Did Not Desert Wife -- Because the stimony indicated that A. C. Schuacher only intended to desert his wife, instead of stitually doing so, County Judge Cleeton yesterday dismissed the mon-support charge brought against him by his wife. The testimony showed that, after failing in an effort to have his wife declared insane. Schumacher packed wife declared insane. Schumacher packed up and started for Seattle, being arrested at the depot. His wife admitted the rent for the house was paid a month in advance, procesy bills were paid and she had $40 on hand. Judge Cleeton decided this testimony would not sustain a non-support charge, although it appeared Schumacher intended to quit his wife.

> only one "best" bargain

There can be but one best acreage bargain in the Portland market, and we want a chance to show you that Ban-ner Acres is that best, buy. An ner acres is that best, buy. An investigation will convince any fair-minded man or woman that it is the most sightly tract, the easiest of access, of the very best soil, adapted to fruit raising or garden trucking, has the finest of pure water—and for residence sites it is anequaled. Aside from this the price is only $100 to $150 per acre, which is a less price than is asked for many tracts not worth half as much. There may be other acreage bargains in the market, but Banner Acres is the one best bargain.

It was the general opinion of the members of the commission that the city should own the place. The question of importance was the price to be paid for it.

Dr. J. H. Wetherbee said it was his opinion that if an attempt was made to buy the place a regular hold-up game would follow, as he understood the

It was the opinion of Commissioner Lang that if the site could be purchased at a reasonable figure, the city should take it, but he wouldn't countenance any hold-up. It was also his idea that the board should examine the title. lease and other features in order to find out the exact condition of affairs. He was authorized by the board to gather such data to be presented before the boardest the next regular session.

Reject Proposition. Cold water was thrown on a proposition to purchase a site near the ter-minal of the boulevard in Fulton Park addition, which proposition was for making a small public park. This site is owned by the Fulton Improvement company, and contains 10 acres. While it would be a desirable place for a park, and that is about all it is good for, it is said, the board was inclined to say that it was too far out, and the best thing to do now is to improve what
