HITT WHOLE SHOW AGAINST BEAVERS

Holds Portland to One Bingle and Bats in Enough Runs to Win.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Los Angeles, June 17.—Hitt was the whole show yesterday, blanking the Beavers, allowing them but one hit and making three singles himself that contributed to the Hoosiers' big score. Speas was the only northerner who discovered the safe side of the ball, and had it not been for his single in the sixth frame Hitt would have scored a no hit no run game. On the other hand,

When we first started to make Obak Cigarettes, we thought they would prove a good smoke. Now we know it. Public approval has demonstrated their superior quality.

We have exercised the greatest care in blending "OBAX" which are rolled in mais paper, with cooling mouthpiece attached.

Seaton was touched up for 13 safeties, most of which were bunched. On three hits in the second inning, Vernon took command with two runs. Coy started it with a double, and Burrell copped an infield single. Lindsay stopped a pitched ball, Hogan was out on a fly, but Hitt singled and scored two. Seaton walked Coy and Burrell in the sixth. Lindsay singled, Hogan squeezed and Hitt singled, bringing the pedestrians in. Coy and Lindsay scored in the eighth on a walk, an out, Lindsay's single and Hitt's third single. Score:

WILL FIELDER JONES LEAD CHICAGO AGAIN?

Fielder A. Jones, famous manager of the Chicago White Sox, who has signed to play with the Chehalis team. In this action the fans see a movement of much concern to (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Chicago, Ill., June 17.—President Comiskey of the Chicago White Sox has given Fielder Jones, his former manager, now a resident of Portland, Or., where he is in the timber business, permission to play the remainder of the season with the Chehalis team of the Washington State league, a class D organization under the national agreement.

Call of the Diamond. The call of the diamond is stronger than the lure of the pines, and although Fielder Jones says he is out of baseball for good, there are signs pointing eastward and Chicago is their vanishing point.

Old Love Near Bottom. With one Chicago team at the top of the ladder in the National league and the other—Jones' old club—on the verge of the bottom in the American, is it any wonder that Jones is wanted? One world's championship—the only time it was ever won by the junior big league—and never finishing less than third place, is the proud record of the Portland lumberman.

CHIMMIE'S COLUMN

Bliff! Bang! Boom! What a beating the Ducks received at Vernon yesterday. Billy Speas secured the only walk-off that resembled a hit, and "Hitt" was right on the job the rest of the time. He had the Beavers' "goal" from start to finish.

The Portland boys didn't believe in playing "real" ball yesterday because it was Seaton's birthday and they wanted Tom to get a present. Tom received a beautiful "souvenir" but he was unlucky. "Thirteen hits" is a jinks for a birthday.

All the "champions" received their bumpings yesterday which doesn't change our position in the percentage column. It was quite rude of Roy Hitt to slam the ball the way he did, because Seaton was always nice to Roy. Yes, he was "ever" so nice in ever so many ways and Roy took advantage of Thomas yesterday and soured him for 30 bingles.

It was errorless game. Oh, yes, the boys thought 13 hits were enough without making matters worse by miscuing. Lively, who pitches for Oakland, had a delightful time at Sacramento yesterday when the Senators made things very lively for Lively. He had a balloon ascension in the seventh inning. That slump is coming.

Walter Nagle took a slam at the Seals and they were "easy" for the human "silver" who kept the Frisco boys on their rapid slide down the toboggan.

The Athletics slipped the White Sox am going back to Chicago, for there is nothing settled about it. I made my terms once, they were not accepted, and that ends me so far as the big league is concerned, and the man who was never known to laugh from April to September, smiled wistfully.

His New Job. Chehalis, Wash., June 17.—Fielder Jones, former star in the outer garden of the Chicago White Sox and for years the idol of the south side fans, will this summer play center field for the Chehalis team in the Washington State league, the most insignificant baseball circuit in the Pacific states.

Mt. Angel Defeats Chemawa. Mount Angel College, Or., June 17.—In a brilliant, keen and clear cut game, Mount Angel college bested Chemawa on the local diamond yesterday afternoon in the eleventh inning, to the tune of 3 to 2, thus bringing her season to a close with the remarkably high average of .750. The feature of the game was the pitching of Studer, who was hit but once in seven innings, and won his own game in the eleventh by souping a three bagger and coming in on Manion's squeeze play.
