bounced the ball off Krapp's foot and it did a right angle Pal Moore, the New York Boy, Who Trimmed Jem Driscoll of England off Krapp's foot, and it did a right angle toward right field. They evidently base their conclusions on the fact that his sparring partners are old men, and to the further fact that Jeffries has been preparing himself ever since March, 1909, and that for the past three months he has been in a grind of

There has been no half heartedness about his training. He has thrown every ounce of energy into his work, and the result has startled his most ardent ad-mirers. Today there is hardly an ounce of superfluous flesh on his gigantic frame. The fat he carried for the four and a half years following his battle with Jack Munroe has not been torn off in a hurry. It came off gradually and easily, under expert medical advice. Going back to the time when the big fellow decided to reenter the ring because the white race demanded it, what did Jeffries do? He cut out cigarettes and wine the moment he announced his determination to fight Johnson. He began to take light exercise, after hav-ing had himself examined by physicians, and with their advice and his own knowledge of training he laid out a perfect system of work while touring the country in vaudeville.

But mere exercising was not his sole effort to get into shape. His system needed renovation, and on the advice of physicians he went to Carlsbad and took the waters with as much system as the goutiest patient. While there much of his gross flesh was taken off. His imappearance was freely com proved mented upon, and the eastern critics were practically unanimous in the belief that Jeffries was coming back.

Another theatrical tour followed, but he did not drop training. Skipping the rope, punching the bag, boxing and road work put him in such shape that when he arrived in San Francisco he could have plunged into the hardest kind of Nelson ran the quarter in 492-5 sec-onds, clipping one-fifth of a second off the coast record. Nelson had just fin-ished the 100 and 220 yard dashes, which he won. A dog nipped at him along the stretch and seriously interfered with his running.

Stockey, the former coast champion in the two-mile at 10:10, succumbed to the great pace set by McGuire, who reeled off the distance in 10:05. Nell flung the javelin 148½ feet, breaking the record of 148½ set by Dresser of Whitman.
