MOVE TO FIGHT SMOKE TRUST

Independents at New York Propose to Manufacture and Retail Everywhere.

(United Press Special Wire.) New York, June 18.—A movement is on foot to offer opposition to the United Cigar Stores company all over the United States. About 300 New York cigar merchants have formed an organization to fight the so-called cigar trust and they plan to establish a chain of stores throughout the United States.

Jealous Husband Suspected. Los Angeles, June 18.—Mrs. Jerome Hiss, 23 years of age, lies in the receiving hospital today with three bullets in her back. They were fired, according to the police, by her husband, who, they say, was jealous. The shooting occurred at 3 o'clock this morning at the Lorraine hotel. The man who fired the shots escaped. At the hospital it is announced that the woman has little chance to recover.

WILLETT PROVES BEAVERS' MASTER

Portland Starts Rally in Ninth but Hooligan Slabster Puts Stop to It.

Los Angeles, Cal., June 18.—Willett kept the Beavers from hitting yesterday and Garrett was beaten 2 to 0, although the Texan twirled pretty ball, notwithstanding the locals bunched him in the second and fourth innings. Until the ninth Willett held the visitors to one hit, a double poled by Casey in the first inning.

Table with columns: AB, R, H, PO, A, E. Rows for various players like Siavall, N. Brashear, Carlisle, etc.

Portland, June 18.—Portland had a glorious chance in the ninth to tie the score, but Ryan could only find the atmosphere. With two gone Olson doubled and Rappa walked, followed by a single by Fisher, which was too short to let Olson score. Ryan ended the inning by striking out.

CHIMMIE'S COLUMN

"Sheesa und crickers, vat it 'tis, all dis losing his-un-las? Im perfectly dissatisfac-tion mit dere playing, bud I vant dem to be a liddle more disagreeable to demselves about it." (Johnnie Calahan in disguise; I mean disgust.)

So we were at the receiving end of another slaming yesterday, and Jess Garrett is singing a new song entitled, "I got mine boys, I got mine."

Two thutouts in succession is no be-ness. Winning 'em, dat's a "bees-ness." I guess I'm off on that bum lingo, but I have to stall once in awhile.

Ote Johnson, the once terrible "Swede," who started with the Highlanders and later was farmed out to the Jersey City team of the Eastern league, has been benched because of his inability to hit better than 184. How the once mighty have fallen. It cannot was.

TRAPIT LEAGUE PLAYS TOMORROW

Salem and West Siders Cross Bats at the Vaughn Street Park.

The Tri-City league will be the baseball attraction tomorrow at 2:30 o'clock Twenty-fourth and Vaughn streets, when the West Sides and Salem cross bats. This game will be the first appearance of the Salem team this season in Portland and a red hot game can be looked for.

The West Sides will bank on their reliable pitcher "Big Bill" Kotterman, who will be on the mound, and Colbath will do the receiving. Manager German has decided to send in his old reliable Bert Johnson and a pitchers' battle may be looked for, as both pitchers are heady men and have opposed each other before, each winning a game.

LIST OF ELIGIBLES FOR COMMERCE COURT

(United Press Special Wire.) Washington, June 18.—That a number of government trust busters are likely to get places on the new "commerce court" is rumored here. The following men are mentioned as eligibles who are likely to be considered by the president when the appointments are made: Martin A. Knapp, chairman of the interstate commerce commission; Wade H. Ellis of Ohio, who has played a prominent part in the government's list of trust busters; James N. Harlan of Illinois; William P. Hepburn of Iowa; Frank N. Kellogg of Minnesota, known as the "government trust buster," who had charge of the case to dissolve the Standard Oil company, and C. A. Severance of Minnesota.

INTEREST IN COMING DEBATE GROWING

Much interest has been aroused in the coming debate upon prohibition issues between Colonel E. Hofer of Salem and Rev. Clarence True Wilson, at Hawthorne park tabernacle next Tuesday evening. Colonel Hofer is editor of the Capital Journal and a candidate for governor, and Dr. Wilson is president of the Methodist Preachers' association and the pastor of Centenary M. E. church. The debate will be two hours long, the formal subject being "Resolved, That prohibition of the liquor traffic would be a detriment to the state of Oregon."

Weston's Rival Ahead of Time. (United Press Special Wire.) Chicago, June 18.—John Ennis, walking from New York to San Francisco, arrived here yesterday, seven days ahead of Weston's time for the same distance. Ennis hopes to finish the journey within 100 days.

YOUNG TOGO SAYS NO SLEEP PILLS

Bennett Will Have No Chance to Send Him to Land of Nod.

Young Togo, the diminutive Jap wrestler who meets Jockey Bennett, a boxer, and "Abby" Abernathy, a wrestler in the same night, agreeing to subdue both of them, is one of the best examples of physical development among the Japs of Portland. He has a splendid physique and is able to withstand all sorts of punishment.

SANTA ANITA RACING MAY START THIS FALL

Los Angeles, June 18.—A conference of racing men will be held here late this month to determine whether or not Santa Anita will be the scene of a race meet this fall.

For Elderly People

How the Kidneys and Bladder Cause Pain, Misery and Discomfort, and How They May be Healed. No matter how apparently strong and healthy you may be, as you approach middle age there is a certain letting down in the physical forces sure to make itself felt. When this happens to the kidneys and bladder, then they do not perform their work properly, and cannot until they are toned up and strengthened, and restored to their normal action.
