

WILLIE AND JOHNNY JONES GET SQUARE WITH THE BOYS

DEAR TOMMY: I fixed up a boxing glove like this diagram, to have some fun with the boys who stopped at our hotel. Johnny Jones and I pretended to be boxing. They fell into the trap and one of them put on the gloves. Johnny waited until he got them bunched right, and then ducked, and let the glove strike his head. We had the bag filled with muddy water, and they were awful mad!

Yours, etc.,

WILLIE.
