

RECALLS DAYS OF DEER, ELK, WOLVES

Pioneer Relates an Experience With Ferocious Animals in So. Oregon Years Ago.

"The people of today cannot conceive how all these hills once abounded with deer and elk and timber wolves till you could not count 'em," said William Walker, a pioneer of Oregon at the Imperial hotel today.

handcomely gown. The two hostesses were assisted by Mrs. J. H. Cook, Mrs. R. M. Tuttle, Mrs. Watson, Mrs. J. A. Applewhite, Mrs. B. Shuman, and Miss Annie Scott. Miss Karen Hansen and Miss Miriam Delano. In addition to the music, there was an interesting literary contest the first prize being won by Mrs. Dickinson, lately of Minneapolis, and the second by Mrs. R. H. Tate.

Miss Petronella Connelly, whose marriage to Elbert C. Peets will be an event of June 30, has been showered with attentions since the announcement of her engagement. Mrs. Carl Liebe gave her a stocking shower on Friday of last week. Mrs. Fred Jones gave a luncheon in her honor today. On Friday, Miss Clara Howell will entertain for her. Other hostesses who will compliment Miss Connelly with pretty affairs will be Miss Sallie Knapp, Mrs. Frank Hodson and Miss May Breslin.

Theodore B. Wilcox, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Claire Wilcox, who has been at Miss Spence's school in New York, and Mrs. W. C. Langfitt, the wife of Colonel Langfitt, who was stationed here for six years, arrived last night from New York. Mrs. Langfitt will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox for the summer. At present the Langfitts are stationed in Washington, D. C.

Miss Louise Burns and the Misses Evelyn and Alice Carey returned yesterday from New York. Miss Evelyn Carey and Miss Burns have been at Miss Spence's school in New York while Miss Alice Carey has been in Massachusetts, visiting with former school friends. Miss Alice was formerly a student at Dana Hall.

Mrs. David C. Lewis and the Misses Grace and Mildred Honeyman are expected home tomorrow from New York. The Misses Honeyman have been at Miss Finch's school in New York the past winter, while Mrs. Lewis has been the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Henry Fairbanks, in New York for several months.

Miss Madred Joeselyn and Benago Joeselyn, Jr. returned Monday from St. Louis, where they have been students at the Principia school. The Joeselyns are spending the summer in the McMaster home near the Golf Links.

Mrs. George A. Boyd and her two small daughters arrived yesterday from San Francisco and are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Allen Lewis. Mrs. Boyd is a sister of Mrs. Lewis. The Boyd estate is one of the most extensive in California, and Mrs. Boyd

THE STRANGER WITHIN OUR GATES

James Bryson, Fenner, Neb.—Five years ago a man came into our town, which has about 2000 people, and started a little store with about a $200 stock. He spent more money for advertising than any of the bigger stores and nearly went broke to the newspapers. I know that he mortgaged his stock to the printer. But that didn't bother him. Today he has the biggest store in the town and is still growing. Advertising is the stuff that pays dividends.

B. V. Valstyne, Bay Center, Wis.—I think I shall move away from Wisconsin. Three years ago I was burned out by a forest fire, two years ago a storm ruined my crop and this year I have been too ill to run my farm, so I am here looking for a location. I must say, from what little I have seen, that this is a mighty fine country.

Dan Dawson, Needles, Cal.—Nature never intended Needles for a place of habitation. If there is a hotter place on earth I want to see it once. I don't stay at Needles because I am contented there, but because my health is better there than anywhere else. Which disproves my assertion just made. But it is really true that for a "hunger" Needles offers mighty good inducements. A man doesn't care whether he dies or not, and that way he is happy there.

LEBANON WILL FETE ALBANY CITIZENS

Albany, Or., June 1.—Saturday, June 4, will be Albany day at the Lebanon strawberry fair. A special train with a 50 cent round trip rate will make the run, and a large number of Albany people will go to Lebanon to partake of choice free strawberries and cream.

