Memorial Services—Memorial services for members of the grange who have passed away during the last 15 months were held Sunday afternoon at Montavilla. Four local granges combined the services provided by ritual to be held in memory of the faithful workers who lay down the burdens of life...

Arrested in Denver—Benjamin G. Linton, who was arrested in Denver yesterday at the request of local authorities, will be returned to Portland in a day or two to face a grand jury charge. Linton was traced through the medium of a baggage check when he appeared at the station in Denver to claim his luggage...

Buys 900 Acre Farm—Involving an investment of about $40,000, part of it in cash and the remainder in an exchange of peninsula property, W. Kendall closed a deal yesterday with W. T. McDaniel, whereby the former becomes the owner of 900 acres of growing grain located in Franklin county, Washington...

Repeals Confession—Roy Holloway was convicted of attempting to hold up Robert McKenneth by a jury in the circuit court yesterday afternoon. His partner, Charles Fox, having pleaded guilty earlier in the day, Holloway signed a confession after his arrest, but he repudiated this on the witness stand, saying he was afraid of the "third degree"...

Wants Oregon Represented—The Ohio valley exposition, which opens at Cincinnati August 29 and closes September 24, has sent invitations to the Portland Commercial club asking Oregon to exploit its resources at the exposition. It is believed not likely that the state will participate, but possibly representation might be made by individuals wishing to spread the fame of the state.

Loses lawsuit—Joseph Ruel lost his suit against Robert Wakefield by the nonsuit route in Judge Gantenbein's department of the circuit court yesterday afternoon. He was hurt while working on a bridge over the Clackamas river near Oregon City and asked for $7500 damages, but the court decided the law would not permit him to recover...

F. E. Youkum, M. D., philanthropist and founder of the home in California devoted to the moral uplift and bodily healing of the needy and friendless, will be in Portland June 27 to 29 and will hold meetings at the Christian Alliance tabernacle, Ninth and East Clay streets, three afternoons and evenings, beginning June 27, and the evening of June 29 at the Centenary Methodist church, Ninth and East Pine.

By Request Rev. Dr. Benjamin Young will deliver a free illustrated stereoscopic lecture on Yellowstone National Park at the Taylor Street Methodist Episcopal church, Wednesday, June 23. Lecture will begin promptly at 8 p. m. The public is cordially invited.

Dangerous at Night—Giles street, from Third to Sixth, which has been torn up by street contractors, is reported to be in a condition dangerous to night pedestrians and vehicles. Last night there was only one red light in the whole three blocks.

Motor Cycles for Police—The police department will soon have added to its present equipment two large, modern motor cycles, if the recommendation to be made by the executive board of the committee on police is acted upon favorably by the council.

Fire Does Little Damage—A fire broke out at 221 Front street at 3:45 o'clock last night in a second-hand store. Little damage was done, as the flames were extinguished before they gained any headway.

Art Department—The art and the psychology departments of the Woman's Club are invited to meet Miss Rose of Kansas City and Miss Eaton of St. Helena's Hall at the home of Mrs. Webster, 253 Whitaker street, tomorrow from 2 to 5 p. m.

If you want to get rid of that cough, get a bottle of Kenyon's Cough Remedy from Albert Berni, the druggist, 252 Washington street. A few doses relieve the worst cases of coughs, colds and bronchial irritation.

The Catholic Ladies Aid society will hold its annual lawn party for the benefit of St. Joseph's Home for the Aged at Sunnyside Wednesday evening, June 23. A large attendance is solicited. Admission and refreshments 50c.

The finest butter north of Panama Canal and the best and cheapest meat in the United States. The meat is as pure as T. Roosevelt wants it. The butter will give you a fat smile. Come all ye patriots! Go to Smith's market for your meat and butter.

Child's Funeral—The funeral of the youngest child of Rev. E. C. Cook of Sand Point, Idaho, formerly of this city, will take place Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, from Dunning's undertaking parlors. The child died Sunday morning.

Wife Was—Steamer sails Friday for San Francisco and Los Angeles. Cabin $18 and $10, steerage $5 and $12, berth and meals included. Frank Bolland, agent, 128 Third street.

At the Theatres. "My Wife" at the Baker. One of the best of all high class comedies ever seen here is "My Wife" in which Iselta Jewel, Franky Underwood and other members of the Baker stock company are appearing this week. It is one big, long laugh, from beginning to end. There will be a bargain matinee tomorrow.

At the Arcade theatre a splendid western feature, "The Ranchman's Feud," heads the bill. At the Star theatre "How Championships Are Won and Lost," by James J. Corbett; at the Oh Joy, "The White Fawn's Devotion"; at the Odium, "A Central American Romance" is the headliner.

The Nightingales at Pantages. Coming direct from international triumphs, the Four Nightingales, the world's most celebrated Olympian gymnasts, top the week's bill at Pantages. Their feats of strength and hand balancing are without exception the finest ever presented in Portland.

Girl Show. Girls to the number of 17 are on the new bill at the Grand. There is a great collection of youthful beauties and every one is talented. The stage looks like a seminary. Tim McManis' watermelon girls have the feature position.

At the Oaks. No higher class of entertainment in a musical way is possible to provide than that now being given at the Oaks. Liberator's name and fame are so well established that nothing remains to be said on that subject. The regular park attractions continue to be popular.

Elephant Act a Great Hit. Among the many attractive features acts on the bill at the Orpheum this week none is more appealing than Captain Maximilian Grober's trained animals, which include the wonderful elephant "Minnie." She is the largest elephant in the world, and her many feats are truly amazing. Matinee every day.

Loading Republicans of northern Alabama are advocating the nomination of Amos Goodhue, a prominent lawyer of Gadsden, as the Republican candidate for governor of Alabama, to oppose the Democratic nominee, Colonel Emmet O'Neal of Florence. Mr. Goodhue is
