

MRS. DOXEY SAYS DOPE TO BLAME

Pleas Irresponsibility, While Denying Crime—Dr. Doxey Gave Her the Drug.

(United Press Lessed Wire.)
St. Louis, June 2.—Women fought and pulled hair today and mobbed the police in an effort to get into the courtroom where Mrs. Dora Doxey, on trial for the murder of William J. Eder, was expected to take the stand. The corridors were jammed long before the time for the trial and police were hurried to the courtroom to prevent disorder. The jam became so great that the police were forced to use strenuous measures before order could be restored.

The women endeavored to rush the benches and force their way into the courtroom. It was feared that some of them would be severely injured in the crush, but the officers finally forced the leaders back and the corridors were cleared.

Mrs. Doxey, who admits that she was married to Eder while at the same time the wife of Dr. Loren Doxey of Columbus, Neb., was expected to tell today the whole story of her relations with Eder. It was determined definitely yesterday that she would be put upon the stand in her own behalf, and the announcement of this decision brought the frenzied crowd of spectators to the courthouse.

Mrs. Doxey Says Dope Did It.
When Mrs. Doxey took the stand she told a pitiful story of the influence morphine had on her life. She admitted that she had become a victim of the drug and that Dr. Doxey, her husband, gave her morphine constantly. Morphine was blamed for the stories she told of mythical relatives from whom she expected great wealth through insurance policies in her favor.

Her father, she said, had pleaded with Dr. Doxey to stop giving her morphine, but the doses were increased and not decreased, until she was not responsible for her actions.

When she met Eder and went to live with him, she said, she was still under the influence of the drug. She had separated from her husband at that time, she said.

She denied vigorously that she had ever conspired to murder Eder for his insurance.

GILLETT SAYS ALL FIGHTS FAKES AND ALL FANS FOOLISH

son will make more money out of credulous fools.

"There was no chance to get Jeffries back into the ring until he had been assured that he would win. He does not need the money, and he had too much to lose and not enough to gain. Johnson has little to lose and the prospect of getting a lot of money."

"Suppose the fight is not a frame-up. What chance would Johnson have? None. He would knock himself out, if necessary, to avoid winning. This fight is to be a 'lead pipe cinch.' Undoubtedly it will be a fine sparring match, as that is necessary for the moving pictures."

"I would like to interfere if I could, but the only thing that would justify my interference is a riot. I do not think that will occur."

GLEASON AND JOHNSON SAY ALL ON THE LEVEL; CHURCH PEOPLE ACTIVE

San Francisco, June 2.—The stand taken by Governor Gillett against prize fighting is believed here to have been caused by the fact that the governor is receiving hundreds of telegrams and letters daily urging him to interfere with the Jeffries-Johnson fight.

Church organizations of the country, particularly in the east and middle west, have been sending him advice, resolutions and entreaties to take action in the California fight situation. The communications come from all parts of the world.

The governor faces another bombardment when he returns to California, for delegates on the Pacific coast are only awaiting his return to call on him.

A man who is leading the protest against the fight expressed the opinion that the communications are getting on the governor's nerves.

Church Federation Active.
The church federation this afternoon will hold an executive meeting to decide a course of action relative to the Jeffries-Johnson fight, following the granting of the July 4 permit by the board of supervisors.

The plans of the organization to prevent or stop the fight, together with the homecoming of Governor Gillett, who will be appealed to by the church men, makes the meeting one of importance.

Gleason Says All on Square.
"I do not believe that Governor Gillett made the statements credited to him," said Jack Gleason this morning when the interview, telegraphed from Chicago, was read to him. "The governor recently admitted that he knew nothing whatever about boxing contests, never having witnessed one nor ever having the slightest interest in one. Under the circumstances it would be impossible for him to hold the opinion that is attributed to him."

"His alleged statement that the whites will not permit a negro to win the world's championship is preposterous. Didn't Mr. Johnson win the world's championship from a white man in Australia? I have never had and never will have anything to do with a fake, and a fake cannot be pulled off without the knowledge of the promoters, if they know their business. Jeffries would rather lose an arm than lose this fight, and besides everybody knows that all the money in the world could not induce him to be a party to a fake."

"As for Johnson, he would rather win the undisputed championship of the world than fall heir to a million dollars."

"I repeat, I do not believe that Governor Gillett gave out that interview."

Jack Johnson Pleads Not Guilty.
Jack Johnson took the same view of the Gillett interview as taken by Gleason.

"I do not believe it," the champion said, after coming in off the road this morning. "This fight is going to be on the level and I am going to win, even if I have to fight the 10,000 white men around the ring. Even if there was anything doing, how could Governor Gillett learn anything about it? It's nonsense to say that the fight is a frame-up, and I do not believe the governor said it. There is no offer that could be made to induce me to lay down."

CORBETT'S COMMENT ON GILLETT'S STATEMENT

(United Press Lessed Wire.)
Rowlandman, Cal., June 2.—Jim Corbett was painfully surprised when informed of the Gillett interview.

"With all due respect for Governor Gillett and the position he occupies," said Corbett, "must say he is sadly mistaken. I am not a millionaire, but I will give $5000 to anyone who will show me that this fight is a frame-up. They may say that John L. Sullivan was a faker, that Bob Fitzsimmons was a faker, or that even I was a faker, but here is one, Jim Jeffries, on whose character as a boxer there has never been and never will be a stain. It is too bad, if the governor is correctly quoted, that he has formed the opinion that this fight is fixed. Too bad."

Jeffries did a good morning's work playing handball with Corbett, wrestling with Farmer Burns, shadow boxing and skipping the rope. Owing to the weather having become cooler, he has decided to do his boxing this afternoon.

DAYTON, OR., PIONEER WOMAN LAID TO REST

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Dayton, Or., June 2.—The funeral of Mrs. A. L. Alderman was held Wednesday and her body laid in the Brookside cemetery by the side of her husband, Mrs. Alderman, when a child of 5, crossed the plains with her father's family in 1861. Much of her life was spent in or near Dayton, where she was loved and respected.

Two children and her husband preceded her across the Great Divide. She is survived by three children, E. M. Alderman of Dayton, L. R. Alderman of the university faculty of Eugene, and Mrs. Eva Powell of Corvallis. Rev. Murphy of the Baptist church conducted the funeral service.
