GREGG ONCE MORE BLANKS VILLAGERS

Has Hooligans Guessing While Fellow Boarders Score on Wild Throws.

Los Angeles, June 21.—Lefty Gregg pitched his second shutout of the week against Vernon yesterday, 4 to 0, being the only Portland pitcher able to baffie Hogan's stalwarts. He let the locals down with four hits and his crooks were working so intelligently that he whiffed three of the villagers in one inning, the sixth, the victims being Carlisle, R. Brashear and Coy. Brackridge was a trifle wild in throwing to bases and the Mackmen took full advantage of it.

CHIMMIE'S COLUMN

Well, what do you know about that? We won a game at last. Who'd have "thunk" it?

Gregg, the bridegroom, was all to the good yesterday and repeated his performance of last Wednesday, when he shut the Vernons out by the same score of 4-0.

Up until the fifth inning it looked like another long distance contest.

Just think of it, the Hooligans made seven errors. Who would think that Happy's tribe would get "ever" so careless because they are "ever" so nice because of boys? "Ever" so nice in "ever" so many nice ways. Wouldn't that disturb the ill pickles in old lady Murphy's chowder bowl?

McCredie retired in favor of Ort, who played right field. "Chawgie" had two putouts and came through with a two bagger against the right field fence. Leave it to George and he'll do it.

Billy Speas is picking up in his batting and we can expect something sensational from him ere long. The boys all seem to hit better on the road than they do at home.

They slammed Rapps on the k-noodle yesterday at Vernon, but it didn't hurt "Roaring" Bill's "dome of knowledge." The harder you connect with his anatomy the better he plays ball. He eats those small wallops.

Gene Krapp will be the "link" who will open against the Senators today unless it is real warm and then Manager Mac may decide to work Jess Garrett.

Sam Berger, who was picked up on the sand lots in Brooklyn, pitched great ball against the New York National yesterday, winning his fifth straight victory. He is reputed to be the pitching sensation of the season.

St. Louis beat Detroit yesterday, 4-2. The Tigers used four pitchers and two catchers. Jennings doesn't give his twirlers a chance to get their bumpings, yanking them out as soon as they show signs of weakening. He always has a man warming up, which is a good stunt.

The White Sox still continue to win. They alliped Cleveland a whitewash yesterday, 1-0.

The prizelight promoters are singing their favorite song, entitled "We don't know where we're going, but we're on our way." The chorus is composed of Jeffries, Johnson, Berger and Flanagan.
