

WILL IT BE A SAFE FOURTH OR USUAL RIOT OF POWDER?

Ordinance Prohibits Sale of High Explosives, but Will This Have Desired Effect? Many Leaving City.

The celebration of independence day tomorrow in a semi-peaceful way may appear to be like all former Fourth of July. If so, it will be the last noisy and dangerous celebration, for street fireworks and explosives have been forbidden by city ordinance. Hereafter patriotism will necessarily have to be displayed in some more quiet manner than has been occasioned by the average American for the past 34 years.

The effects of this attitude of the city is already being experienced. Dealers in material for celebrations are making strenuous efforts to unload their stocks of goods. The pre-celebrations are not being made, as usually the small boy begins making a noise several days before the official day.

The amusement parks and other places of recreation will claim the many hundreds of people who will close shop and home and seek a day of rest. Many are going to the seaside. Mt. Hood will claim a large number.

Traffic Will Be Heavy.
The river boats and steam and electric lines are preparing to handle large crowds of men, women and children on their way to spots where they can feel the unrestrained liberty.

The city park board exercised keen foresight when they arranged for the playgrounds to be kept open tomorrow, and further provided for athletic sports. At each of the playgrounds physical directors will be in charge and each has outlined a program for the children that attend. In North Portland, where Miss Margaret E. Edwards and E. C. Smith direct, the children in the park sports throughout the day have been arranged. Ball games, flag drills and children's games will be the order.

Sunday School on Picnic.
The Swedish Methodist church and Sunday school will picnic at Piedmont park. A basket dinner will be the order at noon, and a program of speaking and athletic sports in the afternoon.

Members of Assenation parish will spend the day at Mt. St. Helens park on the Oregon Electric line. A program of music and speeches will be the order in the afternoon. Arrangements have been made to take special cars at the Jefferson street station.

Societies affiliated with the several churches of the city have arranged programs for the day. The greater part of these are in the way of picnics.

All city and county offices and most of the business houses will be closed all day.

Chief of Police Cox issued an order yesterday warning the public against the use of high explosives, and the dealers are directed not to offer them for sale. Any violation will follow violations of the order. The ordinance has placed them under the ban.

Hood Voters Slow in Registering.
(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Hood River, Or., July 2.—Voters in Hood River county are slow in registering. Saturday evening the following party voters had registered: Republicans, 84; Democrats, 11; Prohibitionists, 1; Independents, 1. The total vote for the county is expected to be 1350. The Republicans are expecting to fill all the offices of the county this year. It is the first general election to be held in Hood River county since its organization.

A new blasting explosive, which needs a special cartridge to detonate it, is given the credit for reducing the death rate in the Pennsylvania anthracite region by about 300 within the last year.

St. Johns Catholics to Have Double Celebration

Parochial residence and chapel and school buildings of St. Clement's parish, St. Johns.

The nation's natal day will be doubly celebrated by the Catholic residents of St. Johns as the recently completed chapel and school building of St. Clement's parish, St. Johns, is to be dedicated next Monday at 10 o'clock a. m. by Archbishop Alexander Christie, assisted by Monsignor James Rauw, vicar general.

The buildings, consisting of a chapel and school under one roof and a commodious parochial residence, were built by the Catholics of the lower peninsula at a cost of about $18,000. Contrary to the usual custom, the chapel is on the ground floor of the main building and the upper floor is arranged into four large, well appointed classrooms. The design is to use the chapel as a parish church until such time as the parish is able to build a modern church edifice, which will probably be but a few years, as the district is growing very rapidly both in population and wealth.

September 1 the school will be opened under the auspices of the Sisters of St. Francis of Milwaukee, who also conduct the school at McMinnville. Some time during the next year the Sisters of St. Francis expect to begin the erection of a convent on property adjoining the new parochial school and chapel.

LAWYERS TO NAME THREE FOR BENCH

July 8 Will Gather to Make Judicial Nominations Regardless of Politics.

Nominations for three places on the circuit bench of Multnomah county will be made by the lawyers of the county on the evening of July 8. The official call for the meeting was issued yesterday by the committee of the Multnomah Bar association appointed for that purpose at a recent meeting, the committee consisting of A. E. Clark, chairman, R. E. Gilpin, George W. Joseph and D. Solis Cohen.

The call is addressed to the lawyers of the Fourth judicial district, and extends to the judicial places to be filled, departments Nos. 1, 2, and 3, now occupied by Judges John P. Kavanaugh, John B. Cleland and William N. Gaten, proceeds:

"Whereas at said session of the Multnomah Bar association, it was resolved and determined that said assembly shall be composed of lawyers, and that every lawyer who is an elector of the state of Oregon, who is admitted to practice in the courts of the state of Oregon, and who resides in the Fourth judicial district, of the state of Oregon, shall be entitled to participate in said assembly, without regard to political affiliations.

