

MILK MEN NOW ADVOCATE STATE- WIDE COW TEST

Adopt This Course as Substitute for Plan to Obtain Injunction Preventing Enforcement of Pure Milk Law.

Dr. Wheeler Ready to Fight.
"If a fight is expected, and wants the creamery and dairy men shall get it," said Dr. C. H.
Wheeler, city health officer. "I will be glad to see the ordinance tested. If it is weak in any way, it will be amended. I think the best plan would be for the creamery men not to fight the ordinance, but let us all work together to enforce it the best way we can, then get the state wide inspection next fall from the legislature. But they must have their license. I shall attend to the matter at once."

The Portland Butter board voted last night to support a law compelling statewide testing of dairy cows for tuberculosis. It was also agreed not to apply for any more licenses for the sale of milk or cream in creamery stores until compelled to by the city.

This latter action substitutes the board's plans, as announced last week, for obtaining an injunction to prevent enforcement of the city's pure milk ordinance. The effect will be to force the city to take legal action against the creamery men and thus bring the provisions of the ordinance which requires testing for tuberculosis and a low bacterial count to a test issue.

"We are in sympathy with the ordinance's spirit," said W. C. Dey, president of the Butter board. "None should be more greatly in favor of weeding out diseased cows than the producers of milk."
Do Not Favor Law.
"While the talk goes on, pro and con, concerning the transmissibility of bovine tuberculosis to mankind, we know that we are not willing to use milk or cream or butter from a diseased cow.
We do not want to take any chances."
"But we believe the law should have broad application. Our experience with the local health board has been unsatisfactory. When we apply for a license we give a list of all our shippers. Each dairyman from whom we buy milk is supposed to have his herd tested before we can buy from him. As a matter of fact, the herds of the men who peddle milk on the streets have been inspected and tested where applications are made. But although I submitted a list of my shippers more than four months ago, I learn that none of them has been visited or their herds examined."

Favor Test.
"We will have ready at the next meeting of the legislature a law which will compel state-wide inspection. In the meantime we will be educating the dairyman of the state as to what is coming."
"We do not oppose the tubercular test. We favor it. We think the bacterial count is too low. But we all see that a new order of things is coming.
We welcome the new order. We favor cleanliness, and we want to serve our customers with a cleanly and sanitary product. It is not a question of method, but of effect."
"I attended the meeting of the Portland Dairy association last Saturday night. I heard some of them say they would go out of business before they would submit their cows to a tubercular test. The sentiment of the majority Kitt Gould of Seattle in Confession Alleges Sharp Practice Against Rivals.

(United Press Landed Wire.) Seattle, June 21.—That he was hired by J. Ralph Burch, head of the Poultry association, to put the Poultry Producers' union out of business is the statement of Kitt Gould, a local attorney.

Gould's admission came up in the fight being waged against the Western avenue commission merchants by the newspapers and independent dealers.
Gould was to purchase, with association money, any accounts that he could obtain against the Poultry Producers association, and push them for immediate settlement, according to his confession.

Frank Williams, manager of the latter organization, asserts not only that the combine harassed him in the manner described by Gould, but that employees of his were bribed to reveal secrets of his business and to purchase unmarketable produce, in order to cri-ple his business.

was that they had better go out of business, then. The Portland Dairy association is in sympathy with the Portland Butter board in its plans."

BOAT PASSENGER MAY BE CHARLTON

Man Answering Description of Husband of Murdered Woman Sails for U. S.

London, June 21.—A man giving the name of A. Gemmardt and answering the description of Porter Charlton, suspected of the murder of his wife, Mary Scott Castle Charlton, at Como, Italy, will arrive in New York on the liner Deutschland late today, according to a report here.

The man registered at the Armfield hotel, Strandway Circus, last Tuesday.
He was ill and a physician diagnosed his ailment as appendicitis and advised an operation. The man refused to undergo an operation, and sailed for New York.

Drunkenness Curable Drunkenness is no longer considered a crime; eminent scientists and physicians have agreed that it is a disease and must be treated as such.

Como, June 21.—Constantine Isolatoff, the Russian, who has been under arrest on suspicion of having murdered Mary Scott Castle Charlton, was released from custody today.
The police admit that there was not a particle of evidence connecting him with the crime and that he was arrested only because he was found near the scene of the murder.
Isolatoiff is now assisting the police to unravel the Charlton mystery. He declares that he believes Charlton murdered Mrs. Charlton as a result of brooding over some incident in her life previous to her marriage with Charlton.

PIANOLA

This is the greatest contest that has ever been launched anywhere. Never before have such valuable prizes been given away absolutely free. The contest will prove both educational and fascinating. Merit alone will count.
It's a contest that is of vital interest to any home without a piano, so be sure to try. Everyone has an equal opportunity.

If you care for music and want a piano, this is the greatest opportunity you ever will have. As explained in yesterday's issue of The Journal, this contest is being held especially for pianoless homes, and will be the means of distributing hundreds and hundreds of pianos.

It is giving everybody an opportunity of securing a piano free or for a very little additional outlay of cash. There is no catch or chance. Read the simple conditions. Send your answer in early. Start on it today.

Educational and Fascinating

Very few people are at all familiar with the great names in Music. Fewer still know how to spell them. Further, how many know the old alphabet numerically? As an example, the letter "N" is the 14th letter, letter "G" is the 7th, "W" the 23d, etc. Youngsters know the alphabet numerically better than the "old" folks.
This contest enables everybody to become familiar with the relative numerical position of the different letters of the alphabet, and also to become familiar with the names and spelling of the great composers.

Every letter in the squares on the left represents a relative numerical letter, and every line spells the name of a famous composer.
We have omitted the numbers in four of the squares (?) which you must supply.

Rules and Conditions
The person sending in the nearest correct and most artistic answer will receive the first prize, absolutely free, choice of one of the above internationally renowned pianos. The other prizes will be awarded in order of merit and the entire amount of prizes, namely, $16,280, will be distributed in cash value drafts ranging in amounts from $125 down to $50 among the successful contestants. Remember merit alone counts. This contest is open to everyone excepting those engaged in the music business, or members of their family.
Professional artists also are barred. Only one answer from a family will be awarded to each. The decision of judges to be final.
This special manufacturers' advertising appropriation is to be used for the direct benefit of the actual purchasers, and numerous successful contestants will be able to own a fine piano with very little effort. Everybody is invited to enter this great contest—absolutely free—no charge of any kind.

New Departure

The cost of interments have been greatly reduced by the Holman Undertaking company.
Heretofore it has been the custom of funeral directors to make charges for all incidentals connected with a funeral. The Edward Holman Undertaking company, the leading funeral directors of Portland, have departed from that custom. When casket is furnished by us we make no extra charges for embalming, hearse to cemetery, outside box or any services that may be required of us, except clothing, cemetery and carriage, thus effecting a saving of $25 to $75 on each funeral.
