

600 PERSONS DIE WHEN SHIPS MEET IN DNIEPER RIVER

Vessels Loaded With Passengers and Rescue Impossible—Shock of Collision Causes Boilers to Explode.

(United Press Special Wire.)
Odessa, July 14.—That 600 persons perished in a collision between the ships Lovki and Wampoa at the mouth of the Dniester river is the official statement issued by the owners of the vessels. The disaster occurred Saturday night. The shock of the collision was so great that the Lovki's boiler exploded and the ship sank almost instantly.

9 COMMITTEEMEN OF UNION ELECT THIRTY DELEGATES

Union; Judd Geer of Cove, J. A. Matott of La Grande No. 1, G. E. Cochran, proxy for Chairman Pearce of La Grande No. 2, J. A. Fraker of La Grande No. 3, W. Ruckman, proxy for Charles Playle of Allice, C. H. Bidwell of Island City, C. A. Nordens of Kalama and J. M. Kilkinson of North Powder. North and South Elgin, as well as two precincts in La Grande, were unrepresented. In those two precincts D. Bay and John H. Sheik are committeemen. A resolution was unanimously voted by those present endorsing the assembly movement and declaring the election of delegates in order. Thirty delegates were then elected.

La Grande Man Is Dubious.
Committeeman Fraker from La Grande precinct No. 5 was rather dubious of the intentions of the promoters of the assembly, and was of the opinion that ultimately designs for the amendment of the direct primary law and repeal of wholesome legislation for the protection of the people's rights would be attempted.

He suggested that the committee give some expression of the views entertained by the passage of some resolutions thereupon a committee consisting of Charles E. Cochran, state committeeman; Bruce Dennis, editor of the Evening Observer, and J. A. Matott, secretary of the county committee, were appointed to draft resolutions. The following resolutions were reported and unanimously adopted:

Resolutions of Committee.
(1)—We reaffirm our faith in the integrity of the Republican party, and the wisdom of Republican principles.

(2)—The direct primary law must be sustained, and under its provisions Republican meetings should be held, where platforms may be adopted, principles discussed and recommendations to the party at large made.

(3)—With that abiding faith in the Republicans of Oregon to give the state good government, we pledge the delegation elected today to assist in the organization of the party as long as that organization does not take toward corrupt convention methods such as have been a matter of common knowledge in years past; and that such efforts be made as will carry out in the state of Oregon the principles and plans of organization outlined by Taft, Roosevelt and Hughes.

State Convention Delegates.
The delegates elected to the state convention are:

Bruce Dennis, delegate at large; precinct delegates—La Grande: J. P. Baker, J. A. Matott, D. E. Cox, Dr. O'Connor, G. E. Cochran, T. J. Seroggin, William Jackson, Frank Leavitt, F. L. Meyers; Union: W. T. Wright, George A. Scibird, F. A. Bidwell, L. A. Wright; Elgin: R. A. Hugg, Dwight Barnes, J. B. Thorsen, Charles Halgarth; Imbler: John Wells; Summerville: E. J. Conrad; Allice: George Ruckman; Island City: Chet Bidwell; Cove: M. B. Reia; Othello: Echerley; North Powder: John M. Gilkinson; Medical Springs: Harry Cook; Hilgard: J. D. Casey; Kamela: C. A. Nordine; Telocaset: George Hansen; Hot Lake: Fred Currey.

a $3,000,000 power plant on the Niqually river, to George Milton Savage and W. R. Nichols. The transfer has been ratified by the city council. The only reason given for the transfer is that a local banker failed to make the advances agreed upon, and the contractors were forced to look for backing in another direction. It will not delay the completion of the power plant, on which 280 men are working.

ROOSEVELT WOULD ENCOURAGE BOXING BUT STOP FIGHTING

many of the poorer districts had resulted in good, in rather unexpected ways; that is, it had not only given the vigorous young fellows who otherwise would join "gangs," a legitimate outlet for their activities, but had also markedly reduced the number of affairs in which the knife was used. The spirit produced by the boxing had told against knife-fighting, and distinctly discouraged unfair play.

Therefore, from every standpoint, I believe in the encouragement of boxing as a sport. Moreover, boxing as a profession has its good side also. Among the men whose friendship and regard I have really valued I could name a number of professional boxers, including several ring champions. The men to whom I refer I found square, decent men, who showed themselves good citizens when their good citizenship was tested.

Prevent Brutality by Law.
I approved the movement, which in this state, at the time that I was police commissioner, resulted in the enactment of a law permitting contests between professional boxers, under conditions which were meant to safeguard the sport against brutality and the other evils which have everywhere resulted sooner or later in the suppression of the prize-ring. I saw several of these public boxing contests, in which the intent of the law was carried out in good faith. Nevertheless, even under this law, abuses crept in, and, finally, one or two fights occurred where the surrounding circumstances were so scandalous that when I was governor I was obliged to advocate, and finally to secure, the repeal of the law under which the contests took place, feeling convinced, together with the great majority of the citizens of the state, that under it almost all that made prize fighting objectionable and demoralizing had gradually been removed.

Abolish Prize Ring.

Now this was my experience, the experience of a man who, so far from being prejudiced against boxing, was and is a warm advocate of it, and who, at the outset, had not the slightest prejudice against professional boxing—that is, boxing for purses of money—and who has numbered among his friends many men who were professional and had fought for money prizes. I am sure that what has happened in New York will happen in the nation at large, and that prize fighting will be, as it ought to be, stopped in every state of the union. Since it was stopped in New York the conditions surrounding the ring have grown worse, and not better. The money prizes fought for are enormous, and are a potent source of demoralization in themselves, while they are often arranged as either to be a premium on crookedness or else to reward nearly as amply the man who fails as the man who succeeds. The betting and gambling upon the result are thoroughly unhealthy, and the moving picture part of the proceedings has introduced a new method of money-getting and of demoralization. In addition, the last contest provoked a very unfortunate display of race antagonism. I sincerely trust that public sentiment will be so aroused and will make itself felt so effectively, as to guarantee that this is the last prize fight to take place in the United States; and it would be an admirable thing if some method could be devised to stop the exhibition of the moving pictures taken thereof.
