

SHILLOCK SLATED FOR NOMINATION

Will Be Named by "Assembly" to Succeed County Judge Cleeton.

John C. Shillock, an attorney, hitherto unknown in local politics, says by the regularity of his voting, is the man who will be nominated by the assembly for county judge at next Saturday's caucus. That is unless the slate made by leaders fails of materialization.

Shillock has been selected to defeat County Judge Cleeton, who is not going into the assembly, and all because Cleeton has in the past professed friendship for Senator Bourne.

Shillock was one of the "original" assemblymen and was the first to announce his candidacy for the endorsement of the assembly for any office. He is to be rewarded with the nomination for county judge, and probably without opposition. Friends of Municipal Judge Bennett have been urging him to enter the race against Shillock, but it is known Judge Bennett does not care for the endorsement for that office, preferring to remain where he is and become a candidate for district attorney in 1912.

Book of Shillock's candidacy there is said to be an interesting story. It is said he was promised the appointment of county judge to succeed Judge Webster when the latter resigned, and was waiting for his commission when an announcement was made by Governor Benson of the appointment of Judge Cleeton.

Max Shillock, a former Portland newspaper man, and Governor Benson are close friends, or were until his brother's turn down by the governor. Max is now, and has been for some time, in poor health. In fact, by the nature of his malady, he has but a few months to live. When he last saw Governor Benson, it is said, he was given the promise that John would be appointed Webster's successor. The failure to do this is the admitted cause of Shillock's present candidacy.

Since early last spring Shillock has been pulling wires with the assiduity of a candy man and according to inside information, which has leaked out, he is among the "elect."

ROCHE AND BURNS TO BOX FOR ASTORIA FANS

The managers of the Astoria Athletic club have secured the services of Johnnie Roche, the fast California featherweight, to box Jimmie Burns at Astoria on the evening of August 5.

The fans of Astoria will be treated to something new in the line of boxing. Roche, strong into the ring with Burns. There is no question but that he is the fastest lad that has gone out of the Bay City for some time. His footwork, quick stepping in and out of tight places, has been a revelation to all those who have watched him work in his daily training stunts. He will leave for Astoria tomorrow evening and finish his conditioning at the Astoria Athletic club.

Burns is well liked in the lower Columbia hamlet, and has a number of followers. A record-breaking house is sure to greet the two boxers on their appearance in the ring next month.

COOS BAY TO HAVE MOTOR BOAT RACING

Marshfield, Or., July 15.—Races in which some of the fastest motor boats of the coast will probably take part are being planned for Coos Bay for the week of August 15, when a carnival is to be held in Marshfield and North Bend. A committee composed of members of the Coos Bay Motor Boat club have the races in charge. Substantial money prizes will be offered and an effort will be made to secure the San Francisco and Seattle racers.

There are two fast boats on the bay, the General II, owned by A. H. Powers, and the Wolf, owned by Fred Powers. Local motor boat men claim that properly handicapped the General II can beat anything else on the coast and a sufficiently large prize will be offered to induce some of the fast ones to enter the races.

Turks Pound Bonner. Spokane, Wash., July 15.—The Turks pound Bonner hard enough in the earlier innings to drive enough runs.

ENGLISH TURF STARS FINISH IN DEAD HEAT

London, July 15.—Nell Gow and Lemberg, the darlings of the English turf, ran a dead heat this afternoon in the Eclipse stakes at Sandown Park. The purse of 10,000 sovereigns was divided by the owners of the horses. Maher rode Nell Gow and Dillon piloted Lemberg.

The race was the most sensational of the present racing season. The course was one mile and a quarter. Lemberg recently won the Derby, Maher being unable to control Nell Gow in that race. This afternoon Lemberg went to the post a 5 to 4 favorite, Nell Gow was second choice at 6 to 4. Place money, which ran third, was 1 to 2, with Saxby up. There were six starters.

JACK GLEASON MAY TAKE TURN ON STAGE

San Francisco, July 15.—Jack Gleason, fight promoter, baseball magnate and playwright, is today seriously considering his qualifications for the stage. His friends believe he soon will essay the role of actor.

The Morris circuit has offered the versatile sporting man $1000 a week to enter vaudeville. If he can secure a contract for 30 weeks Gleason probably will appear before the footlights.

Britt No Angliomanic. London, July 15.—Jimmy Britt has been riled at reports circulated in America that he has expatriated himself. Said he: "I like England but I like America, too. Papers at home have linked my name with Waldorf Astor in saying that I have become a return emigrant. I bet Waldorf feels proud of the fact that his name has been used with mine. I'm going back to the states. I'm not an Angliomanic."

Errors Help Seals. San Francisco, July 15.—Bunched hits, coupled with the Senators' errors, allowed the Seals to win the first game of the three played this week. Each twirler allowed seven hits. Score: San Francisco..... 5 7 2 Sacramento..... 1 7 3 Batteries—Stewart and Williams; Fitzgerald and La Longe.

"TRIED SUICIDE, ROPE BROKE," EXPLAINS MAN

"Officer, I have just tried to hang myself, but the strap broke," said James Neutz, when arrested by Patrolman Hennessy this morning. Hennessy found Neutz acting strangely at the corner of East Burnside and Third avenue at 8:15 o'clock this morning. The man had a red cloth tied to his head and was walking about as if meditating upon some grave subject. He appeared nervous and undecided which way to go. The officer approached him and asked him what he was doing. It was then that Neutz confessed his attempt to take his own life.

Neutz took the officer to the place of the attempted suicide, East Third and East Everett streets, near the city dump. He showed the officer the piece of strap hanging from the limb of a tree.

"I have consumption," wailed Neutz, "and I tried to kill myself because I knew that I would not live long."

Police Judge Bennett turned Neutz over to the county court for examination at his trial this morning. The court will ascertain whether the man is suffering from tuberculosis or dementia.

Man near Corvallis raised 177½ tons of hay, worth $18 a ton, on 80 acres.