Eastern Folk to Settle on Land. Eugene, Or., June 1.—A colony of 50 or 75 families from New York state and Pennsylvania will probably locate in the McKenna valley, near Eugene, this summer. J. A. Younggreen of Springfield has been promoting such a colonization scheme for some time, and announces that representatives of the families will arrive here within a few days to select places for settlement. There are 5000 acres available for this colony, along the McKenna, among the richest lands in the valley.

Marcola Mill Starts. (Special Dispatch to the Journal.) Eugene, Or., June 1.—The Southern Pacific company today started one of its sawmills at Marcola in operation after a shutdown of three years. The other two mills owned by the company in that vicinity will be started up as soon as they are in readiness, which will be inside of a few weeks. These mills, when operating to their full capacity, employ 300 or 400 men.

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

Recent visitors in Portland were George M. Farnsworth of New York and Colonel Howard Grigsby of London. Mr. Farnsworth is a capitalist who is heavily interested in foreign securities, and has considerable investments in California. He maintains a beautiful country place near Pasadena, and it is from this charming home that Mr. Farnsworth and Colonel Grigsby are making their way to Seattle and other sound points by automobile. Colonel Grigsby belongs to the military staff in India, and is a direct descendant of the Earl of Dunblain, known in the navy as Admiral Cochran. While here Mr. Farnsworth acquired an option on some attractive Portland property, and may build a summer home here.

Calvin R. Cady is expected in Portland about the tenth of this month to conduct a summer normal course at St. Helen's hall. This is the fifth summer that Mr. Cady has interested himself in summer work here, and with much pleasant anticipation that his announcement to return this summer is received. Mrs. Cady usually accompanies her husband, and they are made much of by the literary section of society during their stay. Mrs. Charles McCullough and Mrs. Richard Nunn will entertain the Cady's. It is not yet certain that Mrs. Cady will come.

Mrs. R. J. Dunham and Miss Ray Dunham returned last week from San Francisco on the Roanoke, which is captained by R. J. Dunham. Mrs. Dunham and her daughter have been in the southland for a year or more. Miss Dunham has been studying music in the University of the Pacific at San Jose. The Dunhams will be the guests of Mrs. C. M. Steffs until they move into their home on Willamette Heights. Miss Dunham brought her automobile with her, and is an expert driver.

Of interest to the artistically inclined in the exhibit of jewelry designed and made by Frank Gardner Hale to be shown in the Shop of Fine Arts and Industries this month. Mr. Hale has an enviable reputation as a designer. After graduating from the art school of the Boston Art Museum, he spent eight years in design work, and then two years in Europe in the study of metal work. A large consignment of necklaces and pins has already arrived. Dainty ladies' toilet racks and other pieces of old Sheffield silver, as well as the more recently made articles after the same idea, are attracting the attention of lovers of the unique in designing.

The State Women's Press club of Oregon will hold its last meeting for the year at the home of Mrs. H. M. Ogden, 130 East Sixteenth street, this evening at 8 o'clock. "Literary Work on Special Lines" will be the topic of the evening. Dr. Florence Manton, Mrs. L. B. Bartlett and Mrs. L. B. Smith will read papers and the discussion will be led by Mrs. Sarah Evans.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Ashley and their children, Wanda and Roscoe, will leave tomorrow morning for an eastern trip that will consume two months. A brief visit will be made in Seattle with Mrs. Ashley's sister, Mrs. G. H. Nottingham. Winnipeg, Chicago, Washington, Philadelphia, Boston, Cleveland, Denver and Salt Lake are some of the cities that will claim their time. In Cleveland, they will be the guests of Miss Mildred Watkins, who spent last summer at the Ashley home, and was identified with Arts and Crafts work here under the direction of Mrs. Lee Hoffman.

A quiet wedding took place at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, when Miss Marie C. Johnson and Earl W. Stevens were married at the home of the bride in Rose City Park. Mr. Stevens formerly had charge of the rental department of Hartman & Thompson, and is now engaged as a salesman for that company.

Mrs. R. L. Gillespie and Mrs. George S. Rogers were joint hostesses at a lawn party on the grounds of the Massachusetts building Tuesday afternoon. The day, the grounds and the views were all beautiful, and of the 30 women who were present, many were
