TONIGHT'S AMUSEMENTS

Orpheum... Vaudeville Grand... The Journal at Resorts... The following agents will supply Journal subscribers at regular city rates.

VACATION BEGINS, BUT JUDGES WORK

Three of Them Will Be Engaged in Hearing Testimony for Few Days.

Although vacation has officially begun in the circuit court, three of the judges are hard at work today and all three will be occupied in the trial of cases for two or three days longer.

FIREWORKS CLAIM ONLY 12 VICTIMS

Six Small Fires Also Result From Sane Celebration of July Fourth.

Six small fires and about a dozen minor injuries, marked the celebration of the Fourth in Portland this year, forming the most sane observance of the holiday since the municipality has assumed the proportions of a metropolitan city.

FIGHT CELEBRANTS IN POLICE COURT

Local Negroes Hold Their Enthusiasm Within Bounds But Several Overstep.

In contrast to the negro residents of most other cities, Portland's colored population was well behaved last night and of more than 300 prisoners in municipal court this morning only two were of a dusky hue.

DELAY IN TRUNK MYSTERY TRIAL

Defense File Demurrers Setting Forth That Indictments Are Faulty; Pleas Postponed.

Availing themselves of all the time possible and apparently intending to make use of all objections that the law allows in the hope of picking a flaw in the state's armor, the attorneys for Jesse F. Webb and Mrs. Carrie Kirsh, indicted for murdering W. A. Johnson by hitting him with a bludgeon and then suffocating him in a trunk, today filed demurrers to the indictment in the circuit court.

constitute a crime and attempts to state more than one crime. The district attorney's office professes no fear that these demurrers will be sustained.

ASSEMBLY JOKE IN GILLIAM, ONLY TEN DELEGATES PRESENT

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Condon, July 5.—The assembly is a joke in Gilliam county. The 10 delegates who will represent the county in the state assembly were chosen by seven precinct committees. There are 13 committees in the county and because of the small attendance, the first meeting was adjourned to a later date, and a grand effort made to round up and bring in the absentees.

FELLS WAITRESS AND KNOCKED OUT HIMSELF

C. A. Burbank was fined $15 in municipal court this morning after striking Miss Edna May Hendricks, a waitress in the Royal Canton, Park and Alder streets, unconscious last night and apparently without provocation with the cashier's hand and quarreled with the cashier of the place, alleging he had been "touched." According to witnesses, Miss Hendricks passed with a tray at this time and Burbank is said to have turned and struck her without even the excuse of words.