Therefore, pursuant to the said authority, the undersigned committee so appointed by the Multnomah Bar association, has duly appointed and designated the 8th day of July, 1910, at the hour of 8 o'clock p. m. of said day as the time and department No. 1 in the courthouse of the county of Multnomah, located in the city of Portland, county aforesaid, and state of Oregon, as the place when and where the assembly shall be held.

Therefore, notice is hereby given to all the attorneys at law residing within the Fourth judicial district of the state of Oregon, being electors of the state of Oregon, and admitted to practice in the courts of the state of Oregon, that an assembly of electors of not less than 100 will be held at said department No. 1 in the county courthouse in the city of Portland, Multnomah county, state of Oregon, on the 8th day of July, 1910, at the hour of 8 o'clock p. m. of said day, for the purpose of nominating three candidates for the circuit bench of the Fourth judicial district of the state of Oregon, to-wit:

To Nominates Three.
"One candidate for department No. 1, to succeed the Honorable John E. Kavanaugh; one candidate for department No. 2, to succeed the Honorable John B. Cleland, and one candidate for department No. 3, to succeed the Honorable William N. Gaten. All lawyers recirculated, and these, together with Walsh's personal application for a pardon, will be filed at Washington. It is the plan to urge the petition before the pardon authorities at Washington as soon as Walsh attaches his signature to the application. In the event a pardon is refused, the matter will probably be laid before President Taft and arguments will be made in support of the plea.

So far Walsh has declined to take part in any plan intended to obtain a pardon. Mrs. Walsh, contrary to expectations, also has remained inactive. Following a conference a few days ago at the prison, the former banker is said to have agreed to take the initiative in an effort to obtain his liberty.

SCHOOL LANDS SELL FOR LOW FIGURES
(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Ellensburg, Wash., July 2.—Sixteen five-acre tracts of state school land, offered at public auction by County Auditor Mathews at 10 o'clock this morning, failed to bring the high prices anticipated. Several of the tracts were sold at the appraised value. Only the choicest brought more than $100, the appraised valuation. The state realized $13,717 by the sale.

The Farmers' union claims a membership of 3,000,000.

Final arrangements have been made by Oregon members of the Brotherhood of American Yeomen to welcome William Koch, grand foreman of the order, when he arrives in Portland Wednesday, July 6. In Portland he will be the guest of Portland Star Homestead No. 43 and Independent Homestead No. 550.

Wednesday evening Mr. Koch will be the guest of honor at the hall of the Western Academy of Music, Second and Morrison streets, where a large class will be initiated. A reception and dinner will be given for him Thursday evening in the W. W. Hall, corner East Sixth and Alder streets. Many out of town Yeomen will be present at the function.

FOURTH SHUTS DOWN MACHINERY OF COURT

As the national holiday prevents the transactions of court business tomorrow, Judge Butler will on Tuesday hear arguments in Albert E. Kern's suit as guardian for his mother, Henrietta Kern, against his father, Rev. Jean J. Kern, and John R. Butenschoen, in which the court is asked to set aside a conveyance by Mrs. Kern to Butenschoen, because of influence alleged to have been used by her husband and the purchaser while she was mentally incompetent. This will conclude Judge Butler's work in Multnomah county, he having been called in from the Condon circuit to assist in clearing away the completion of business at the June term.

MAYOR TRIES TO DISHEARTEN UNION

Tells Striking Teamsters They Had Better Return to Work Without Raise.

A committee from the Teamsters' union met before Mayor Simon yesterday, asking his aid in ending the strike. The union men hoped that the mayor would approve their demand for 25 cents a day additional wages. A dignified statement was issued by G. A. Rogers, business agent of the teamsters following the conference, which is as follows:

"Saturday afternoon a committee of the Teamsters' union and of the Central Labor Council had an interview with Mayor Simon on the teamsters' strike situation. Friends of the mayor and of the unions suggested this conference. After 30 minutes' talk the committee left, convinced that Mayor Simon was taking orders from the Employers' association. He bluntly told the committee that the special policemen, while paid by the taxpayers, could do as they pleased. They could drive the teams and load and unload them, if they so desired. He Mayor Simon proposed to keep them on the streets and employ any number required.

"Mayor Simon repeatedly stated to the committee that he favored the 25 cents per day increase the teamsters asked; also stated that he had so in-

JOHN R. WALSH TO APPLY FOR PARDON

Friends of Banker to Make a Plea to President Taft for Release.

(Publishers' Press League Wire.)
Chicago, July 2.—Formal application by John R. Walsh, convicted banker, who is serving a five year sentence in the federal prison at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., for a pardon, is hourly expected in Washington.

G. A. Buckingham, counsel for Walsh in Washington today conferred with James A. Finch, attorney in charge of persons in the department of justice.

Such action is believed to be the plan of friends of Walsh to make a plea to President Taft for the release of the banker. Many petitions from different sections, particularly Indiana, have been
