

NEWSPAPER MAN BANNED BY TAFT

New York World Correspondent Said to Have Sinned by Directly Quoting.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Beverly, Mass., July 12.—Charged by Secretary Norton with having broken the rule against direct quotation of the president, a staff correspondent of the New York World has been barred from further access to Taft or to the executive offices.
The alleged "lese majeste" on the part of the World man was committed in an interview in which the president was made to say, "Lob has the most level head of any man I know."
The action is surprising, in view of the fact that the World has been a staunch supporter of Taft.
The president will leave here Monday for a cruise along the New England coast.
This afternoon President Taft will hold a conference with W. B. Hoar to discuss a way for confining the Colorado river in the Imperial valley in California.
The president worked in the gymnasium for an hour today. The play was played with Henry C. Frick, the steel magnate, and John Hays Hammond on the Myopia links.

RIGHTS OF WAY ARE ASKED FOR FARMERS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Klamath Falls, Or., July 12.—An effort is being made by the Klamath Chamber of Commerce to assist the Southern Pacific in getting rights of way for the Merrill branch. It has been unofficially announced by representatives of the railroad company that the farmers are asking prices for rights of way that will prohibit the construction of the road. The Chamber of Commerce is appealing to the farmers to accept reasonable figures for the rights of way and is also planning to raise money by popular subscription to help buy some of the more expensive properties needed by the Southern Pacific.

Klamath Building Active.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Klamath Falls, Or., July 12.—This city is about to enter upon an era of building activity. Among the buildings proposed and in course of construction are the following: Public school building, to cost approximately $30,000; Odd Fellows' temple, to cost $40,000; Hot Springs hotel, $75,000; Willis block, $20,000. A movement is under way for another hotel, to cost about $75,000.

Bus Driver's Body Found.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Astoria, Or., July 12.—The body of A. E. Farrell, driver of the Parker House bus, who committed suicide on the morning of July 6, was picked up Thursday morning in a very decomposed state. The man was 64 years old. Considerable money was found in his pocket. Coroner Gilbaugh will hold an inquest.

PINCHOT GOVERNOR OF EMPIRE STATE?

Suggested as Compromise Candidate—Taft's Attitude Admitted Factor.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Washington, July 12.—That Gifford Pinchot may be the compromise candidate of the Republicans for the New York gubernatorial nomination is the general belief among politicians here. Pinchot's friends say he is not seeking office but they intimate that he would not reject the nomination if it were offered to him. His legal residence is in New York.
Pinchot as a possibility is a suggestion that has caused considerable gossip in political circles, where it is pointed out that Taft's indorsement would undoubtedly be sought. Where Roosevelt would stand on the question there is absolutely no doubt, the politicians say, though it is admitted that the colonel might find himself again in a rather delicate situation, especially if his former secretary, William Loeb Jr., were in the race.
That the talk of Pinchot for governor should follow so soon after the visit here of Governor Hughes after his talk with Roosevelt is also causing comment and many politicians are inclined to accept the Pinchot boom for a trifle more than its face value.

SAVAGE REPORTED IN LEAGUE WITH SHUBERTS

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Albany, N. Y., July 12.—The Shuberts, the leading force in the theatrical war of the independents against the "syndicate," have filed notice here of an increase of capital stock of from $1,000,000 to $1,500,000. Those familiar with theatrical affairs believe the additional issue means a more aggressive fight on the part of the Shuberts. It is rumored here that Henry W. Savage, formerly with the "trust," will throw his lot with the Shuberts.

Phone Plan is Explained.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Hood River, Or., July 12.—The Hood River Mutual telephone promoters have sent notices to all the telephone users in the valley, explaining their plan of securing a rural telephone service that is first class at a reduction of 100 per cent under the present rates. Under the mutual plan each telephone user becomes a stockholder in the company. Many of the present patrons of the Home company are signing up with the Mutual company.

Gruber Seeks Judgeship.

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.)
Salem, Or., July 12.—Samuel H. Gruber of Portland has filed his declaration of intention to be a candidate for judge of the circuit court for Multnomah county, department No. 1. The declaration was not in the proper form because it was not accompanied by a copy of the petitions circulated by the candidate.

HUGHES LOOKS FOR HOUSE AT CAPITAL

Thereby Apparently Setting at Rest Doubt as to His Political Choice.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Washington, July 12.—All doubt as to Governor Hughes' intention of accepting the justiceship of the supreme court was dispelled when the governor started out house hunting here. Hughes came here after a conference with Roosevelt at Oyster Bay. Some politicians predicted that Roosevelt would try to persuade Hughes not to accept the justiceship but to continue in New York politics and run for reelection as governor. Whether he was asked to decline the justiceship Hughes did not say.

Springfield is Growing.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Eugene, Or., July 12.—As an evidence of the remarkable growth of Springfield during the past year, the postmaster of that place figures out that the postal receipts for June, 1910, were 73 per cent greater than they were in June, 1909. In June this year the sales amounted to $285.12. The little city is growing by leaps and bounds.

MARY MANNERING TO MARRY AGAIN

This Time It is to Be No Matinee Idol, but Just Plain Millionaire.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
New York, July 12.—Dispatches from Detroit state that Mary Manning, the actress, is engaged to Frederick W. Wadsworth, millionaire, whose wife obtained a divorce last Monday. There is strong intimation that not many moons will pass before the knot is tied.
"A little premature," Miss Manning is quoted as saying in a dispatch from Chicago, referring to the rumor of the engagement.
In her suit for divorce Mrs. Wadsworth charged her husband with being melancholy and disagreeable toward her. Mary Manning is the divorced wife of James K. Hackett.

Notarial Commissions.

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.)
Salem, Or., July 12.—Notarial commissions have been issued to M. J. Short, Drew; George E. Watkins and T. B. McDevitt, Portland; Jennie Best, Salem, and C. E. Ross, Silverton.
