Selling Regularly to $30 $7.50 Selling Regularly to $30

—The prices at all first-class establishments are practically the same on the average women's suits, dresses and coats. Were it simply a matter of price a woman could very easily make a selection in any good store. But it is not. There is a difference in suits and coats.

—Often price covers a multitude of mistakes and omissions. That is where our women's wear differs from others. Instead of buying garments where style is lacking and workmanship is poor, we buy First of all, quality, style and tailoring. Then the price comes next. Quality at all times is the keynote in this store.
